— One Collins, for robbing the Floyd County (Iowa) treasury last June, has been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. He was one of the leading men of the county, and at the time of the robbery was Chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

— The wife of Mr. Horace McLane, chief engineer of the steamer Atlanta, of Mystic, which recently foundered to the southward of Cape Hatteras, has received a letter from her husband, which states that he was picked up at sea by a brig and landed in Cuba.

— The rebels fitted out nearly twenty vessels for privateers during the war, but only seven of them accomplished anything, viz: the Alabama, Florida, Tacony, Georgia, Retribution, Tallahassee, and Shenandoah. These captured two hundred and seventy-five merchant vessels, most of which were either burned or sunk.

— The 29th regiment (colored) was paid off at Hartford on Saturday. It took $175,000 to "go round," and the men got about $200 a piece, a good share of which was very soon exchanged for clothing and other things, some of them neither necessary or beneficial. The men generally behaved very well and would compare favorably with white troops in that respect.

— While a jury in Philadelphia were deliberating on a case on Friday night, unable to agree, the defendant, Rev. William Barnes, died of the congestion of the brain, probably induced by the excitement of the trial. He had been sued for marrying some parties under age,—thus violating an old law passed in 1701, which imposed a fine of £50.

— The Mobile Times says: "If there ever was an animal 'going round like a roaring lion, seeking whom he might devour somebody,' that animal is the landlord of the present day. Rents in Mobile are higher to day for 'greenbacks' than they were for 'graybacks.' Everybody is complaining about it—but the landlords! It would be cheaper to live out of doors, buy new furniture every frost, and employ a family physician all to one's self.

EMIGRATION TO BRAZIL.—A ship is advertised to sail from Mobile for Brazil on the 1st day of December, with emigrants, of which she can carry five hundred. The enterprise was started by a Major Hastings. Heads of families and single persons will pay $30 each; other members of families will pay $20; and children between two and twelve, $10 each; which payments will be made in gold coin. Families will be allowed one ton, and single persons two hundred pounds of freight, free of charge. The present destination of the colony is the city of Para, on the Amazon; its ultimate location on a tributary of that river, between five and ten degrees south latitude. Length of voyage, two thousand miles; sailing time about three weeks. Emigrants are advised to take six months' provisions with them. The Mobile Times denounces the scheme. It says the Anglo-Saxon race will not find congenial conditions in the laws, habits and customs of Brazil and its people, and antagonisms will spring up.

BOGUS BABIES.—A Washington dispatch says an ingenious scheme for smuggling whiskey from Canada into the United States has just been detected. There were thirty two women on one railroad train bound to the United States, who held in their arms what appeared to be babies carefully wrapped up, with neat little feet exposed to the gaze of the passengers, and upon investigation it was discovered that they were tin cases fashioned after the similitude of babies, containing from three to five gallons of whiskey. About thirty of the women were arrested, and over 100 gallons of whiskey secured.

MEXICO AND FRANCE.—The Washington Star, of Tuesday, contains an article which is understood to embody the views of Secretary Seward on the Mexican question, and closes by asserting that the Government of France and the United States, in any event, will manage affairs of difference at headquarters, and with some regard to discreet statesmanship. They certainly will not allow any officious subordinates on the Rio Grande to involve the two nations in hostilities.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—At Roxbury, Mass., Hugh McDevitt was brought before the Police Court, on Saturday last, on a capias, for making a complaint of assault and battery on himself, and on being summoned by the Government as a witness, failing to appear. The parties charged in the complaint were examined and discharged, it being proved that McDevitt was the most guilty party. He was fined $22, and in default of payment was committed to Dedham jail.

☞ Parley says Lieut. Gen. Grant arrived at Richmond on Sunday afternoon, and took quarters at the Spottswood Hotel, with his staff, each one registering his name in person. He was attired in citizen's dress, and charmed the Virginians by his unostentatious manners. After dinner the Lieutenant General visited the headquarters of Gen. Terry, and spent some time in conversation with the military officials there. He left on Tuesday morning for North Carolina, and is certainly not in any hurry to reach the Rio Grande, if it be true, as some assert, that he is going there.

TREASURY ITEMS.—While the Secretary of the Treasury will recommend a contraction of the currency, he will suggest that that the limited amount of the capital of National Banks be increased $50,000,000, and that banks may be established at the South.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the return of the household furniture seized as the property of the rebel Col. Lewis Washington, to Mrs. Washington, and has repaid to her the receipts of a sale of her family portraits and other family relics.

While Government holds fast to property which belonged to the rebel Government and its abettors, it has released seizures of family relics and household furniture claimed by ladies.

— The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is the best article in the market. It requires a little less than one half the quantity to do the same work, and when done, leaves the fabric in a much better condition than any other kind of soap. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Use no other, have no other, and be put off with no other. 16

— An official document at the Indian Bureau gives a tabular analysis of the cost per head to the Government "of killing Indians and squaws." On the Western plains the average cost of killing an Indian has been about $500,000, while for a squaw the cost is nearly $2,000,000.

— The father and mother, a brother and three sisters of Col. Julian Allen of New York, Polish refugees, have just arrived safely in New York, after undergoing great hardships and dangers in getting away from Poland, where the father was suspected of hostility to the Russian government. Col. Allen has one brother, who was implicated in the revolution of 1862, in the wilds of Siberia, another was shot, and a third is probably a captive somewhere in the Russian empire.

A QUEER BLUNDER.—At a recent burial of a soldier and a young lady in a town near Paris, the funeral authorities made the mistake of confounding the two. The lady was interred with military honors, a dragoon regiment following her to the grave, while the soldier's coffin, covered with white drapery and flowers, as the symbols of virgin purity, was carried to the grave by four ladies, a whole galaxy of fair damsels escorting the trooper's remains and chanting funeral hymns.

— The New Haven wheel company have built two wheels calculated to bear a weight of 60,000 pounds. They are to be used for hauling heavy guns to the huge fort now building at Sandy Hook, New York Harbor.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of high complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these disfigurations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.
Every living being has in his system
IMPURITIES.
When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. Local.

☞ Young ladies should secure their veils when walking on the street. A lady at the Vaughan St. crossing, on Tuesday afternoon, had her veil lifted from her head by a passing zephyr, and watching the vagrant piece of apparel, had the satisfaction of beholding it lodge in the upper branches of a a tree in front of Mr. Hodgdon's store. There it remained, affording a chance for some cavalier to exhibit his chivalry in restoring it to the fair owner. It was a blue veil.

☞ Mr. Oliver M. Knight, of Minnesota, formerly of this city, is now here on a short visit. Lately a lieutenant in the U. S. C. T., he has just arrived from the Rio Grande with his command, and was mustered out on Thursday, the 23d.

☞ In our list of City Officers elect, published on Wednesday, the names of Aldermen Oliver Ayers and John E. Ham were accidentally omitted.

HISTORY OF THE SECOND REGIMENT New Hampshire Volunteers: Its Camps, Marches and Battles. By Martin A. Haynes, Private of Company I. Manchester, N. H. Chas. F. Livingston, printer.

We are glad to see this, the first full history of any New Hampshire regiment. Beginning with the time at which the "Second" left this city, the author follows it thro' its weary marches and fierce conflicts, until it is mustered out of service at Concord. It is a book valuable to every one who has been a member of the regiment or who has had a relation therein, and of great interest to all who desire to keep in remembrance how nobly our State troops bore themselves in their fiery ordeal. Agents are wanted for this section of the State, as may be seen by an advertisement in another column.

☞ We understand that the young people of Newington have recently held an Exhibition, consisting of tableaux, recitations, &c., and having for its object the purchase of a new Organ for their church,—toward which $70 has thus far been raised. They will give a similar Exhibition at Greenland Academy, on Friday evening of this week, and hope to afford a pleasant entertainment for those who are willing to encourage a good cause, and the co-operation of such is invited.

GARROTING IN LYNN.—Garroting is becoming quite frequent in Lynn. About 8-1-2 o'clock Thursday evening a man named Moses Libby was attacked by three scoundrels, one of whom inquired the road to Swampscott. Mr. Libby was about to give the desired information when he was seized from behind and held firmly while the other parties robbed him of $57, and before Mr. Libby could call for help the rascals had departed.

While Dr. E. Thompson was returning home from Gen. Banks' lecture same evening, he was attacked by two men, knocked down by a slung shot and jumped upon. While on the ground, however, he fired his pistol at the garroters, who suddenly fled without obtaining any booty.

THE POPE'S ALLOCUTION AGAINST THE FREEMASONS is a source of merriment to that body. The Masonic body in Lyons retorts that "the abhorred symbols" of Freemasonry are to be traced in all the grand religious buildings of France and Cathedrals of Europe; while the French paper Le Siecle proves that the Romish Church and Freemasonry have had a close connection, and that a large body of the priesthood have been members of the order. So much for the unity and infallibility of the Pope's Church.—Constitution.

— George Senter of Bowdoinham, Me., while gunning last week, discharged both barrels of his fowling piece at the same time, causing the gun to recoil with such force as to throw the breech against his forehead and nose, fracturing the bones of both, from the effects of which he died.

— The Custom House authorities in Portland have determined to enforce the new Treasury Department regulation, requiring all coasting vessels arriving at a port of entry to duly enter at the Custom House, within a specified time, under a severe penalty.

— The repeal of the paper duties has been highly beneficial to the paper makers of Belgium. From four or five paper mills the number has increased to more than forty, producing more than twenty thousand tons of paper annually, chiefly exported to England, France and America.

— The swindling charge on the master workmen in the Brooklyn Navy Yard is said to have been effected by returning on the pay rolls more men than were employed. It is suspected that the government has been defrauded of hundreds of thousands of dollars in this manner.

— Mary E. Cunningham, the sixteenth victim of the St. John explosion, died at her father's residence in New York on Sunday evening last. She was but thirteen years of age. A sister was not expected to survive her many hours.

— There appears to be reason now for asserting that a civil trial for Jeff. Davis is close at hand.

— "Do you suppose that you can do the landlord in the Lady of Lyons?" said a manager to a seedy actor in quest of an engagement. "I should think I might," was the reply, "I have done a great many landlords."

— At one time at Gibraltar there was a great scarcity of water. An Irish officer said "he was very easy about the matter, for he had nothing to do with water; if he only got his tea in the morning, and punch at night, it was all he wanted."

Honor—Shooting a friend through the head whom you love, in order to gain the praise of a few others whom you despise and hate. Virtue—An awkward habit of acting differently from other people. A vulgar word. It creates great mirth in fashionable circles. Wealth—The most respectable quality of man.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantage for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE SURE PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to compilate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
Also, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, renders him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent, more trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, seldom if ever fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. HON. D. W. GOODE, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr. Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."
W. H. BOWEN, 88 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say, Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known, for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."

VINELAND
FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,
In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.
The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass, Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced Horticulturists, from Cuttings, Layers, and produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of twenty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with premises for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.
Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.
Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.
For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.
Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.
Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.
From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fruit tracts, in as almost level a condition and well able condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawôm

S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.
This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.
ITS ADVANTAGES.
FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.
SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction, and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.
THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.
FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.
FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every trial.
SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for Indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinlis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your SEFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks.

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUES,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,

New York, June 28th, 1865.

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

VOL. XXVII. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. FRIDAY, DEC. 1, 1865 : 334 No. 132.

The Chronicle.

A STRANGE STORY. — It is properly within the province of a newspaper to record whatever tends to give a true picture of the social condition of the country. Some very strange things have turned up since the close of the war. A curious affair is related, upon authority we deem perfectly reliable, as having occurred in —— county, Mississippi, which, upon the principle above laid down, properly finds a place in the column of a public journal. A bachelor-planter of great wealth in that county, had been some years keeping as his mistress a handsome mulatto girl, and by her had several children. This girl, not long after the war, took it into her head that she ought to be made the lawful wife of her master. For this purpose, she received the attentions of a handsome colored man, nearly white, and between them they pretended they were going to make a match—that is to get themselves regularly married. This excited the jealous alarm of her bachelor master, who upon inquiring, was told by his mistress that she was certainly going to marry the colored man—that she was unwilling to live as a kept mistress any longer; and then she went on to intimate that her master might, if he chose, take the place of the freedman and be her "true and lawful husband;" for that a wife she was bound to become, she would be a concubine no longer. Strange to say, this wealthy white man, this iron-clad, aristocratic old bachelor, found that he was so much attached to his colored mistress, he could not give her up, and forthwith agreed to pay the price she demanded i. e. procured the services of an officer of the law, and was regularly, or irregularly (?) married to his former slave! The former quadroon concubine now deems herself a "lawful wedded wife."—Memphis Argus.

— A Memphis paper states that there are no less than nine hundred houses being erected in that city at present.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:

London Quarterly, North British Review, Quarterly, Popular Science Review, Saturday Review, Leisure Hours, Westminster Review, Dublin University Magazine, Art Journal, Revue de Deux Mondes, London Society, Bentley's Miscellany, Cornhill Magazine, Fraser's Magazine, Temple Bar, Chambers' Journal, Edinburgh Review, London National Review.

☞ We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN, AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

GREAT CHANCE
—FOR—
WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.

This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle-scenes, maps and diagrams.

In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.

He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.

Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We offer agents clearing $250 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant; for proof of the above send for circulars and see our terms. Address, JONES BROS. & CO., 14 Phœnix Building, Boston.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1865.

MEXICO.—At Washington official news from El Paso has been received by Mr Romero, the Mexican Minister of the Republic, that recent movements of the National forces in Mexico have compelled the French forces at Chihuahua to evacuate that city and State and withdraw themselves to Durango.

On the 25th of October the evacuation began, and four days later there was not a single French soldier left in Chihuahua. President Juarez writes on the 3d inst. that he is about leaving El Paso for the city of Chihuahua to reconstruct the National Government. This is thought to be a great success for the Republican cause of Mexico, since the French admit their inability to hold their conquered ground.

Per contra, the Imperialists claim a victory near Ojaca, where they routed 300 Liberals, killing 37 and capturing 68.

But we observe in the same paper that the family of the Emperor was to leave Vera Cruz on the 9th in an American steamer.

TEXAS AND MEXICO.—The Times' Brownsville correspondence of the 16th says the correspondence between Gen. Weitzel and Mejia has culminated in the following order:

"The Mexican authorities having officially notified the Commanding General that the Ranchero will be ordered to cease publishing articles insulting to the United States soldiers and people, it is hereby ordered that the officers and soldiers of this command will not allow any person on the neutral bank to insult any person on the Mexican side."

FROM HAVANA.—By steamers Cuba and Moro Castle, at New York, we have Havana dates to Nov. 25.

Considerable disappointment prevailed at the appointment of General Tersundi to supersede the present Captain General, he being a pro-slavery man and immensely in debt.

The Moro Castle brought Capt. Morse, of the schooner Eugenia, of and from Bath for Mobile, which capsized at sea on the 23d ult., at 4 P. M. All hands were below in the cabin at the time, but cut through the bottom of the vessel and got outside on the 26th, where they remained until the 4th inst., when they were taken off by the brig Peerless, from Philadelphia for Matanzas, where they were landed on the 9th, except Joseph Anderson, seaman, who died of exhaustion after being taken off the wreck.

☞ Gen. Fullerton has returned from New Orleans, and represents the freedmen as working well, and as becoming disabused of the idea that land is to be distributed among them at Christmas. The planters would be glad to employ more freedmen than there are in the State. Gov. Wells recommends that all taxes levied on colored people for educational purposes be applied to their education exclusively. He also recommends the enactment of laws regulating the labor system, leaving it to the parties interested to make their own terms. He asks that all impediments to free emigration be removed.

☞ In Cambridge, Mass., Wednesday night, two robbers stopped Mr. Hugh Dixon's horse, dragged him from his buggy, beat him, cut his left hand and leg, robbed him of his overcoat and $50; and then jumped into his carriage and drove off. In Dochester on the same evening, three robbers assailed a man to rob him; but he being armed shot and wounded one ruffian, and the other two carried off their comrade—but no booty.

☞ The Phrenological Journal for December completes Vol. 42d. The contents are—Lord Palmerston, Napoleon III., Washington, Cæsar, Hon. D. S. Dickinson, Blind Tom; with Portraits, Characters and Biographies. Also, "Work for Women," a new History of Civilization; Destiny of America; Beauty, Vigor and Development; Symmetry of Character; Phrenology in the Pulpit; Animal Types of Human Physiognomy; Gymnastics for men, women and children—including Ethnology, Physiology, Phrenology, Physiognomy and Psychology; only 20 cents, or $2 a year. New volume begins with Jan. No. Address Fowler & Wells, 389 Broadway, N. Y.

— An investigation renders it certain that the plate from which the backs of the counterfeit $100 legal tender notes have been printed, was electrotyped from an impression in lead from the genuine plate in the Note Printing Bureau of the Treasury Department. The man who stole the plate kept it for a day while the impression was being made.

— Jacob Morrill, a returned soldier, was robbed of $50 and murdered, Wednesday evening, in Newburyport.

— It is stated that Robt. B. Toombs has escaped out of the country via New Orleans, and gone to foreign parts.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— John W. E. Tuttle of Lincoln is the agent appointed by the Governor of New Hampshire to superintend the repair of the highway through the Franconia Notch.

—— On Sunday morning last one James Buchanan was found dead beside the road between Keene and Troy. His neck was broken, and the probabilities are that he was thrown from his wagon.

—— One of the bogus Claim Agencies, professing to belong to the "National Protective Union, pretends to be located at Newton Depot, N. H., and has swindled several Massachusetts soldiers.

GOLD, Thursday, 148.

— The London Times hints at a state of things in Cuba which will require Spain to devote her serious attention to that colony—such calamity as that which recently occurred in Jamaica, namely: a negro outbreak.

— A Washington dispatch says the officers of the Pension Bureau are convinced that a large number of persons in New England and the Western States are palming themselves off upon the people entitled to pensions as licensed agents of the Bureau.

— The Charleston Courier says there are signs of a negro insurrection in that State. The freedmen refuse to contract for labor longer than till January, when they say something is to turn up which is to change things generally, and they are trading pigs and fowls for powder and caps.

— Among the visitors at the Executive mansion Wednesday were Senators Doolittle and Trumbull, Representatives Thaddeus Stevens and Horace Maynard and Gen. Lew Wallace. There was the usual crowd of pardon seekers and place hunters, but the President positively refused to grant any pardons.

THE HAT, CAP AND FUR ESTABLISHMENT of William M. Shute & Son, 173 and 175 Washington street, nearly opposite Milk, is so well known that its mere mention brings to the mind of our citizens the most favorable impression and associations. The name of the firm is so pleasantly familiar, its history and record so honorable, and its treatment of patrons so courteous and fair, that everybody has a good word in its behalf. And, what is more significant, its patrons are permanent. Its list of regular customers is accordingly very large, and is, as may naturally be supposed, constantly increasing.

Recent improvements and enlargements of the establishment render the present a fitting opportunity to say a word or two, in a public way, about the firm and the place. Mr. William M. Shute, the senior partner, began business in 1838, at No. 175. The store at the start was comparatively limited in size, but it proved an excellent foundation for the superstructure of one of the best businesses in its line of trade, in Boston. It is an interesting fact that the firm has remained in the same locality from the beginning, a period of over a quarter of a century, gradually enlarging the area of its operations, till it now occupies the entire building of 173 and 175, from basement to attic, together with other apartments which will be named presently. The growth of the establishment has been steadily onward and upward; and its growth has been hardly and vigorous. During the extended period set forth—and there very few stores on Washington street in any branch of trade, that can count its years—it has never failed to maintain its high standing and fulfill its every obligation, whatever it might be. This is a tribute to its method of conducting business that requires no comment. Rarely, we regret to state, can it be truthfully said of any business house.

The increase of business of Shute & Son has been so constant that from time to time it has become necessary to enlarge and extend. An extension of the establishment has just been made covering an area of one thousand square feet on the ground floor. In effecting this, Nos. 17 and 18 Province House Court, have been laid under contribution. The result is a large, finely lighted, lofty room, supplied with every thing which the business transacted requires, and a glance into which bespeaks genuine enterprise. This room is for the FUR TRADE, the really leading feature of the establishment—and a feature, we may add, that is nowhere surpassed. This is very evident to a great many people in Boston, as well as elsewhere. SHUTE & SON manufacture a large share of their goods! Most other firms in our city buy; this one does better—it manufactures. The advantage to patrons may be inferred. Nothing goes out that is not known; goods are never misrepresented; whatever is sold a customer can be relied upon. It is the aim of the firm and its policy has been from the beginning—to deal fairly and truthfully, putting a price upon goods which they are worth, and warranting them to be just as stated. This is the sufficient secret of their large regular trade to which allusion has been made. To the ladies we would say that that there is nothing desirable in the way of FUR that SHUTE & SON cannot manufacture. While upon this point of their trade we desire to hint that there is a great deception in Fur goods as found in the market, as many have found to their misfortune. A reliable establishment and honest goods should therefore have all the greater appreciation.

It is gratifying to record the success of SHUTE & SON, first becase it is an old and honorable (yet young and vigorous) house, and second because its goods are first-class—in other words as they are represented. Their unbroken success is due to fidelity to the great principles of trade, to prompt requital of obligations, to truthful dealings with patrons, and to honest goods. We therefore commend the firm and the establishment.—Boston Post.

Local.

☞ It is to be presumed that those foolish persons, who absurdly attempt to compare hand engines with steamers,—muscle and wind with machinery—were convinced of their mistake, at yesterday morning's fire. But for the new steamers,—which paid for themselves many times over on this occasion,—we should have been called upon to chronicle a loss ten times as great as we now sadly record.

☞ Of the sufferers by the fire, Mr. Preston is now located with the Messrs. Ham, in the Chronicle building; and Laws' Express at Messrs. Harvey's Insurance Office where he no doubt expects to be safe.

MORRIS BROS., PELL & TROWBRIDGE. "These jet ornaments to society," as the Commercial Bulletin terms them, with a large troupe, will give our citizens an opportunity to enjoy their performances this evening. Their budget includes many new and pleasing fancies, and their reputation is too high in their peculiar line to be questioned.

☞ Mr. H. O. Cram, well known to our Eastern friends as a successful landlord at Portland, has leased the Eagle Hotel at Concord. Mr. Cram has good experience in catering for the public, and will doubtless sustain the good reputation which the Eagle has enjoyed under the administration of John Lindsey for the past few years.

☞ Among the articles saved from Mr. Preston's store on the morning of the fire was the large medicine chest donated to the town of Gosport by Rev. Danl. Austin. It had just been replenished, and the proper authorities at the Shoals had received information of its being in readiness only the evening previous to the fire, as we are informed.

☞ A large number of Navy Yard workmen were discharged from this Yard on Thursday, in obedience to orders received from different Bureaus at Washington.

☞ The Fifth and next Lyceum Lecture will be on Tuesday evening, Dec. 12th, by Wendell Phillips, Esq.

☞ Folsom's Carpet Manufactory, was burnt at Dover on Thursday morning. Loss $50,000; insurance $30,000. It was on fire at the same time with Congress Block in this city.

☞ Perley says President Johnson in his message will state the position of public affairs when he was unexpectedly called upon to succeed Mr. Lincoln. Eight States were without governments, and in framing a policy he was guided by the instructions of Mr. Lincoln to him while Governor of Tennessee and by the action of Congress. The President will now submit this policy to Congress, and it will be for them to indorse or to reject it.

A large portion of the American people are wholly unaware of the deleterious effects incident to the use of common Saleratus, thereby producing disease and destroying health. The highest perfection of art has been attained in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Use one paper, and you will never have any other. It is a great ways ahead of soda to use with cream tartar. Try it. For sale by most of the Grocers and Druggists, and at wholesale by the trade generally. 3

— In Boston, on Wednesday evening, by a coalition of the Democratic, Workingmen's and Citizen's Conventions, held that evening, Hon. George W. Warren was nominated candidate for Mayor.

— The Galveston Civilian, in reference to the stock of cotton in Texas, reports the receipts at that city to the 18th inst., since Sept 1, at 30,000 bales. There is at Galveston, including stock on Sept. 1, 40,000 bales, against 41,000 bales at the same time in 1861. The receipts on the Texas coast, including Houston, since Sept. 1, amount to 18,000 bales. The probable receipts this year will be 150,000 bales.

— Gen. Gregory's course in Texas is generally denounced. He is said to be infusing insurrectionary sentiments into the minds of the freedmen. He has addressed the freedmen, denouncing the course of Col. Strong, of Gen. Howard's staff, who, in an address, advised them to return to their former owners as their best friends, and not depend on the government for assistance.

☞ Special attention is invited to the advertisement of Vance's patent Submerged Well Pump, as an article far superior to any other pump ever offered to the public.

A NEAT REPLY.—"I dislike your saying that my teeth are going. So don't." Said a young lady to her beau. "Not 'So don,' but 'So-so-dont' you should have said," he replied. The damsel pouted, but took the hint. Nor need it be said that the balsamic preparation arrested the evil, though it could quite repair the damage already done. n27eod1w

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.
Every living being has in his system
IMPURITIES.
When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. What we have to do to recover our health is to take out from the BOWELS AND THE CIRCULATION the excess of impurities. This done, health follows of necessity.

DISASTROUS FIRE!

One of the most disastrous fires with which we have been visited for years, broke out on Thursday morning soon after 4 o'clock, in Congress Block; and in a few hours the whole three-story brick building—one of the handsomest and best blocks in the city—was in ruins.

After diligent inquiry, we see little reason to doubt that the fire originated from some unknown cause in Mr. J. S. H. Frink's law office, in the chamber in the second story, over the stores of Messrs. Shores and Preston. When first discovered below, the fire was very small, in Mr. Preston's drug store, and confined to an upper shelf on the side adjoining Mr. Shores's book-store. Gentlemen who were present state that on water being thrown on the small body of fire, a sheet of flame rapidly spread along the store. As the bottles in that part of the store mostly contained alcohol or preparations thereof, it is probable that the sudden spread of flames was caused by the breaking of some of those bottles.

On the other hand, we are informed that a gentleman who entered Mr. Preston's store very early, says the fire was on an upper shelf near the front, a hole was burnt through the floor above, and fire was dropping down. And an early newspaper boy saw a bright light above, before fire was cried. From these circumstances, added to the fact that Mr. P.'s windows had no shutters, it seems the fire must originate above.

There was great delay caused in giving the alarm after the fire was discovered, from the fact that the night watch had gone to their homes, (as usual at 4 o'clock, so it is said,) and the key of the church kept at the Station House could not be obtained! Axes were procured, but even then the heavy doors of the North Church presented strong resistance.

Below we give a statement of the losses and insurance, which we think will be found correct in the main:

FIRST FLOOR.

J. F. Shores, Jr., had a large stock in his bookstore, but as much was removed, his insurance of $3000, in the Home Ins. Co., of New York, will probably cover his loss.

Wm. R. Preston, apothecary, has insurance $2800, in the Home, of New York, on a loss of $6,000 or $8,000.

F. D. Morse, clothing and fancy goods, is insured for $2000 in the Phenix, Hartford. Many goods saved, in a chaotic condition.

Wm. H. Laws, express office, everything saved, almost.

SECOND FLOOR.

J. S. H. Frink, law library and office furniture. Loss $1500, insured $500, in City of Hartford Co., by John Sise, Agent.

P. F. L. Salen, photographic artist, loss say $900; insured for $400, in the Home, of New York.

Mrs. Moran, hair worker, loss $800, and no insurance.

THIRD FLOOR.

Occupied by Masonic bodies, viz: Ineffable Grand Lodge of Perfection, No. One; Council of Princes of Jerusalem; DeWitt Clinton Commandery of Knights Templar; Washington Chapter, No. 3; St. John's and St. Andrew's Lodges. The loss in regalia and paraphernalia cannot be less than $20,000, the regalia of the Commandery alone being worth $4000, on which there is an insurance of $3000, in the Metropolitan, of New York, by M. Bufford & Co.

The insurance in the building amounts to $14,000, distributed as follows: Norwich, Conn., $2000; Home, New Haven, $5000; Croton, New York, $2500; New England, Hartford, $2500. All the above insurances, excepting where specified, were effected through the agency of John S. Harvey & Son.

For some time the danger to the old "Bell Tavern" was imminent, and the occupants thereof removed their goods to safer localities, as did Mr. Somerby the stock of his stable; but the firemen worked with a will, the wind veered around a little to the northward, and the old wooden block, which seems to be fire-proof, still stands. Several houses as far away as State street ignited upon the roof from falling cinders

Congress Block was an elegant and substantial structure, erected by Mr. Samuel E. Coffin about twenty years ago, we are told at a cost of $20,000; and is now owned by him. Said to be insured $14,000, though it would cost perhaps treble that amount to rebuild it now. It rented for about $2200.

Its burning is a public calamity to our city, as well in the destruction of a prominent ornament to one of our chief streets, as in the loss of stocks and interruption of business of some of our most enterprising and worthy citizens. Mr. Shores has twice before been the victim of fires, at his residence—and the destruction of his large Circulating Library is a public loss. The Masonic bodies are very heavy losers, said to suffer as much as $25,000 or $30,000 in fixtures, furniture, pictures, regalia, &c., on which is only $3000 insurance.

People are always curious to know or guess the total amount of loss by a fire, as they are also curious to know the loss in a battle. Some of the figurers on such occasions, foot up the present total destruction of building, stocks, &c., $75,000, which we do not think is excessive, if the Masonic damage is nearly what one of the best-posted brethren gives it to us as above.

In the evening of Thursday the debris in the cellar again blazed up, and a steamer was called into requisition to quench the flames.

☞ Respecting Mr. Barnabee's Concert, Wednesday evening,—we have only time this morning to say, that it was a splendid success as an entertainment; and that it must have been gratifying to him to see so large an attendance, including many of our substantial citizens who do not often rally at concert calls.

☞ Bedding, &c., at the house of Mr. Jas. C. Brown, awaits an owner.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients fit these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and eradicate the ailing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold stoutly, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their potent, magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitant of the most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most powerful. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the tender color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these disfigurements, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.
This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.
ITS ADVANTAGES.
FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.
SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction, and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.
THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.
FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, the Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.
FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.
SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. It is not all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

Morning Chronicle.

SECESSION OF THE COLORED ELEMENT FROM A VIRGINIA CHURCH.—At the recent session of the Methodist Conference in New York, Bishop Simpson sent a colored preacher, the Rev. Mr. Lawson, to Staunton, Va., to preach to the blacks there. He preached one half day in the Methodist Church vestry to a black audience. The next day the white clergymen of Staunton met, and voted that thereafter no colored man should preach in that place, but that once in four weeks one of their number should preach exclusively to the blacks. The black members of the Methodist Church, 300 in number, and paying nearly all the parish expenses, thereupon seceded, leaving that church to its eighteen white white members, and organizing a flourishing church of their own in the spacious room of a carriage manufactory. The Baptist clergyman, seeing the ruin of the Methodist Church, and conscious of the inability of his white flock to sustain him, at once offered his vestry to a colored Baptist clergyman. The offer was accepted, and ever since, the two most flourishing churches in Stanton are the black and white Baptist and the black Methodist.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen. I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the tre-tment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

I trust that you will publish this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not pass the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of the Married State, are warned that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in a short period of time. Many persons, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have agents clearing $200 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant; for proof of the above send for circulars and see our terms. Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1865.

☞ The following Proclamation has been issued by the President:

Whereas, By the Proclamation of the President of the United States of the 15th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in certain cases therein specified, was suspended throughout the United States; and

Whereas, Reasons for that suspension may be regarded as having ceased in some of the States and Territories: now

Therefore, be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that the suspension aforesaid, and all other proclamations and orders suspending the privilege of the writ of Habeas Corpus in the States and Territories of the United States be revoked and annulled, excepting in the States of Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas, the District of Columbia the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Positive information is to the effect that the relations of our Government with France and England are entirely satisfactory. There is no possibility of serious disturbance. Napoleon's speculation in Mexico is unpopular with the French, and he will withdraw his forces from Mexico as soon as he can do so without compromising his dignity.

The Spanish Minister has read to the Secretary of State a dispatch concerning the slave trade, replete with the most emphatic expletives expressing opposition to the outrageous traffic, and pledging the most earnest efforts of the Spanish government for its extirpation.

Investigations show that an electrotype of the $100 compound interest note plate was obtained before it came into the possession of the Treasury Department.

☞ Congress will meet on Monday. Mr. Clerk McPherson has finally decided not to place the names of any members from Virginia or Tennessee upon his initial roll. The Senators and Representatives who have arrived in Washington appear to be unanimously of opinion that no Southern Congressman who cannot squarely take the test oath should be admitted. Indeed, the Southern people seem to think that their members will be "left out in the cold," and the Richmond Enquirer advises the Southern Representatives to patiently remember the Russian proverb, "I sit on the shore and wait for a wind." Some will wait for a long while—and hotels are charging $5 a day.

JAMAICA INSURRECTION ENDED.—It appears that the outbreak among the negroes in Jamaica has been entirely suppressed, the few rebels that were still away from their homes having laid down their arms on the publication of the amnesty.—The number of rebels that came by their death in this short insurrection is estimated at 3000, of whom 2000 fell by the hands of the executioner on the gallows, and the remainder were put hors de combat by the military. Now, when it is too late, the English people are beginning to see the weakness and guilt of their government of the negroes. Since emancipation times little or nothing has been done for the elevation of the colored population, while much has been imposed on that body which has been oppressive and unjust. Properly educated and treated, in the opinion of those who know them best, the blacks would have been safe and devoted friends; ignorant, debased and down-trodden, only for providential circumstances, they would have extirpated the whites in Jamaica. Our country has a moral to glean from the bloody history of the Jamaica insurrection.

HAVANA, HAYTI, &c.—A Havana letter says news from Venezula states that a party headed by Gen. Miranda in Truxillo was entirely destroyed in a battle. The General was left dead on the field.

The Ex-Emperor Soulouque, of Hayti, had arrived at Santiago De Cuba, en route to St. Thomas, having been expelled from Jamaica.

Cape Haytien had been bombarded by two English war vessels and reduced to ashes. Geffrard's troops are in possession of the ruins. Many of the rebels perished and the rest fled. The insurrection in Hayti has terminated.

Under orders from Spain all negroes landed from slavers are to be returned to Africa.

— The Freedmen's Bureau has information that a collection of persons in Mobile are trying to underbid negro labor by agreeing to furnish German emigrants just off the ship at lower wages than a negro could subsist upon. The company propose to hire out male laborers at one hundred and fifty dollars a year, females at one hundred dollars, and children at fifty dollars. Respectable white and colored laborers around Mobile protest against this and ask the bureau to interfere.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—A Rope Walker Killed.—The Wilmington (N. C.) Herald of Saturday last relates that, at an afternoon performance in the theatre in that city on the previous day, there was to be a series of feats on the tight rope by a Mons. Delame, said to be a Tennessean, whose real name was Huntley. On the rising of the curtain Mr. Delame ascended the rope and walked successfully from the stage to its other extremity, which was secured in the gallery. After accomplishing this feat he attempted to return backward down the stage, but came near falling before leaving the gallery. He recovered himself, however, and again started down the rope, but had proceeded only a few feet when he lost his balance. He again attempted to recover himself by the aid of his pole, but was unable to do so, and having lost his balance entirely, he fell, catching with one hand at the rope as he went down. His weight proving too much for his strength he was forced to let go his hold, when he was precipitated as far as the dress circle, where, happening to strike with his feet upon the railing surrounding the circle, his position was by that means reversed, and he fell to the parquet, striking there upon his head. His left temple first came in contact with the floor, and his head was horribly mangled. He was instantly killed.

☞ Wednesday afternoon, as a market man was driving on the highway between Malden and Medford, he overtook and was accosted by an individual whom he supposed to be a female, as a liberal supply of crinoline and other female apparel appeared to comprise the clothing of the individual who begged the favor of a ride. The market man cheerfully acceded to the request, and assisted the stranger with a valise into his wagon, and noticed at the same time that an unusually stout and heavy pair of boots covered the feet of the person. After driving a short distance further, and having his suspicions aroused, the market man managed to drop his whip as if by accident, and requested his companion to leave the wagon and pick it up. The stranger complied, but the instant the driver was left alone he started up his horse and drove off for Medford at the highest rate of speed, where he examined the valise and found the contents to consist of two revolvers, a handkerchief and a bottle of chloroform. The supposition is that the stranger was a highwayman in disguise, and the market man feels grateful that he escaped without harm.

☞ At West Newfield, Me., some days ago, as we learn from the Portland Advertiser, one Daniel Folsom, a man of intemperate and eccentric habits, went to the house of Abram Durgin in the evening, after cider, and became intoxicated. Durgin and his family are hard drinkers, and a difficulty arose about paying for the cider. Durgin's son-in-law, one Dudley, was there, and was probably drunk with the rest, struck Folsom with a club,—dragged him out of the doors and left him. He laid there all night until 4 o'clock, when Dudley became alarmed because he did not get up. D. went out, carried him back into the house and tried to revive him. He was dead. The Durgins at first would not confess any knowledge of the affair, but finally before the magistrate gave substantially the above account. Those who know the parties do not think it a case of premeditated murder, but that the parties were all drunk together and that was the result. Folsom has been so long addicted to intemperance, that his mental faculties were shattered. Dudley is in jail at Alfred.

SOUTH CAROLINA MATTERS.—The assumption of command by Gen. Sickles in South Carolina, and the departure of Gen. Gillmore, has created much anxiety at Charleston and elsewhere. Rumors of the restoration of martial law and the reassembling of the Convention by order of General Sickles are in circulation. It is supposed that the negro code adopted by the Legislature, and the evident disposition to shoulder the war debt of the State, have met with the decided disapprobation of the President, and that the State will have to undergo another course of purification. The people are in a state of great excitement.

Only meagre returns of the election for Congressmen on the 22d inst. have been received; but ex-Governor Aiken has been chosen in the Second District, which includes the city of Charleston. This is regarded as a defeat of the secessionists.

Over twelve hundred negroes left Charleston in a body on the 22d instant to return to the employment of their former masters on the sea islands.

— The Philadelphia papers quote the rates of freight for anthracite coal from Port Richmond to Boston at $4.70 per ton; to Portsmouth, $5, and to Newburyport, $5.50.

— Captain Weiss, late jailer of the Old Capitol Prison, is on trial before a military court, upon charges of violating the prison rules by furnishing the Andersonville jailor, Henry Wirz, and General Briscoe, who were prisoners at the same time, with playing cards, refreshments, &c.

THE FIRE.—Dear Chronicle: I have just had the privilege of seeing a letter written by Mr. Preston, for publication in the Portsmouth Journal, in relation to the origin of the late fire in Congress Block. I do not wish to conceal one word of the truth in this matter; but Mr. P.'s statement contains assertions which he has since acknowledged not to be as represented in his letter.

I have been a student in Mr. Frink's office for some weeks, and have made it my custom to spend my evenings there. Last Wednesday evening, as usual, I was at his office until nearly 11 o'clock, but before that hour I was at my boarding house, as I can substantiate by the most respectable witnesses, and was not again out of the house.

During the evening there were but two persons beside myself in the office after half-past seven, and these persons were there at separate times; the one was Mr. Little, stopping at the Franklin House, and the other was Mr. Martin, a fellow-boarder with me at Miss Cutter's. I spent the evening in writing, reading and playing chess with Mr. Martin. Nothing was said or done there that evening which could have given origin to the fire, and on leaving, I carefully closed the stove and extinguished the light.

I think I can satisfy any one from the position of the furniture in Mr. F.'s office, relative to the position of the fire in Mr. Preston's store when discovered, and also from the evidence of those who broke open the doors and windows of Mr. Preston's store and were first at the fire, and from the testimony of a gentleman who went up stairs to the door of Mr. Frink's office, and failing to find the key, went for Mr. F. at his residence—that the fire could not have originated above Mr. Preston's store.

I feel impelled to make these general statements, not because any inquiry into the origin of the fire can remedy the serious loss which the community as well as the occupants of the block have sustained, but because of the many false stories in circulation.

J. D. BUTLER.

Portsmouth, Dec. 1, 1865.

☞ The many friends of Mrs. Whipple will be glad to learn that her long looked-for Recitations, will be given on Monday evening next, when we doubt not a full house will testify that our citizens appreciate her fine elocution. The large and enthusiastic audience that greeted Mr. Barnabee last Wednesday evening, speaks well Mrs. Whipple's good taste and judgement in selecting him to assist at her Entertainment; those who have once listened to him cannot fail to wish to do so again. As a vocalist, Mr. Barnabee is unsurpassed by any one we have heard here for a long time, his voice having not only great natural merit, but high cultivation also; as a humorous singer and declaimer, the peals of laughter he elicited from the audience were ample proof of the pleasure he gave. His appearance on the stage is that of the perfect gentleman and finished artist. We hope a full house will greet the fair Elocutionist and her able assistant on Monday evening.

☞ This evening is the last opportunity to hear Morris Bros., Pell & Trowbridge's Minstrels. We need not bespeak for them a good house: their performance last evening has already done that for them. The Trip Around the World is a capital thing.

☞ Mr. H. O. Cram, well known to our Eastern friends as a successful landlord at Portland, has leased the Eagle Hotel at Concord. Mr. Cram has good experience in catering for the public, and will doubtless sustain the good reputation which the Eagle has enjoyed under the administration of John Lindsey for the past few years.

THE FUNERAL OF TOM SAYERS.—A vast crowd of roughs assembled at the funeral of Tom. Sayers, and celebrated the obsequies of the champion of all England by a general fight over his grave. The Daily News says:

"Hundreds of the foulest scum of the back courts and alleys of London, the creatures who only come to light in the aggregate at an execution or a race course, or an illegal betting ground, rushed in to hold saturnalia at the grave side. For a few minutes the police were entirely overcome. They were a mere handful of men against the enemy; but they subsequently rallied, and once more succeeded in closing the cemetery gates. Many of the roughs were trodden down in the raid, and when it was over, the gasping, speechless forms, stretched at nounfrequent intervals on the grass, or reared by their luckier comrades against the tombs, while neck-cloths were torn open and animation restored, spoke of the severity of the conflict."

— Said a venerable preacher—Fellow sinners, if you were told that by going to the top of those stairs (pointing to a rickety pair at the other end of the church,) you might secure your eternal salvation, I really believe hardly one of you would try it; but if I should proclaim that J. Monroe Taylor had put a few bars of his celebrated Gold Medal Soap on the top stair for the one that would get it first, I'll be bound there ain't one of you but what would use your utmost exertions to gain the prize; my wife says there ain't anything like it, and she would recommend the whole parish to use it. 17

— The Northern Home for Friendless Children at Philadelphia has received a munificent present. Dr. Egbert, a citizen of the neighboring county, has given to the institution a fine farm of two hundred acres, and the sum of two hundred thousand dollars in money.

— A prominent question before the next Congress will be the increase of the regular army. Gen. Grant is understood to be in favor of mustering out all volunteers, and increasing the regular army to about seventy-five thousand men.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S

PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

Lyon's Periodical Drops!

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES.

These Drops are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Nostrums. Being liquid, their action is direct and positive, rendering them a reliable, speedy and certain specific for the cure of all obstructions and suppressions of nature. Their popularity is indicated by the fact that over 100,000 bottles are annually sold and consumed by the ladies of the United States, every one of whom speak in the strongest terms of praise of their great merits. They are rapidly taking the place of every other female lemedy, and are considered by all who know aught of them, as the surest, safest and most infallible preparation in the world for the cure of all female complaints, the removal of all obstructions of nature, and the promotion of health, regularity and strength. Explicit directions stating when they may be used, and explaining when and why they should not, nor could not be used without producing effects contrary to nature's chosen laws, will be found carefully folded around each bottle, with the written signature of JOHN L. LYON, without which none are genuine. Price $1.50.

Prepared by Dr. JOHN L. LYON, 195 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn, who can be consulted either personally, or by mail, (inclosing stamp,) concerning all private diseases and female weaknesses. Price $1.50 per bottle.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made the diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for

A MODEL EXPRESSMAN.—Mr. William H. Laws, the efficient Expressman between Boston and Portsmouth, left the latter place Thursday morning under circumstances worthy of special mention. Congress Block, in which he has his office, took fire about five o'clock that morning, and was wholly destroyed. With much exertion, Mr. Laws saved all property intrusted to his charge, and without waiting to look after his own effects, took the train as usual for Boston. When he left, the fire was in full progress. He has been on the line upwards of twelve years, without missing a trip. After an uninterrupted run of about thirty-seven hundred days, he did not wish to remain at home merely on account of a fire, even tho' his own office was in flames.—Transcript.

Laws did show good pluck, and keep promptly up to time as usual, that's a fact. After getting out all packages and bundles, he in vain tried to reach his private carriage robes, &c., worth $100 or more, in the back office;—it couldn't be done; the smoke and heat drove him. So he went to his train—for time and Philbrook wait for no man—unless Daniel sees you coming, pretty near, and a woman with you. But, having yet a few minutes to spare, Mr. Laws drove down to his office again, put a handkerchief over his face, and tried once more; but it was no go,—and off he went for Boston. In the course of events the robes were afterwards saved by other parties, but William's beautiful whip was allowed to bang and burn. Alas! for that lacquer joint!

POLICE COURT, Dec. 1.—John McCone, a juvenile of twelve years old, who indulges in the pastime of causing other people's boots to shine, has rather dimned the lustre of his own character by being found drunk on Vaughan street. The act of the Judge in sentencing him to the Reform School during the remainder of his minority is one of wisdom, tempered by mercy.

John Sheehan will gain an uneviable notoriety if he visits this Court so frequently in the shape of a prisoner. On Friday he was arraigned on a charge of assaulting Ira Haselton, for which offence he was fined $10, and costs $4.80, and also ordered to give bonds to be of good behavior till the next sitting of Court. On Thursday evening, when the assault took place, Sheehan also shew his prowess by knocking down another man, and chewing the finger of a third.

The same Sheehan was arraigned on the charge of being a common drunkard, which resulted in his being committed to the House of Correction for one month at hard labor, and also to pay $4.80 costs.

—In Canada, the French Canadian organs wage fierce war upon British domination. The Fenians are quiet, excepting occasional demonstrations with rockets and firearms.

SENTENCED FOR LIFE.—Two men named O'Brien and Flaherty, were tried at the late term of the Superior Court in Lowell, Mass., on a charge of rape, and found guilty, but had their sentences suspended until the Supreme Court had passed upon the exceptions raised by their counsel. They were brought before the Superior Court at East Cambridge on Wednesday, and sentenced to the State Prison for life, the exceptions having been overruled by the Supreme Court. [From the length of the sentences, as well as the overruling of the exceptions, we infer that the prisoners' counsel were eminent criminal lawyers.]

—A gentleman got into a street car crowded with ladies, in Chicago. As he looked along the line of ladies in an apparently inquiring manner, one of them rose and gravely motioned him to her seat. She stood and insisted by look and gesture. Neither spoke, and the embarrassing position was only terminated by the gentleman beating a hasty retreat, amid a fusilade of laughter.

—Three men were killed and 28 wounded by an accident on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad on Tuesday night, at 12 o'clock. A rail broke, and threw the car down a bank. The men belonged to the 96th N. Y. Vols.

The best preparation ever made for the following complaints:

Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Humors, General Debility, Liver Complaints, and Throat and Lung Complaints tending to Consumption.

This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, seldom if ever fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. Those who have not already made use of this never failing Remedy I have only to refer to the written testimonials of Hundreds of our most distinguished citizens: Clergymen, Doctors, Congressmen, Lawyers, Singers and Public Speakers, and last but not least, many hundreds of Private Citizens, both Male and Female, who have been restored to Health, when all expectation of being cured was a "forlorn hope." My limited space will only admit of the following extracts of Unsolicited Testimonials:

REV. J. C. INGALLS, of Melrose, Mass., says:—"LAROOKAH'S I. V. P. SYRUP, for Pulmonary Diseases, stands unrivalled by any medicine yet discovered. It has completely cured me of Bronchitis of six years standing."

REV. B. F. BOWLES, of Manchester, N. H., says: "Dr Larookah's Pulmonic Syrup I can confidently recommend for Hoarseness and Severe Colds."

REV. G. C. SIMMONS, Gansevoort, Sar. Co., N. Y., says: "I feel it my duty to say Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine we ever used in our family."

DR. PORTER, of Northfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best remedy for Colds, Coughs, &c., he knows of in the market."

HON. D. W. GOOCH, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."

W. R. BOWEN, 86 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say, Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known, for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."

Price 50 cents and $1.00 per Bottle.

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agriculture Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawem

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen: I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been requested to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your LEPERE'S SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

I remain your obliged friend, publicly, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks.

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. CLEGHORN,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

CHEROKEE CURE,

THE GREAT

INDIAN MEDICINE,

Cures all diseases caused by self-abuse, viz:—Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Night-Emissions, Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Diffidence, Dyspepsia, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all diseases that follow as a sequence of personal indiscretion.

The Cherokee Cure will restore health and vigor, stop the emissions, and effect a permanent cure after all other medicines have failed. Thirty-two page pamphlet sent in a sealed envelope, free to any address.

Price $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5. Sold by all druggists; or will be sent by express to any portion of the world, on receipt of price, by the sole proprietor,

Dr. W. R. MERWIN, 37 Walker St., N. Y.

Cherokee Remedy,

Cures all Urinary Complaints, viz: Gravel, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Retention of Urine, Stricture, Inflamed Urethra, Dropsical Swellings, Brick Dust Deposits, and all diseases that require a diuretic, and when used in conjunction with the

does not fail to cure Gonorrhœa, Gleet and all Mucous Discharges, in a few days, and in recent cases in from one to three days, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in Females. The Injection used in conjunction will not fail to remove this disagreeable complaint, and in those cases where other medicines have been used without success.

Price, Remedy, One Bottle, $2, Three Bottles, $5. Injection, " " $2, " " $5.

The Cherokee "Cure," "Remedy," and "Injection," are to be found in all well regulated drug stores, and are recommended by physicians and druggists all over the world, for their intrinsic worth and merit. Some unprincipled shopkeepers, however, try to deceive their customers, by selling cheap and worthless compounds,—in order to make money—in place of these. Be not deceived. If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by express, securely packed and free from observation. We treat all diseases to which the human system is subject, and will be pleased to receive full and explicit statements from those who have failed to receive relief heretofore. Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence. We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet free to every lady and gentleman in the land. Address all letters for pamphlets, medicines, or advice, to the sole proprietor,

Dr. W. R. MERWIN, 37 Walker St., N. Y.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1,000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains rending matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to the facts, data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have Agents clearing $200 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant; for proof of the above send for circulars and see our terms. SIXTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
PORTSMOUTH CITY MISSION.

In presenting this sixteenth Annual Report, we are struck with the great change through which we, as well as our whole country, have passed during the year. When our last Report was presented, we were in the midst of a cruel and desolating war, which threatened to destroy our national life. But by the good providence of God we have survived the fearful storm, and our glorious banner still waves in triumph, with not a star torn from its place nor a stripe missing from its broad and ample folds. Yes, God be praised that our Republic still lives—that this tree of liberty which our fathers planted is still green and flourishing. The terrific storm which has passed over her has only caused her roots to strike deeper and firmer into the soil, thus enabling her to send forth broader branches, under the shadow of which the oppressed of all lands may rest in peace.

Had the joy of triumph not been subdued and chastened by a grief commensurate with our success, the effect upon us as a people might have been disastrous. But scarcely had we thrown our triumphal banners to the breeze, than they were lowered and draped in black, because a Nation mourned a President who had made himself more beloved than any man since the days of Washington. He who for four years had so faithfully and so wisely steered the Ship of State amid such fearful breakers, and whom the whole civilized world will ever delight to honor, was in a moment struck down by the cruel hand of an assassin. The shock reached the dwellers in every hamlet throughout our country, and left its impress on every heart.

Such a year of excitement, such extremes of joy and grief, added to the fact that almost every family had laid some loved member on our national altar, has left an influence in every community which will extend beyond the present generation. We have felt it in common with every other part of our country, and the class which this Mission represents has perhaps been quite as susceptible to it as any other. To some it has been a savor of life, to others of death.

Some families who, during our national struggle, have been deprived of those on whom they leaned for support, have borne their loss with such a noble and patriotic spirit as made them happy even in the midst of poverty. In many, to whom the war has given employment, habits of industry have been formed which we hope will be of lasting benefit to them; and many have in various ways felt the softening influences which adversity alone can bring.

On others our national trials have produced an opposite effect. Thousands, who on the field or in the camp were shirkers or deserters, are now wandering about the country determined to live upon the earnings of others,—and in every possible way imposing on the credulous.

The discipline of the army, and the influence of pious chaplains and soldiers, have in some wrought a happy change, while others seem to have left in the camp all traces of the few virtuous impulses they once possessed.

The result is witnessed in families as well as individuals; some having risen quite above their former standing, others having let themselves down into the depths of iniquity.

Amid all the excitements and changes of the year, we have endeavored to pursue, as best we could, our quiet and almost unnoticed labors, seeking our highest reward in the consciousness of having benefitted in some degree the poor, the unfortunate and the wayward of our city.

We have not accomplished all we had hoped or desired. Yet we believe that something has been done to relieve the sufferings and to elevate the moral condition of those for whose benefit we have labored.

Our employment furnishes constant occasion for the exercise of unbounded patience, the soundest judgment, and the most liberal charity. But our utmost caution does not always prevent our being deceived, or led to aid those who ill deserve our sympathy. Such cases, however, are few and far between; and when they do occur, we always rejoice to know that we err rather on the side of charity than of severity.

It is always a pleasure to be able to relieve the wants of the virtuous poor. But in families where it is impossible to aid the innocent and deserving, without at the same time assisting the immoral and dissolute, our utmost patience and ingenuity are often taxed.

As we have looked upon children who are constantly exposed to the dreadful influences of a disorderly house, with a drunken father, or even mother, we have often asked, in the utmost agony of soul— Can nothing be done to stop this fearful traffic in intoxicating drinks—in this prolific source of moral death which daily and nightly are poured out from more than one hundred places in our very midst?

Nor is this all. We have in our city at least forty dens of vice, to which many of our unsuspecting youth are lured, not only in the shades of night, but in the brightness of noonday. Once within these polluted walls, they are on the highway to ruin, and are often hurried by rapid strides to a life of infamy and shame.

While writing these lines, we recall to memory some for whom we have long labored, and of whom we once had the highest hopes, but who in an evil hour listened to the voice of the tempter, and, we fear, are now forever lost to the society of those who formerly loved and respected them. Having once left the paths of virtue, they were hurried on to ruin, as the ox goes to the slaughter.

We would, then, most solemly entreat the young to give heed to the words of the wise man, "Let not thine heart incline to her ways, go not astray in her paths; for she hath cast down many wounded, yea, many strong men have been slain by her; for her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death."

With such a state of things among us, shall we wonder at the fearful increase of drunkenness, licentiousness and crime? We are glad to know that by the direction of our city government, and the vigilance of our police, our dram-shops have been closed on the Sabbath—that the sacred hours of this holy day are no longer polluted with this unholy traffic.

From the nature of our work, there must of necessity be a great similarity in our reports from year to year. It is seldom that we have any new or striking feature to present; nor can we ever give more than a general view of our labors; the minute details being such as cannot be made public.

In our continued visits to the homes of the poor we feel that we have been taught many lessons which could not have been learned elsewhere. We have seen the workings of misfortune, suffering, and poverty in all its forms,—and have felt how hard it is to witness human suffering, as connected with misfortune, poverty or disease, without having means for affording needed relief. In all cases we have endeavored to cheer and encourage by our counsel and advice, and to tell of Him "who though he was rich yet for our sakes became poor, that we through his poverty might be made rich."

Among those whom we have been long accustomed to visit are some who have reached extreme old age, two of them being almost a hundred years old. We have regarded it a special privilege to visit and converse with these relics of departed generations—these links between the present and the far distant past. They carry us back through the scenes and changes of almost an entire century, while they are looking with faith and hope to another and a better home beyond the skies.

In our visits to the sick we have ever sought by our prayers and our counsels to lead their minds to the contemplation of those sublime and vital truths which alone can solace the soul in the hour of approaching dissolution; to tell them of those exceeding great and precious promises which in the gospel of Jesus are made to those who by faith will lay hold upon them.

It has been our privilege to know that some for whom we have thus labored, have passed from earth with a full assurance of a blessed immortality. And, by the side of their sick and dying beds, we have learned how Christian faith can triumph over poverty and affliction, over sickness, suffering and death.

The year just closing has been one of general health in our city. Altho' we have had about our usual number of deaths, there has been no prevailing sickness. We have been mercifully preserved from "the pestilence which walketh in darkness and the destruction which wasteth at noonday."

Our visits to the Alms-house have been continued as in former years; and we have been gratified by the uniform good order and neatness of the establishment, as well as the contentment and comfort of the inmates. Our visits having been unexpected to the keepers, we know that the condition in which we found the establishment is constant and uniform. It is our custom to pass from room to room, to converse and pray with the aged, the sick and the infirm. We also attend most of the funerals, and have improved these seasons to impress upon the living the uncertainty of life, and the importance of a preparation for another world.

We have also visited the jail as often as consistent with our other duties, have conversed with and counselled the prisoners, and occasionally furnished them with such reading as we thought would be conducive to their moral improvement. It has gratified us to witness the efforts of the keepers to promote the highest moral good of the unfortunate men and women committed to their charge.

For a number of destitute children we have procured good homes in the country, but this we have found a difficult part of our labors. In some instances they have remained and done well for themselves and their employers, but in very many cases they have returned to the city, prefering a life of indolence and vagrancy rather than be subjected to the wholesome restraints of a well ordered home.

It has been our privilege to do what we could in aid of families whose husbands, fathers, brothers, or sons have either been maimed or slain on the field of battle, or who have died in the loathsome prison pens of Southern rebels. The sympathy of friends may do something to dry the tears and assuage the grief of these stricken ones, but it can never fill the place which has been made void in their afflicted families. May we never forget the debt of gratitude we owe them.

To the seamen, who from time to time visit our port, we have extended so far as possible the benefit of our influence and counsel. We trust that we have been instrumental of saving some of them from becoming a prey to those who entice them into dens of infamy, that they may then rob them of their hard earned wages. We have supplied several merchant vessels with Bibles and Testaments during the year, and have exerted ourselves in every possible direction for the benefit of our sea-faring community.

Of way-faring strangers we have had more than our usual share this year. Most of them pretend to have been in the army, and to have been wounded, or otherwise disabled. It is impossible to tell how many of these may be imposters. We try to feed the hungry, and to give garments when needed; but beyond this we seldom allow ourselves to go, except when we have special reasons for believing that we are helping the deserving. Repeated impositions tend to make us distrustful, so that we have long since made it a rule not to give money to such.

Never would we lose sight of the fact that the moral elevation of those in whose behalf we labor is the leading object of our mission. Hence for more than nine years, sometimes under great discouragements, we have labored in connection with our efficient Superintendent and faithful corps of teachers, to sustain and render efficient our Mission Sabbath School. This school is still continued, and through this medium many copies of the New Testament, and thousands of pages of excellent religious reading, are yearly sent into numerous families who would otherwise be destitute of these means of moral improvement. Through the kindness of our city government, the school is now supplied with a good room on Hanover street, where we hope to see its numbers and usefulness greatly increased.

As the poor and unfortunate will never cease from the land, so our efforts to do them good must be perpetual. In the milder seasons of the year, they find many sources of relief from which they are cut off in the winter. To all appearances, the winter upon which we are now entering, must be one of great suffering and hardship for the poor. Through all the years of war, contrary to the expectations of all, we had less of suffering and of poverty than usual. However much the morals of our community may have suffered from this cause, our business men were, during that whole time, reaping a continual harvest, and our whole community partook of the general prosperity. Abundance of employment, and the high prices of labor, gave to all who could work ample means of support, while the aid rendered by the State to the families of those who joined the army and navy placed them beyond the reach of want. But a different state of things has now come over us. The war has ceased. For this we must all praise a kind and merciful Providence. But with it has ceased to our citizens many branches of employment. The State aid has been cut off. The cost of living has well nigh doubled; and many of the common comforts of life bear such exorbitant prices that none but the rich can afford to buy them. Unless, then, we make some special effort for the relief of the poor, there must be much suffering among them before the frosts and snows of winter shall have passed. Take, for instance, the article of fuel, for which the poor of New England suffer more than for almost anything else. So exorbitant are the prices it now bears, that it is almost beyond the reach of many of our poor families. Clothing, shoes, and food of every kind are so exceedingly high that without aid the poor cannot procure them.

We have never had so many and such pressing calls for clothes and shoes as within the last few weeks, while our means for answering such calls were never so small. Much of the second-hand clothing which used to come to us has been gathered up for the suffering freedmen. We rejoice in all that has been done for them, and pray that their sufferings may be relieved; but we would also plead for the relief of the poor in our own midst.

In the early part of the season a number of second-hand coats and pants were sent us from the Receiving-Ship in our harbor. These were of great help, as by means of them we were enabled to relieve quite a number of worthy families. But this supply has been long since exhausted. And most earnestly do we hope that our citizens will remember us this winter, that we may not be obliged to turn away empty-handed those whose families we know to be suffering for want of proper clothing.

We are sorry to have to record the fact that we have received less, by one half, for the relief of the poor for the year now ending, than during the preceeding year. Still we trust we are grateful for what has been done, and have tried to make the best possible disposition of it. If in the providence of God we shall be permitted to present another annual report, we hope to record great improvement in the amount contributed for the relief of the poor.

And here we most gladly state that our friends, who in former years have sent us a number of barrels of excellent hard bread for distribution among the poor, have not forgotten us this year. We have also been gratefully aided by our connection with that excellent institution the Howard Benevolent Society and also by the Ladies' Humane Society.

Our intercourse, as in former years, with every department of the city government has been of the most friendly and cordial character, especially with the Board of Overseers of the Poor, to whom from the very nature of our work, we are obliged very frequently to apply,—and never have we applied in vain. But we frequently meet with cases requiring immediate relief, but of such a nature as to make them very difficult to report to other parties. To be obliged to say to such, we have no funds from which to relieve you, is truly a most difficult task.

We wish here to express our most grateful acknowledgments to our citizens generally for the sympathy we have received in our work; especially would we render heartfelt thanks to those who have contributed means to enable us to carry out the great objects contemplated by this mission.

Our statistics for the present year are as follows:—

We cannot close this report without a brief appeal to those whom a kind providence has favored with an abundance of the good things of this life. "The poor will never cease from the land," and when we will we may do them good. We are just entering upon what to many will be a long cold and dreary winter. Before we feel the genial influences of the far off Spring, many a widow, many an orphan child will feel the griping hand of poverty. Shall any of us be willing to sit by our own fireside, surrounded by all the comforts, and even the luxuries of life, without doing something in aid of suffering humanity? While the storms of winter howl around our well protected mansions, shall we forget those who, in frail and open tenements, suffer from cold, hunger and disease.

We have often appealed to the same generous friends who hear us now, and never have we appealed in vain. We therefore feel assured that this appeal will be answered with a liberal response. "It is more blessed to give than to receive." "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord." However much we may possess, we are but stewards of our Heavenly Father; let us then heed the teachings of Him who spoke as never man spoke, "Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness, that when ye fail they may receive you into everlasting habitations." He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much."

☞ The Pittsburg Press says, "we notice that Mr. J. Haydock, for a long time back connected with Mr. Holloway, of Pill notoriety, has now left him and joined his fortunes with those of Professor Maggiel, reputed to make the best Billious Pill in the country. In courtesy to the press in general, none has surpassed Mr. Haydock. He recognized long ago (and as he has informed us himself,) the power of advertising, and the reward that invariably results to those who make a judicious use of it in making known to the public the articles they have to dispose of. We wish Mr. Haydock all success, and recommend him generally to the Druggists as one whom it is a pleasure to know. Dr. Maggiel's medicines will be found in another column, and are all they profess to be."

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1865.

No Tragedy, only a comedy of errors,—and lies.—On Thursday a report of a murder in Amesbury, Wednesday night, was current in Newburyport, and was telegraphed to the Boston Traveller thus:

"Mr. Jacob Merrill, a returned soldier, recently paid off, was murdered and robbed of $500. He was probably struck with a cleaver, as his skull was laid open for some inches. No clue has been obtained of the murderer. The crime was committed upon the street, near Bartlett's corner.

The Boston Journal of a later hour, itemized it into the statement that a man was robbed and murdered in Newburyport.—This we copied in our paper of Friday. But on looking into the Newburyport Herald of Friday we perceive that Mr. Merrill's head was all right Thursday morning,—so there was no murder either at M. or N., only somebody lied dreadfully, and must be guilty of exciting and alarming the timid, wantonly and maliciously. The author of the lie should be exposed, and public reprobation would be sure to follow him.

A Railroad Disaster occurred Friday morning, at 8 o'clock, on the New Jersey Central Railroad, near a place called White House, by collision between a coal train and an express train, by which 7 persons were killed and 10 wounded. The accident was in this wise: A coal train going up the grade broke in halves, and the rear end ran back down the grade. The express train came around a curve at full speed and ran into it. The engineer and fireman jumped off and were not injured. The first passenger car ran through the baggage car, and all who occupied this car were killed or wounded. The other cars were not damaged.

Singular Circumstance.—The case of Frank Gurley, now under sentence of death in Huntsville, Ala., is a strange one. He was convicted of the murder of Gen. Robert McCook by a military commission; his case was overlooked at Washington; he was exchanged at Point Lookout, and afterwards presented himself to the authorities at Nashville, Tenn., and took the oath of allegiance. He was elected a few days ago Sheriff of Madison county, Ala. His election discovered his whereabouts. The affair creates much excitement in North Alabama.

☞ A Grenada, Miss., dispatch of Nov. 30, says a collision took place here last night between a party of State militia searching for arms among the freedmen, and a squad of colored soldiers. Several of the militia were wounded, one severely. A large number of muskets, ammunition, &c., were found and taken from the negroes. [This is exactly what might have been expected, of such State Militia.]

☞ In New York, about 2 o'clock Saturday morning, a fire broke out in the cotton warehouse of Squire & Johnson, corner of Bridge and State streets. The building and seven thousand bales of cotton were destroyed. A number of firemen and several of the police were killed by the falling of the walls. The loss of the cotton is estimated at a million dollars.

☞ At Washington, Common Councilman E. W. White, who has advocated negro suffrage in the City Government, has been removed from a position which he has been holding for several years at the Navy Yard. The opponents of universal suffrage are jubilant.

—— On Thursday, at Manchester, David Young had his hands accidentally pressed down upon a grind-stone, which ground off the nails and the ends of two fingers and a thumb, very quick, but very painfully. He is doing well now, though he suffered greatly at first.

— A widow named Bailey has recovered a verdict of $10,700 from the Pennsylvania Railroad for the killing of her husband, who was run over by a locomotive on that road.

— A special Washington dispatch says it is positively asserted there that Gen. Butler has prepared a legal argument showing how Jeff. Davis and Gen. Lee can be properly tried before a military tribunal.

— In the Missouri House of Representatives, a series of resolutions favoring negro suffrage were introduced, and after some discussion indefinitely postponed by a vote of 53 to 51. A large numer of Radicals voted for the postponement.

— The birth-place of Capt. Nathan Hale, the martyr-spy of the Revolution, in Coventry, Conn., was recently sold for $5273. The house where he was born still stands, though it has been considerably repaired within a few years.

— A clerk in one of the prominent English banking houses of New York is in jail on a charge of appropriating to his own use about twenty thousand dollars in securities, which had been entrusted to his keeping. The clerk lived what is known as a "gay life."

☞ For a Holiday Gift Book we know of nothing comparable to the Illustrated Songs of Seven, by Jean Ingelow. There are Seven Songs, each discriptive of different periods in woman's life, such as love, matrimony, widowhood, and sung with a depth of feeling sure to make them cherished in every home. It is a gem in the way of book-making. The drawings are beautiful and appropriate, and a speaking likeness of the fair authoress—the first ever seen of her—makes the book doubly valuable. Messrs. Roberts Brothers, Boston publish this elegant volume. Can be had at all book-stores.

— "Paper weddings," after two years of married life, are the latest invention in this line.

— Hon. Geo. W. Warren "respectfully declines the honor" of being run as the coalition candidate for Mayor of Boston.

— Sheep-stealing is quite brisk in Connecticut. The animals are slaughtered in the fields and dressed, nothing but their carcasses being carried off.

— Between January 1 and June 28, 1865, no less than three hundred and sixty-one persons were conveyed to the hospitals in London to be treated for injuries received from dogs.

— Washington landlords are becoming alarmed, for vacant stores are rented with great difficulty and at reduced rates, while scores of tenants are giving notice that their rents must be lowered, or they will leave at the expiration of their leases. In short, "the flush times" of Washington City are at an end. Good!

— "Thou shalt not steal," is an axiom which no one disputes, but which very many evade, and seem quite willing to forget its teachings. Unscrupulous persons have, and are still, imitating Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. We make mention of this fact to put all persons who want the best article on their guard, and our advice is to buy no other, as that, in our judgment, is the only article that should enter the stomach of any one who cares for health and good Bread or Biscuit. Most of our Grocers have it for sale. The depot is 112 Liberty St., New York. 17

—DEALERS IN—

S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.

This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.

FIRST ADVANTAGES.

First, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.

Second, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction, and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.

Third, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.

Fourth, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.

Fifth, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.

Sixth, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

☞ Manufactured by S. VANCE & CO., No. 31 Liberty Street, Newburyport, and for sale in Portsmouth by the Sole Agents for N. H.,

ISRAEL MARDEN & CO.,

39 Congress Street.

☞ We are permitted to refer to Mr. MONROE HOLMES and to Mr. FRANK W. MILLER of the Daily Chronicle, who have these new Pumps in use on their premises,—for testimony their excellence.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S

PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth over

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS

Invariably Cure the Following Diseases:

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Cough,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. Local.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CITY MISSION, which occupies much of our space to-day, is a document which should be read and pondered by every citizen who cares for the morals, health, and prosperity of the city; as it is prepared by the City Missionary, whose position and duties make him more thoroughly acquainted than most other persons can be, with the actual life of some classes in our community, and whose experience and fidelity in his office entitle his advice to careful consideration. The Mission has been and is very useful; and its usefulness might be greatly increased by enlarged patronage and support.

☞ The exercises at the Stone Church on Sunday evening, on the occasion of the presentation of the sixteenth annual report of the Portsmouth City Mission, were as usual of an interesting character, local and general. The attendance was large, and the services generally well conducted and attentively listened to, as the importance and value of the subject demands. The City Mission is at once a most efficient charity and an essential aid to the good order, well-being and civilization of our city. Let us cherish it liberally.

☞ Last Friday evening was the occasion of a pleasant social gathering at the festive board, of the members of the City Government, together with a few invited guests, by invitation of His Honor Mayor Bailey; and after discussing the bounteous repast prepared by those skillful caterers to the human appetite, Messrs. Hadley & Perkins of the Franklin House; spicy remarks were made by those who are celebrated for their volubility of tongue, contributing much toward the conviviality and enjoyment of the evening. Major William H. Hackett, President of the Common Council, was particularly jocose, making some pleasant hits, which were well received; and, in fact, everything passed off in the most satisfactory manner.

Mayor Bailey presided in his accustomed quiet and unassuming manner, and remarks were made by Ex-Mayors Walker and Dearborn, Judges Odell and Bufford, City Solicitor Goodall, Alderman-elect Henderson, Councilmen Nowell and Davis, Messrs. Stavers, Stevens, Rollins, Oxford and others. A fitting tribute was paid to the memory of the late City Treasurer, Robert Lefavour, in appropriate remarks by Messrs. Goodall, Bufford and Hackett, and the meeting then dissolved, we trust to meet again another year under as favorable circumstances.

☞ So numerous have been the gallant achievements of our Navy, during the last few years, that it seems hardly necessary that they should win new laurels now that the dawn of peace is so far advanced as to be almost perfect day. The officers attached to the receiving-ship Vandalia on Saturday entertained a large and brilliant party on shipboard, and show that as they had been gallant in war so they are gallant in peace.

The house recently built over the deck was very tastefully decorated with flags, its entire interior being covered with bright-colored bunting, with flashing cutlasses arranged in such order upon the walls as to give a fine effect. The after part of this space was used for a ball-room, while a curtain of flags shut from view the forward part of the ship. Around the capstans rifles stood thickly, each supporting a lighted candle, while pendant from the roof were chandeliers, some of pistols and some of bayonets, but all charged with the same harmless load as the rifles—even the ladies made light of it.

The little steamers sent for their accommodation having delivered most of the guests on board ship, the time passed pleasantly in dancing, until the curtain was withdrawn amidships, and the company were marched to confront a bounteously-spread table, almost faultless in its appointments. The fact is, we've heard a great deal about the hardships of a life on the ocean wave, but if that dinner was a sample of the "hard tack," we should like to sail on the same tack for some time.

Coming from the light of day into the artificially-lighted ball-room gave an additional novelty to the sight of much youth and beauty usurping the place of grim-visaged war and surrounded by its death-dealing symbols. We believe we but echo the general decision when we pronounce the affair to have been one of the most pleasing of the season. Each officer seemed anxious to outdo in attention to his guests, and we make no comparison in returning especial thanks to Capt. Greene, Executive Officer Nickerson and Ensign Gay for courtesies extended to us.

☞ Mrs. Whipple's Literary Entertainment to-night will present great attractions, in her own elocutionary powers; and Mr. Barnabee's musical and humorous capabilities will prove not less attractive than before. The surprisingly perfect manner in which both are always up in the text of their parts, is one of the greatest pleasures to an appreciative listener. The entertainment offers a rare variety of attractions for an evening's enjoyment.

☞ The Navy Department has decided to give the subordinate places in the Navy Yard to meritorious warrant officers. Among those appointed is Boatswain P. J. Miller, who is to be Master Laborer at the Charlestown Yard. The reduction of the force of mechanics at the Yard at Washington has been partially postponed, as it is desirable to finish several jobs already commenced. Preference is to be given to discharged soldiers and sailors in selecting those who are to be permanently retained.

— It is estimated that the cost of repairing the damage done to the Mills House in Charleston, by shot and shell during the siege, will amount to $50,000.

— Last year nine thousand new buildings were put up in Chicago. Six of them cost $100,000 each; forty others cost $30,000 each.

— Rev. Dr. Storrs' Church at Brooklyn took up a contribution recently amounting to $43,000, for the city mission and tract society.

— At the commencement of the rebellion the United States was the first commercial power, with a tonnage of five million. One million of this tonnage has been destroyed by the Anglo-rebel cruisers. Over nine hundred thousand tons have been transferred, and we are to-day only the fourth nation in rank as to commercial marine.

— The captured blockade-runner, Lady Sterling, was splendidly fitted up last spring at New York, as a President's yacht and was re-christened the Hornet. But Mr. Johnson's Democratic ideas have prompted him to decline this expensive and illegal luxury, so the Hornet is to be sent to New York and sold at auction.

TAMPERING WITH THE TEETH is madness. Avoid the corrosive dentifrices, submit to no scraping, use nothing but SOZODONT.—Fragrant herbs are the ingredients. It preserves the enamel. It removes all impurities. It strengthens the gums. It deodorizes a tainted breath. It is harmless as water, and more valuable than its weight in gold. d&eodlw

Special Notice.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGOON'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGOON'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. MAGOON, 43 Fulton street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cents per box. decéod&wly

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

Hence, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full files of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c, produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years.—Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots adjoining the city, per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Colonist Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawôm

CUSTOM HOUSE REGULATION. — At Madrid the custom house rules that ladies must enter that capital with soiled dresses only, and whatever new and fresh female chiffons they have with them must be heavily taxed. The other day the train from Paris to Madrid was delayed nearly an hour while the custom house officer squabbled with a passenger about a single silk dress which she had in her trunk. The lady vowed she had worn it once, but the officers triumphantly pointed out that it was neither soiled nor torn, and if not new, it was as good as new, and must be taxed as such. At last the lady had to give way and to pay one hundred and fifty reals duty on the garment.

— A boy named Whalan was poisoned in Taunton on Wednesday by drinking a liquid containing aconite that had been prepared for an eye wash. He died in about two hours.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen: I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela. He strongly treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

I trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.

CHEROKEE CURE,
THE GREAT
INDIAN MEDICINE,

Cures all diseases caused by self-abuse, viz:—Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Nightly Emissions, Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficult Breathing, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all diseases that follow as a sequence of youthful indiscretions.

The Cherokee Cure will restore health and vigor, stop the emissions, and effect a permanent cure after all other medicines have failed. Thirty-two page pamphlet sent in a sealed envelope, free to any address.

Price $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5. Sold by all druggists; or will be sent by express to any portion of the world, on receipt of price, by the sole proprietor,
Dr. W. R. MERWIN, 37 Walker St., N. Y.

Cherokee Remedy,

Cures all Urinary Complaints, viz: Gravel, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Retention of Urine, Stricture of the Urethra, Dropsical Swellings, Brick Dust Deposits, and all diseases that require a diuretic, and when used in conjunction with the CHEROKEE INJECTION,
does not fail to cure Gonorrhea, Gleet and all Mucous Discharges in Male or Female, curing recent cases in from one to three days, and is strongly recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in Females. The two medicines used in conjunction will not fail to remove the most obstinate complaint, and in those cases where other medicines have been used without success.

Price, Remedy, One Bottle, $2, Three Bottles, $5.
" Injection, " " $2, " " $5.

The Cherokee "Cure," "Remedy," and "Injection" are to be found in all well regulated drug stores, and are recommended by physicians and druggists all over the world, for their intrinsic worth and merit. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to deceive their customers, by selling cheap and worthless compounds,—in order to make money—in place of these. Be not deceived. If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by express, securely packed and free from observation. We treat all diseases to which the human system is subject, and will be pleased to receive full and explicit statements from those who have failed to receive relief heretofore. Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence. We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet free to every lady and gentleman in the land. Address all letters for pamphlets, medicines, or advice, to the sole proprietor,
Dr. W. R. MERWIN, 37 Walker St., N. Y.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will add this a rare chance to make money. We have Agents clearing $250 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant by proof of the above spirit for circular and see our terms. Boston, April 7, 1865 eod&wly

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1865.

CONGRESS assembled promptly at 12 o'clock on Monday. At the opening of the House, (the Clerk having pursued the wisely conservative course of keeping all representatives off the roll, who had not been touched for by regular Governors of States,) Mr. Maynard of Pennsylvania endeavored to present his credentials during roll call, and Brooks of New York sustained him,—but the House did not,—and balloting for the Speaker commenced. Colfax and Brooks were the candidates, and the result was not doubtful.

Senator Sumner has prepared and will introduce into the Senate, important bills and resolutions on national security and national faith in the rebel States.

ORIGIN OF THE JAMAICA REBELLION.—At a meeting in New York on Thursday evening, Rev. Dr. Cheever read a letter he had received from an eminent resident of England, and a warm friend of America, in which allusion was made to the Jamaica revolt; and in connection therewith, it was stated that the writer believes the revolt to have originated at the South, to destroy confidence in the negro; and that he had seen no valid evidence cited as the origin of the Jamaica troubles, that disproved this charge. Dr. Cheever said that the gentleman from whom he received this letter was perfectly trustworthy, and made no such startling announcement without knowing it to be true. The writer, it is supposed, was George Thompson. — Boston Journal.

These are startling announcements indeed: and must be received with caution; nevertheless there must be, as we have all along suggested, some cause for the trouble, which the colonial press dare not give us: but we shall get it from London by and by.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. Arthur Little is to be pastor of the Cong. Church in Bedford.

—— The 2d Regt. N. H. Vols. is coming home, the last remainder of it, to be mustered out.

—— The Independent Democrat, published at Concord, has been enlarged to its size before the rebellion broke out into war.

—— Francis Colbath of Farmington, a young man, was knocked down and robbed of 68, in Rochester on Saturday evening, by Darius Lovejoy and three others, all grown up boys. Lovejoy is in jail.

—— Rev. Amos Foster, of Acworth, now 70 years old, has resigned his pastorate of the Congregationalist Church, and retired to his former home in Putney, Vt.,—because he feels himself unable to perform the pastoral duties of the "hilly town" of A.

—— A week ago Mr. Wm. Butterfly was arrested in Manchester, charged with stealing a horse and wagon in Vermont, and put into jail to wait for witnesses. None came, but a telegram did come from the owner of the horse, saying Butterfly is the wrong man. So Butterfly is released.

☞ The buildings of Hinckley & Williams' Locomotive Works, in Harrison Avenue, Boston, were destroyed by fire on Saturday evening. Loss $60,000; well insured. While the fire was burning, Messrs. H. & W. were seated in their counting house and executed a contract with a well known builder, to rebuild them.

☞ The Boston Saturday Evening Gazette has passed into the hands of Mr. F. B. Goodsell as publisher and proprietor. Mr. Shillaber will remain in his position; and Mr. W. W. Clapp, jr., is to continue as editor for three months or longer. The reputation of the Gazette is deservedly high.

— We learn from the Rochester Courier that John Dudley, of Alton, went out on foot Thursday afternoon to buy a pig, and when on his way home, and about a mile and a half distant, was suddenly knocked down, stabbed in two places and robbed of about one thousand dollars. Dudley was an extensive dealer in cattle and sheep, and was probably robbed by some one living in his vicinity.

— Between the first of April last and the 4th of Nov., 108 persons were knocked down and killed in London by vans, drays, carts, wagons, omnibuses, cabs, and carriages.

— The Eastern Railroad track over the turnpike in Newbury, has been raised about three feet, and this rise has been carried to the Newburyport crossing.

— The Emperor of Austria has ordered that passports shall no longer be considered necessary for persons crossing the frontiers.

— Libby Prison and Castle Thunder, so well known in the history of the war, will soon be transformed into storehouses again.

— In a new play now performing at Paris, the costumes of the four principal female characters cost nearly $15,000.

— Belle Boyd (Mrs. Harding) has been studying for the stage, and will soon appear at one of the Liverpool theatres.

— The new Lord Mayor of London is not only a Jew but a teetotaller.

Chronicle Correspondence.

CONCORD, Nov. 29.

We are hourly expecting to see our old-fashioned Thanksgiving snow storm commence, for the air and the heavens above assure us that winter is close upon us. The Governor is usually expected to hit a snow storm with his appointment of Thanksgiving, if he is qualified to make an almanac.

President Johnson very improperly interfered with the doings of the Governors of the States, in the matter of Thanksgiving, and this was done to please a few meddling clergymen in the corrupt city of Washington. An appointment by him of a day of thanksgiving on account of the successful termination of the late wicked rebellion, should have been made months ago, if at all, and not to interfere with the time-honored custom of State Thanksgivings, appointed by the State executive of each State, for purposes different from the one that moved the President to act. We submit to what has been done, however, under protest, that hereafter the City of Washington shall not dictate to the States in this or any other matter that properly belongs to the States.

Putting Thanksgiving off into December, interferes with many arrangements for the commencement of winter schools in the country, and with vacations and the beginnings of winter terms in academies, private schools and other institutions.

At the last meeting of the Governor and Council, that body adjourned to meet on the Tuesday preceding Thanksgiving day, and they met yesterday, notwithstanding Thanksgiving has been postponed into next week. They do not follow their own postponement of that day, so far as their own assembling is concerned.

There is a little contest before that body, to-day, as to who shall be Register of Probate for the next five years in this county. The great mass of the people are opposed to the present incumbent, who has, strangely enough, held the office already ten years, while a powerful clique of office-holders and office-seekers are at work desperately for his re-appointment. The people are still, though dissatisfied, and every one of the "clique" is wide-awke and at work hard. A hearing is to be had at 11 o'clock to-day, before the Governor and Council—a very unusual occurrence in this State in reference to such an appointment. The people will not be in attendance, but the wire-pullers will be, I presume.

Work upon the State House progresses well, and the outside of the building is in a condition fit to receive the storms of a New Hampshire winter. The improvements on the building will cost this city $175,000; and those upon a building the original cost of which was in close proximity to $90,000. So much for doing annecessary work at the wrong time. Two years hence the same work would have cost, probably, about $100,000. Materials and labor are 75 per cent. higher than they were four years ago, or will be two years in the future. [Perhaps.—Ed. Chron.]

We are looking with much interest to the opening of Congress next week,—to the President's first message to Congress, and to the reports from the different Departments. We shall have some interesting speeches from leading Senators and Representatives, very early in the session; and there will be much excitement throughout the country, immediately, upon the conflicting plans on reconstruction, or as President Johnson would say, restoration. We hope for the best policy, yet fear for the worst. Bad influences are ever in and around Washington.

But very few here favor putting representation in Congress and Electoral votes upon legal voters in the several States, as it would operate adversely to the Eastern and old States, generally, as in them the female population greatly outnumbers the male, while it is the reverse of this in the Western and new States generally. We favor a plan not to count the colored people in any State for representation or for electoral votes, in which the colored men are not allowed to vote the same as white men. This would operate well, and would soon induce States in which colored people are numerous to allow the men to vote. All this must be settled right before a single State lately in rebellion shall be acknowledged as fully in the Union.

In Concord, the prices of all the common necessaries of life are very high, but they will soon be lower. The people are buying as little flour, batter, cheese, meat, dry goods, and groceries as they can well get along with, and they will continue to do so as long as the prices remain as they are now.

Political matters are pretty quiet here just now, but soon all will be commotion, as "cliques" are organized and are at work, secretly, in reference to the next election of U. S. Senator, which will be made by the Legislature to be chosen in less than fifteen weeks from to-day. Office-seeking has become odious to many of the Republicans of this State, and throughout the country also, and many will favor the election of some good man who scorns to seek the office.

The number of new members to the Legislature, next year, will be very large, and many of them will be able and independent men. There is to be a strong movement in favor of Temperance, throughout the State, and this will call out many good and retired men for places of influence and responsibility, who, if elected to office, will not be excused from accepting them, however reluctant they may be to be made public servants. The people are everywhere becoming convinced that all office-seekers intrigue for office, not to be useful to the people, but to make the interests of the people subserve to their own selfish purposes. Blessed will be the day when "office seeking" shall be hateful in every State, county, city and town in the whole country, for then we shall have public men of whom the country need not be ashamed.

[Communication.]

THAT FIRE.—Editors of Chronicle: I do not intend to get into a newspaper controversy relative to the origin of the fire in Congress Block, and shall reply no farther than to explain the "taking back of a part of my statements," as your correspondent stated on Saturday. The withdrawal of the assertion Mr. Butler alluded to, is simply this: I stated that a gentleman passed the block on the opposite side of the street at 12 o'clock, and saw a light in the office over my store, and some persons seated around a table. Instead of 12, it should have been 11 o'clock, which is the hour Mr. B. says he left the office. And he said to me personally, in your presence, Mr. Editor, at the Reading Room, that the last thing he did before leaving the office, was to take a brass key from his pocket and stir up the sawdust in the spittoon to see that all was safe!

He further says, in your paper, that "nothing was said or done on that evening which could have given origin to the fire;" and yet allowed that he did smoke a pipe; if not, why disturb the sawdust in the spittoon?

Since my statement in the Journal, I have conversed with a man who, probably, was the first who discovered the fire—an hostler in Messrs. Somerby's employ, who slept in the Office. Having occasion to get up about four o'clock, and going into the stable, he smelt smoke; and thinking it might be about the premises, he went into the yard, and then found it much stronger; he passed to the front, looked toward the Block, and discovered the fire in Mr. Frick's office burning brilliantly, and no light at all in my store. He ran to the Police Station to give the Watchmen alarm to ring the bell; but as the guardians of the night are allowed to go home at 4 o'clock, no one was to be found, and he saw no person on the street; he ran back, crying fire, to arouse Mr. Somerby at his house, who immediately got up, took a horse, and rode to my house to notify me.

The special settling agent of the Home Insurance Co. arrived here on Saturday morning, and after making an investigation, and before I had seen him, or knew he was in the city, he was so well satisfied with the facts, that he had already sent word to the Company that the fire originated in the lawyer's office over my store, by cigar or pipe ashes being thrown into a spittoon containing sawdust.

I now close this controversy without any ill feeling towards a single individual as to to the origin of the fire; and in passing, allow me express my very high respect for the gentlemanly agent from New York, for the Home Company, who has promptly paid the full claim of all parties thus early, to the satisfaction of every one.

W. R. PRESTON.

Portsmouth, Dec. 4th.

☞ Fayette Laighton's motto is, that "quality is the test of cheapness;" and so he probably don't believe that the lowest grades of groceries are to be compared with the highest, on an even basis. Neither do we; and he might add, that it is worth something to a neat customer, to be able to order your goods in a nice store. And we don't know anybody that enjoys keeping a store nice, more than Mr. Laighton. He was a very material assistant in furnishing up, about the first of the nice modern grocery stores we had here, since the tasteful package goods came in vogue, with which a merchant can fit up a store so prettily; and we don't know anybody who keeps a neater store now, or one where you can more safely depend on getting nice goods. At any rate, that little box of figs (for which we have a weakness, as Laighton knows,) just from 44 Market street, is so nice a sample, that we wish it was like the Widow Cruse's jug of oil, and would never fail.

☞ The new patent Non-Explosive Safety Lamp to be seen at the City Hotel, and for which Agents are Wanted, as advertised this morning—is a beautiful little brass hand-lamp, to burn kerosene or coal oil, (or the gas that generates from it,) without chimney or cover of any sort. It is a very neat, cleanly and convenient article, and appears to be really valuable and desirable.

From the Tribune.

A WEDDING SONNET.

TO T. B. A.

Sad Autumn, drop thy weedy crown forlorn,
Put off thy cloak of cloud, thy scarf of mist,
And dress in gauzy gold and amethyst
A day benign, of summer influence born.
As may befit a Poet's marriage morn!
Give me in a sweet dream, another tryst
To loving hearts, and print on lips unkissed
Betrothal kisses, laughing Spring to scorn!
Yet, if unfriendly thou, with sullen skies,
Black rains, or mounting winds, dost mean wrong,
Here art thou foiled: a bridal sun shall rise,
And bridal emblems unto thee belong:
Round her, the sunshine of her beauty lies,
And breathes round him the spring-time of his song.

BAYARD TAYLOR.

MISAPPREHENSION.—Common taters, said Mrs. Partington, after the preacher had ended his sermon—he having alluded to some commentators of the good book—common taters, she continued, well all sorts of taters this year are poor enough, but what has that to do with the gospel? Not half so much as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap has, for that will make the outside of the platter clean if not the inside, besides it keeps folks from scolding or complaining; it is the best soap and needs no revival. 18

Missing from the Fire.

At the Fire in Congress Block, a half-barrel was filled with Books, &c., and taken from my Store, but has not since been returned to me. If the person having it will be kind enough to return it to the newest Bookstore, I will send for it.

There are other articles missing, which could not have been burned. Any information with regard to them will be gratefully received.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spots) and Freckles, are often very very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the delicate color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Local.

☞ Mr. Henry C. Barnabee's Concert, at the Temple, on Wednesday evening of last week, was a capital entertainment—varied and excellent, and was most decidedly enjoyed by a large and genteel audience of his former towns-people—glad to welcome home, one who is certainly equal to any amateur buffo and basso performer in the country, and not excelled by many, if by any professionals; and who sustains an equally high character in all business and social relations of life. Mr. Barnabee's singing is very fine,—his voice deep, rich and melodious, his style good, and he renders the words with more than common distinctness. We can hardly see how he could improve much,—his comicalities are irresistible, and he is always perfectly up in his part, no matter of what cast nor how long.

This was not exactly his first appearance on that stage—though it was the first entertainment which he has offered for his own benefit; and we are glad he gave the first "in his own country," and that it proved so successful in all respects. The writer of this had the pleasure of appearing with Mr. Barnabee, at a Concert given by the Portsmouth Amphious, several years ago, in the Temple; and a lady who was in Mr. B's audience on this occasion, also sustained the treble on that memorable one.

And Miss Ryan also, who sang so delightfully now,—she was formerly, we think, a member of the Episcopal choir in this city; and she once sang alto at a concert given for the writer of this, by Mr. H. S. Thompson, the best single performer we ever heard. And so, having also heard Mr. Dow's fine piano forte playing, at Mrs. Varian's concerts, and also his private performances on the Stone Church organ—it needed nothing more to make us feel toward the Choir of the Church of the Unity, like old acquaintances; and though we had never heard them all together, yet their name was everywhere a synonym for nice singing.

And a fine concert we had—didn't we? The quartet is without doubt a nice one—but as we sat enjoying this concert, we could but think, after all said, and all the nice things they did in music,—how insufficient and unsatisfactory would they be,—would any quartet be, to us, for church music. But oh! how tastes differ, don't they? a very appreciative lady friend, who sat near us, exclaimed, on passing out, "And only think, to have them to sing for you at church all the time!" Yes, said we, to "let all the people praise God, by the voices of four singers in the gallery."

The fact is, for sacred music, we regard any quartet we ever heard, as a failure—there is no worship, no devotion in their singing. It is,—it must be, compared to a choir of twelve or sixteen, as tame as a four-piece orchestra compared with a full band—not alone in body of sound, but in quality of tone; and above all, in blending, or lack of it. There are few or no quartets, of voices or instruments, but the parts are as separate and distinct as the members thereof—there is little harmonious blending and merging of voices or strings, as in a full choir or band. All of which is most respectfully submitted, and amounts to just this—that we don't like quartet choirs, if there can be any such thing.

But, to return, we did like this quartet concert—though we enjoyed the quartet part of it least of all, and much preferred the solos, duets, &c. Barnabee, himself, can't be beat; and we are inclined to credit the report that he has been offered a large salary to appear on the boards at the new theatre in Boston, and that Mr. Warren advises him to do so. Should he make the stage a profession and study, he has a future before him not less brilliant and successful than that old public favorite himself.

Miss Ryan proved herself a true artist, and her finished performances shew that she had profitted by much study and judicious instruction since she resided here. For a contralto, we thought her singing the finest we ever listened to; but we must say, begging her pardon, that we thought the lady herself was costumed and put on the stage in rather an unfortunate manner.

Miss Adams acted well her part, and has a pleasant, flexible, well cultivated voice. We enjoyed the grand old duet, Master and Scholar, between her and Mr. Barnabee, and which they did so perfectly,—we think more than any of the singing for the evening.

Mr. Haggerty's tenor was good, but he is not a great soloist, and we guess don't pretend to be. Mr. Dow, at the piano, was prompt,—careful and unassuming as ever; and made his important part secondary to the vocal, as a good accompanist ever must.

The whole entertainment was a great success—quite an enjoyable local event; and we have been unwilling to let it pass without this word of commendation, even though unable to offer it until this late day.

☞ A friend suggests that the gentleman who "Oh'd for a lodge in some vast wilderness," might find a chance in the ruins of Congress Block.

☞ We are indebted to Chas. C. Cushman, Esq., for late papers from British Columbia.

PIGEON STEALING.—Some little boys, who are taking their first lessons in thieving, have recently stolen many pigeons from the premises of Rev. Dr. Burroughs. They were finally discovered on Sunday, after this fashion; concealing themselves in the yard, they would scatter grains of corn on the pavement, and would have two or three small fish-hooks, baited with kernels of corn, and fastened by a small line to a piece of stone or brick. The pigeons would pick up these kernels with the others, and so be captured and killed. Look out for pilfering boys.

☞ When your barn is burnt, the rats get cleared out, if no other good results; and so of Congress Block,—the confounded loafers which always infested it, find their occupation gone there, at any rate. And Mr. Laws, we hear, will remove his Express to the corner store of Peirce's new swell-front brick block on Congress and Chestnut streets—a good place for his business, and out of the way of loafers too, among other pleasant features.

☞ Mr. Shores requests us to say that he will be open in a few days at the chamber over Mr. B. Cheever's store, No 38, Market Street, being the office formerly occupied by T. L. Tullock Esq., as Navy Agent. He will there reopen the stock saved from the fire—together with a new stock of goods for the holidays.

The Portsmouth Circulating Library with new books will then be reopened.

☞ The Collection taken at the Stone Church, on Sunday evening, for relief of the poor through the City Mission, amounted to $121.

NAVAL.—The resignation of Carpenter M. W. Paul of Kittery, has been accepted.

Actg. Ensign J. C. Jones has been ordered to duty at this naval station.

☞ We understand that a new wing is to be added to the Portsmouth Steam Mills, and work commenced thereupon without delay.

☞ Mr. Wendell offers a variety of goods at auction to-day. See his advertisement.

TELL YOUR FRIENDS.—Tell your friends what Coe's Cough Balsam has done for you; if it has cured your child of a racking cough, a violent attack of croup, a sore throat, or avoided a threatening fever, which it certainly will do, tell your friends of it, that they may also use it. Old, young, rich and poor, all say it is the cheapest and best cough remedy in the world.

For dyspepsia, indigestion, pain in the stomach, souring of food, languor, flatulency, and general debility, be sure to use Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. d&eodawlw

VINELAND
FARM AND FRUIT LANDS.

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upwards, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawêm

PORTSMOUTH HOWARD BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

This Society has now been in existence and in active operation for thirty-six years. It has had a care for the aged, the infirm and sick during the year, and in the winter season has made also provision for the wants of the destitute generally, who have a claim on public charity. Its funds have never allowed large appropriations for individual cases, but by a regular system of supplies of fifty cent orders once a fortnight, it has given much comfort to many families which otherwise must have suffered. Its charities have not been bestowed in such a manner as to court the eye of the public, but have been given to the deserving poor in many cases without their being made to feel that they were pensioners of a regular society.

To some old men of more than fourscore, who are laid aside with an income inadequate to supply the wants of nature, although they may now and then have some gifts from their friends, the regular fortnight supply of small stores is valuable indeed, because it comes regularly, and they can calculate upon it. More numerous are those females who through age and infirmity are compelled to live in retirement without the means of earning enough to pay their expenses. During the past summer, since April, the Society have given regular aid to twenty-five families, or individuals living alone, principally of this class. The articles given have been meal, bread, fish, sugar or molasses, tea, candles, &c. The orders have been increased the past year from 50 to 75 cents each, that the pensioners might not have their supplies diminished. During the winter months the families supplied are usually between 50 and 60.

In the last year the receipts of the Society have been $525.84, the expenditures for supplies have been $723.97. There were about $200 on hand last year at this time, which has all been expended, and the Society enter upon the season of the year when the calls are most urgent, without funds.

During the war, no public appeals have been made in behalf of the Society, the members furnishing readily such contributions as were needed. One of the best friends to the Society, who, for some twenty years sent without a name contributions of from twenty to fifty dollars annually, has departed. Last February, on the day when it was heretofore regularly mailed, the annual missil was not received. Circumstances have since been developed which give evidence that this true friend of the poor who gave not his alms to be seen of men, was that Christian philanthropist, Admiral G. W. Storer. It developed so noble a trait of character, that his family will forgive us for revealing a fact which is among the sacred domestic memories. Are there not others who wish to enjoy, by like deeds, the satisfaction he received?

In 1856, the ladies by a fair gave the Society $300. It is now nine years since any public effort has been made to aid this Society. Cannot something be done to aid the Society at the present time?

A fair is attended with great labor and expense. If ladies who so effectually raised contributions for a fair, would use the same efforts to obtain contributions directly to the Society, they would in a week obtain all that is needed.

Regular subscribers are reminded that it requires fifty per cent. more than formerly to purchase the same articles for distribution, and we hope they will contribute accordingly.

At the late annual meeting the following officers were chosen:

Charles W. Brewster, Secretary.
John Stavers, Treasurer.

Horton D. Walker, Samuel S. Green, John W. Fernald, Joseph D. Pillow, Benjamin Cheever, Jonathan Barker, William C. Hatch, William Hodge, N. Medbury, L. D. Spalding, William Day, Directors.

Stephen H. Simes, Joseph H. Foster, Auditors.

The arrangements of the visiting committees for the season are as follows:

December—Goodwin, Day, and Medbury.
January—Hodge, Green, and Cheever.
February—Walker, Stavers and Carter.
March—Fernald, Barker and Spalding.
April to Dec.—Pillow, Hatch and Brewster.

Notwithstanding the high prices, the laboring people were never in a better condition, present and prospective, to meet the inclement season than now. The past year has been one of unparalleled prosperity. Everyone who could work and would work has had enough to do and higher wages than were ever before paid; and the prospect for continued employment in many places was never better.

A SAD BEREAVEMENT.

The painful intelligence of the death at Havana, from yellow fever, of Paymaster George Clifford Boardman, son of Dr. John H. Boardman of this city, was received last week, and has cast a shade of sorrow over our entire community. Paymaster B. sailed from Havana in the U. S. steamer Rhode Island, in conformity to orders, to act as paymaster on board the ex-pirate Stonewall, which was to be brought to Washington, but the deadly scourge now prevailing at Havana cruelly cut him off in the midst of his loyal activity and usefulness after two day's sickness.

Mr. Boardman received a thorough business education in the counting room of his uncle, Ex-Governor Goodwin, and by his genial and gentlemanly deportment and engaging attributes of mind and heart, won the enduring respect and esteem of all who were favored with his acquaintance. He received, in July, 1862, the appointment of A. A. Paymaster in the navy, and by reason of his eminent qualifications was subsequently promoted to the position of Acting Paymaster. Mr. B. was 26 years of age, and it is befitting to make mention of the striking coincidence, that his uncle, George Clifford Boardman, for whom he was named, died at the same port, of the same disease, just 26 years ago. That uncle was named for George Clifford, of Exeter, a young man who went to Havana to transact business for Hon. Langley Boardman, and died there about sixty years since.

The Tunisian Embassy appears to have had two objects; the reciprocation of the most friendly National feeling in connection with the overthrow of the rebellion here, and the assassination of the President; and a personal knowledge of our country. They have everywhere been treated with hospitality and great attention, and took their departure last week.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

DEAR SIRS: I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Calalatis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1864.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Flatulence, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

CHEROKEE PILLS,

Or Female Regulator,

Cure Suppressed, Excessive and Painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back, Sick-Headache, Giddiness, and all diseases that spring from irregularity, leaving the same as free from all the effects that arise from it. They are perfectly safe in all cases, except when forbidden by directions, and are easy to administer, as they are nicely sugar coated. They should be in the hands of every Maiden, Wife, and Mother in the land.

Ladies can address us in perfect confidence, and state their complaints in full, as we treat all Female Complaints, and prescribe for all the various ills to which they are subject.—Thirty-two page pamphlet, in a sealed envelope, free.

The Cherokee Pills are sold by all druggists at $1 per box, or six boxes for $5; or they are sent by mail, free of postage, in an ordinary letter, free from observation, by addressing the sole proprietor,

Dr. W. R. MERWIN, 37 Walker St., N. Y.

N. B.—Cherokee Pills No. 2 are prepared for special cases, when milder medicines fail; these are sent by mail, free of postage, on receipt of $5, the price of each box.

DR. WRIGHT'S
REJUVENATING ELIXIR,
Or, Essence of Life,

Cures General Debility, Weakness, Hysteria in Females, Palpitation of the Heart and all Nervous Diseases. It restores new life and vigor to the aged, causing the blood of youth to course the veins, restoring the Organs of Generation to perfect "Elixir of Life," removing Sterility and Barrenness in both sexes. To the young, middle-aged, and aged, there is no greater boon than this "Elixir of Life." It gives a new lease of life, causing the weak and debilitated to have renewed strength and vigor, and the entire system to flush with joy and pleasure.

"As the Phenix rises from the ashes of its immolation, animated with new life and new blooming youth, so this Elixir renovates the system and imparts vigor, thus proving a worthless imitation of the Great and Debility, restoring Manliness and Vigor.

Price, one bottle $2; three bottles $5; sent by express to any address.

Our medicines are sold and recommended by all respectable druggists in every part of the civilized globe; some unprincipled dealers, however, try to deceive their customers by selling cheap and worthless compounds in order to make money. Be not deceived—ask for these medicines and take no others. If the druggist does not keep them, write to us, and we will send them by express, carefully packed, free from observation. We will be pleased to receive letters with full statements in regard to any disease with which ladies or gentlemen are afflicted. Address all letters for medicines, pamphlets, or advice, to the sole proprietor,

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the wasting energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest child.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very roots of the evil.

Invariably Cure the Following Diseases:

COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1,000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the Great Conflict. It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle-scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have agents clearing $200 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant; for proof of the above send for circulars and our terms. Address, JONES BROS. & CO., 14 Phœnix Building, Boston.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1865.

CONGRESS.—In the House on Monday, Mr. Colfax was re-elected Speaker, having 139 Union votes. Mr. Brooks of New York, the candidate of the Democratic party, had 35. The Democratic party did not present any candidates for the other offices of the House, and the caucus nominees were chosen in a lump.

The joint resolution appointing a committe on reconstruction was also passed. The Democratic party had just one-fifth of the votes necessary to enable them to demand the yeas and nays, which is a falling off in the congressional ranks of that once victorious party.

Mr. Stevens presented the bill which was proposed in the Republican caucus, for the appointment of a committee to examine and report whether any of the so-called Confederates are entitled to representation in Congress. Under a suspension of the rules the bill passed—133 against 36.

In the Senate Mr. Sumner introduced Bills: To carry out the principles of a republican government in the District of Columbia—prescribing an oath to maintain a republican form of government in the rebel States—to put into execution a guarantee of a republican form of government in the Constitution of the United States—on the subject of appropriate legislation to enforce the amendment to the constitution prohibiting slavery—to preserve the right of trial by jury by securing impartial persons in the courts of the United States—to enforce a guarantee of a republican form of government in certain States where governments have been usurped and overthrown.

A joint resolution declaratory of the amendment abolishing slavery—a series of resolutions declaratory of the duty of Congress with respect to the guarantee of national security and national faith in the rebel States.

Mr. Wade introduced a bill to regulate the franchise of the district of Columbia.

Mr. Adams introduced a bill to regulate the judiciary of the United States.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to maintain the freedom of the inhabitants of the States declared free in the rebellion. Ordered to be printed.

DEATH OF FRANCIS GRANT.—On Monday, Nov. 27, Francis Grant died suddenly at his residence in Exeter, aged 73 years and four months. Francis Grant was a native of Exeter, and for more than forty years has been known as the book-seller of Exeter. Of the thousands of students who were educated at Phillips Exeter Academy, for the last forty years, almost every one will remember the kind and genial man, who supplied him with books when he began his classical studies.—The News Letter justly remarks: Almost every house in this vicinity, has books, both old and new, that were bought at his store. The students, who are settled over various parts of the country, and the people who live in the immediate vicinity, will remember him, as a kind, just, and honorable man. He had a taste for natural science, and spent his leisure hours in botanical studies. Nor does it seem strange that death should find him in his garden, though the flowers, that he loved, had all faded and died.

He was fond of music, and enjoyed the Old Folks' Concerts, in which he often participated. It was well, that those whose voices mingled with his, while living, should sing their choicest hymns at his burial. As a citizen he had the confidence, esteem and good will of the people with whom he lived. As he passes away from a large circle of friends, let us hope, that in the "Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood" his voice will blend harmoniously in songs of heavenly gratitude and praise.

Our personal acquaintance with Mr. G., covered many of the years above mentioned, and was mutually pleasant. Our business visits (hundreds perhaps,) made to his store, were always occasions of pleasure.

COTON CLOTH.—The Manchester American, in reply to the statement that cotton manufacturers are not content with less than a dollar profit on every pound of cotton, shows that the cost of the manufacture of a pound of cotton cloth, including material, is 90 7-10 cents, and that the standard sheetings in this country are less than three yards to a pound, and are now selling at 32 cents per yard by wholesale.

— In Providence on Saturday evening, Mrs. Nancy J. Harradon, a widow lady, was fatally burned by the explosion of a lamp. She had lighted the lamp and placed it on the table, when it immediately exploded, and the old lady was enveloped in a sheet of flame, and before the fire could be extinguished she was so severely burned that she died in a few hours.

— The operation of casting a cubic block of steel of the enormous weight of one hundred tons, was successfully accomplished recently at a foundry at East Greenwich, near London.

— The Congress Square (old) Universalist Society in Portland, have just raised the salary of their pastor, Rev. Mr. Bolles, from $2000 to $2500, without increasing the rate of taxation on the pews.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 28th.

Editor Chronicle:—Owing to the reduction of the military force in this city, Maj. Gen. Turner has notified the city authorities that the police force hitherto furnished by him will, on the 15th of December, be withdrawn, after which date the city will have to assign and employ a police of their own. The General has also notified them that the City Almshouse will be turned over to them, and that two or three hundred negroes who have been receiving Government rations, will be furnished no longer; and as the city has no money in the treasury at present, and no plan as yet for putting any there, it is something of a question as to what is to be done, now that Uncle Sam is to let the citizens take charge of their own affairs—which some have been so anxious to have the privilege of doing, ever since they sneaked back into the city, after fleeing away at the time of the evacuation.

These same individuals, who were so frightened then, thinking that the Yankees would kill, rob and burn indiscriminately, upon taking possession; and who, upon learning that instead of that, they made strenuous efforts to subdue the flames, which they themselves kindled, soon returned to the city, and commenced at once their old trade of abusing everything and everybody that came from the North; and especially were they continually harping upon the utter needlessness of keeping Yankee troops here, while all this time the Government was furnishing them with an efficient police force, taking care of their poor, and in fact doing them the greatest kindness possible.

And now, having turned the city over to them, it remains to be seen how they will like to pay heavy taxes to support that which for seven months past has been furnished by the Government free of charge. As one of the city papers says—"Money is said to be tight, business is stagnant, winter is upon us, and the treasury is empty." A fine prospect truly; but perhaps the Enquirer, which has every day one or more articles not calculated to improve the state of feeling between the North and South, can suggest a plan whereby timely assistance can be furnished by the charity of Northern citizens; and, if any incentive is needed, let a recent issue of said paper, containing an editorial on the union of the Episcopal Church, North and South, be freely circulated and read by the Union people North, and it will convince them of the new-born Unionism of this same editor, who, having never been beyond the boundaries of Richmond but once, and that at the time the Union forces marched in, thought that there is no other place in the world but Virginia, of which Richmond is its centre, until the ignorant "mudsills" of the North took possession, when, of course, a great portion of its glory departed, until the Enquirer was revived, which event will, doubtless, if its own designs are fulfilled, bring back its former glory, which consisted in niggers, and a pure, "classick" literature, which had not been "innovated" upon by ignorant "Northern instructors." But it is a good thing for the Government to make the South take care of itself, and its colored population also.

Gen. Grant and a portion of his staff arrived here yesterday, and took quarters at the Spotswood Hotel. His arrival was not generally known, and in consequence, he had a very quiet time while here. He left this morning for North Carolina.

At the time of the evacuation, about one hundred stores were burnt on Main street. Up to the present time there have been eleven rebuilt; thirty-five are re-building; while over fifty lots remain just as the fire left them, and it is very uncertain when any improvement will be made thereon. The buildings which have been and are being erected do not look very substantial or ornamental, which is undoubtedly the result of a want of capital.

Much is and has been said about the natural resources of Virginia, which only required energy, capital and labor to bring forth; but the latter comes to a poor market here, if a party of thirty able-bodied foreign immigrants applying to the U. S. authorities for transportation to Louisiana, (they having been unable to obtain employment here, and being, besides, in a destitute condition,) is to be taken as an inducement for others to follow in their footsteps. Things will have to change prodigiously before Virginia becomes the first and leading State in the Union.

Truly Yours, R. C.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

RYE, Dec. 4, 1865.

The Seaweed Law—Arrival of the remains of a Rye soldier, &c.

Messrs. Editors:—If Rye is all bustle and activity in summer, surely it is dull enough in winter. The most inveterate hater of dancing schools, Levees and "grab-bags" would now spoil for something to fight. Even the much needed singing school is banished from among us. The summer excitement is all gone. Political animosities have subsided with the summary "squelching" of the rebellion; denominational strife is unknown, cats walk peaceably at night; dogs refuse to fight, and no social explosion jostles the equilibrium of the moral atmosphere.

Nothing excites even a passing discussion, unless possibly it is the pros and cons of the seaweed law. As this question is one of vital interest to many of our farmers, it is not strange that they should manifest a lively interest in what so nearly concerns them. As everybody knows, immense quantities of the weed are thrown upon our beaches immediately after the heavy storms that sweep our coast. It is of much value, whether used as a top-dressing or composted in the manure heap, and the farmers scramble after it, through all weathers and under all circumstances.

The Statute Law of New Hampshire, imposing a fine for piling seaweed below high-water mark, has, by common consent, remained a dead letter for many years, and no attempt has been made to enforce it. Persons have piled and hauled seaweed at all hours of the night and day, and no one has made any complaint; and everybody—except the lazy—were willing to take their chances. Two or three years ago the town of North Hampton undertook to gratify the whims of a few inland individuals, who never wish to know by experience in what direction the sun rises—and appointed a special committee to enforce the law. The committee pulled the scales off their eyes—and went smelling round the beaches with a view of prosecuting any of the worldly interlopers who should have the temerity to exercise their muscles in piling up the forbidden fruit before daylight.

Public opinion, however, was so manifestly against it, that the whole thing ended in a "kerfummux" of the first magnitude, and the committee never realized much of a fortune in prosecuting their neighbors. Matters relapsed to the former "let-alone" policy, until a few weeks since, when a well-known personage of North Hampton, (many of the Rye farmers have excellent reasons for remembering him) prosecuted four of his fellow citizens for alleged violation of the seaweed law, and your excellent Police Court Reporter—probably not being familiar with all the circumstances of the case—politely called it stealing seaweed. As might be expected, the flimsy pretexts of the complainant were not sustained, and he retired from the contest with a pretty well-developed flea in his ear.

We make these remarks with no feelings of personal hostility to any one, but merely to protest in behalf of large number of respectable farmers, against any enforcement of the seaweed law, for purely personal and malicious purposes. Our motto is "let well enough alone"—and many years of observation have confirmed us in the belief that the interests of the farming community will be best subserved by the non enforcement of the odious seaweed law.

The remains of Mr. J. Harrison Foye were brought to his home a few days since and interred in Rye. He was a member of Co. E, 18th N. H. Regt., and was killed near Suffolk, Va., in 1863. He was a most excellent and worthy young man. Yours, BUGGINS.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.—On the 2d Dec. the Legislature of Louisiana, by acclamation, passed a resolution to the effect that there is no opposition, open or secret, to the United States Government in that State; that slavery is abolished forever, and that they cordially and heartily endorse the President's reconstruction policy.

At Columbus, Miss., on Saturday, a building known as the Confederate Arsenal, with 200 bales of Government cotton, was burned. Loss $100,000. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

In some of the interior counties of Texas the freedmen having commenced making contracts for next year on the rich coast plantations, the planters have generally abandoned planting, except for enough to support their families, owing to the difficulty of getting freedmen to work with any regularity or keep their contracts. The owners of these plantations are seeking to lease them.

The old business men at Galveston and Houston are holding back from trade, being apprehensive of a general collapse from over-trading by March or April.

Galveston dates of the 30th ult. state that Governor Hamilton has authorized the Chief Justices of Counties to raise a special force of fifty citizens to maintain peace and enforce order by acting with the military. The Provost Marshal system is re-established by orders from headquarters.

BEADLE'S MONTHLY, of which we have already made mention, comes out in a very neat dress. The publishers aim "to give the reading public a magazine neither overburdened with romance nor too weighty with thoughtful papers upon weighty themes; but to maintain that happy mean, which shall render it readable, enjoyable and useful." Single copies $3 per year, 25 cents per number.

☞ The Sunday Magazine, published by A. Straban & Co., 178 Grand street, New York, at $3 per year, indicates by its name the peculiar path in literature which it aims to follow. Its articles are well written, while the engravings which embellish its pages are alone worth the subscription price. J. H. Foster is agent for this city.

IMPURITIES.

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. What we have to do to recover our health is to take out from the BOWELS AND THE CIRCULATION the excess of impurities. This done, health follows of necessity.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS

are the only medicine that can do this with entire safety to all the organs of the body.

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS

are now living who have adopted BRANDRETH'S PILLS as their only remedy for periods of from thirty to fifty years, and whose average health is excellent. They have always cured themselves, when sick, by these Communication.

PORTSMOUTH, Dec. 1.

Mr. Editor:—what is the reason that we do not have our Cornet Band at the Lyceum? We were promised a Concert by the Band at each Lecture, and we have had but just one. I bought my ticket for the Course with the expectation of hearing them, and now we are put off with a Band of four instruments for dancing, which is not at all appropriate for the house. We hope to hear them at the next Lecture.

— Yours, J.

[Remarks.—It is not true, we think, that the Lyceum Committee promised the Cornet Band or any other Band, at each lecture,—but, if we are correct, they simply agreed to furnish "a musical entertainment each evening"; and we believe they have kept their contract, and will continue to do so, even if they lose money by it.

For our part, though our name appears in the Committee, we have not been allowed, by press of other business, the pleasure of acting much with them this year. Had we done so, we should have stood for the Cornet Band all through, as we always do, for we believe in the institution; and our consenting to serve last year, was almost solely to secure their services.

No doubt the committee this year felt, with the limited patronage and increased expenses, that they could not afford this luxury; but we think this whole Lyceum business needs to be rearranged, when a few popular 'star" lecturers can claim all the receipts of a Course, receiving more pay than ball-owners, musicians, printers, committee, door-keepers and what not, all put together; and we devoutly hope our public spirited and pains-taking managers will resolve never again to pay any lecturer more than $50 for an evening's service,—and indeed, half that amount, or even less, would seem liberal compensation, unless a lecture were written especially for the occasion.

We hope the managers can somehow find it within the possibilities, to employ the Band; but their office is rather a thankless one, any way, and those who have tried it, find that it is easier to criticise or complain of arrangements made, than to make those which shall suit themselves or the public better.—Ed. Chron.]

POLICE COURT.—Conviviality has been urged so often as the greatest palliation for an intemperate use of ardent spirits, that we have felt loth to bring singly before the notice of the public such unfortunates as may have overestimated their capacity and thus become a prey to the myrmydons of the law. But having obtained a pleasant couple, we now hold them up for public admiration.

On Saturday, the 2d inst., Wm. Jones, for drunkenness, was sentenced to the House of Correction for twenty days, and to pay $3.86 costs.

On Monday, Joanna Norton, an old offender, for drunkenness, was sent to the Hotel de Norton for thirty days, and sentenced to pay costs, $3.86.

THE GOVERNOR'S HORSE GUARDS.—A business meeting of the Governor's Horse Guards of New Hampshire was held in Concord, Thursday evening of last week, Col. Henry O. Kent presiding. The condition and prospects of the corps were discussed, and a special committee, consisting of Major V. C. Gilman, Capt. C. C. Webster, Surgeon C. P. Gage, Paymaster Frank W. Miller and Lieut. S. S. Chick, were appointed to ascertain whether the Guards are inclined to merge themselves in the enlisted militia of New Hampshire. The committee will report at an adjourned meeting of the corps to be held in Concord on the 20th of December.

With a uniform and accoutrements furnished by the State, and pay per day for "training," it would seem that an increased interest might be awakened in this popular corps, even in this vicinity, where all independent military spirit seems to have died out, while new militia companies are organizing everywhere else in the State. A meeting will shortly be called, of the old members and others interested, to consider the matter—in this city.

☞ We understand that all the losses of the occupants of Congress Block, caused by the fire which occurred on Thursday morning last, insured in the Home Insurance Co., amounting to over $6,500, were satisfactorily adjusted and paid by John S. Harvey, agent, on Saturday last, only two days after the fire. Who would not insure with such an Agent and such a Company.

☞ Mrs. Whipple's literary and musical entertainment, at the Temple Monday evening, was not favored with pleasant weather nor a very large audience; but the performances were throughout of a high order. The readings or recitations of the lady herself were surprisingly perfect to the text, as usual with her, and were all finely given—her great improvement in style since first appearing in public a year or two ago, evincing much careful study and natural abilities of a high order. Mr. Barnabee brought down the house, as he is wont, and both were encored to a repearance.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— At St. Paul's Church, Concord, Sunday forenoon, Dec. 3, ex-President Franklin Pierce was baptized by the Rector, Rev. Mr. Eames. Judge Harvey and Jacob Carter, Esq., were sponsors. Mr. Pierce, having been very sick, and still feeble, went out on this occasion for the first time for weeks, riding to church in a carriage.

—— The News Letter records the marriage, in Exeter, on Wednesday of last week, by Rev. Mr. Lanphear, of Hartford, Conn., of Lieutenant Colonel Freeman Conner, late of the 44th New York Regiment, to Miss Lizzie M. Julian, both of Exeter. The wedding and reception was one of largest ever known in E., 500 invitations being given out to friends and relatives.

—— Ex-Sheriff Brown, in the last Exeter News Letter, gives the following explanation, dated Boston Custom House, Nov. 28:

I find in your paper of Nov. 20, a statement that I was robbed, &c. Now this is an entire mistake. A man by the name of J. S. Brown was attacked and robbed in the manner described. Myself was not the man, therefore you will give this as public a notice as the other.

You say also, J. S. Brown, "late of the Custom House." I am still in the Custom House. Truly Yours, J. S. BROWN.

—— The dye house of Mr. J. Mullin, in Nashua, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning.

☞ Mr. Wendell offers a variety of goods at auction to-day. See his advertisement.

TAMPERING WITH THE TEETH is madness. Avoid the corrosive dentrifices, submit to no scraping, use nothing but Sozodont.—Orient herbs are its ingredients. It preserves the enamel. It removes all impurities. It strengthens the gums. It deodorizes a tainted breath. It is harmless as water, and more valuable than its weight in gold. d4eod1w

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other institutions of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly coming. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—daw6m

The Chronicle.

— The yield of the gold fields of Cariboo, British Columbia, for 4 1-2 months, ending Oct. 7, was $1,900,000.

— The Portland Advertiser says there are more apples stored in that city than at any previous time within two years, yet prices are extravagantly high.

— A wag in Appleton, Wis., supplied a farmer with four quarts of Hungarian grass seed last spring, from which the farmer this summer raised about 17,000,000 comely mullen stalks.

— The following suggestive paragraph appears in the editorial columns of a Georgia newspaper: "Unconstitional—Shooting an editor on horseback in the dark from behind fences."

— The Virginians who have been so restive under military rule are now begging that the volunteers now in that State, who are ordered to be mustered out, be retained in service until after the Christmas holidays, to keep the negroes quiet. If they are mustered out now there will be only six thousand Union troops in Virginia, four thousand of them at Richmond.

—DEALERS IN—
S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.

This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.

ITS ADVANTAGES.

FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—The Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.

SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction, and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.

THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.

FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is the way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.

FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.

SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

☞ Manufactured by S. VANCE & CO., No. 21 Liberty Street, Newburyport, and for sale in Portsmouth by the Sole Agents for N. H.,
ISRAEL MARDEN & CO.,
39 Congress Street.

☞ We are permitted to refer to Mr. MONROE HOLMES and to Mr. FRANK W. MILLER of the Daily Chronicle, who have these new Pumps in use on their premises,—for testimony their excellence.

Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Humors, General Debility, Liver Complaints, and Throat and Lung Complaints tending to Consumption.

This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, never fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. Those who have not already made one of this never failing Remedy, I have only to refer to the written testimonials of hundreds of our most distinguished citizens: Clergymen, Doctors, Congressmen, Lawyers, Singers and Public Speakers, and last but not least, many hundreds of Private Citizens, both Male and Female, who have been restored to Health, when all expectation of being cured was a "forlorn hope." My limited space will only admit of the following extracts of Unsolicited Testimonials:

REV. J. C. ISGALLS, of Melrose, Mass., says:—"LAROOKAH'S I. V. P. SYRUP, for Pulmonary Diseases, stands unrivalled by any medicine yet discovered. It has completely cured me of Bronchitis of six years standing."

DR. PORTER, of Northfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine for Colds, Coughs, &c., he knows of in the market."

HON. W. W. GOODE, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints, and have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."

W. R. BOWEN, Merchant, Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say, Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known, for inductive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

FARRANT & CO

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the great value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabalis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your SELTZER APERIENT. She has been improving at one second to now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this publication, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

THANKSGIVING.—A Philadelphia contemporary declares that the credit for originating Thanksgiving in November did not belong to the Pilgrim Fathers, to whom we generally ascribe it, and that it is of English and not American origin. Thanksgiving, it says, dates back to the discovery and defeat of what has ever since been called the "Gunpowder Plot," during the reign of King James I. A day of general thanksgiving was at that time appointed, as appears by the following, copied from a curious old work: "And James was glad that he was alive; therefore he appointed the fifth day of the month of November as a day of thanksgiving forever."

VERY APPROPRIATE.—At a Gunther (Democratic) ratification meeting in New York on Saturday evening, an allusion to the name of the rebel Gen. Lee drew out vociferous applause. A few attempts at hissing were squelched.

— Official intelligence from the Alabama Legislature states that they have ratified, by an overwhelming vote the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery.

— In the North Carolina Legislature, on Monday, W. A. Graham was elected U. S. Senator for the long term, receiving 138 out of 154 votes. Mr. G. was in the Confederate Senate, and has not been pardoned. None are so blind as they who will not see.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY.
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office can inventors get the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made one hundred rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1865.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE is likely to be acceptable to men of moderate views, and thus to the great mass of the people. Perley says of it:

The Message was listened to, when read in the Senate and in the House, with marked attention, and there was some applause from the occupants of the House gallleries at the conclusion of the paragraph relating to Great Britain. There are of course many varied comments on it, but it is apparently far more acceptable to the most radical Northern men than it is to the most conservative Southern men.

NAVY REPORT.—There are actually in commission at home and abroad but 117 vessels of all descriptions, and this number will probably be further reduced as soon as domestic troubles are overcome.

Three hundred and twenty-two officers proved traitors to their Government when the war began. Their places have been filled efficiently with volunteer officers from the merchant service, and it is recommended that appointments from their number be added to the navy.

Since the 4th of March, 1861, 418 vessels have been purchased at a cost of $18,366,618 83. Of these, 340 have been sold for $5,621,800 27.

The enlargement of the Boston and New York navy yards is urged, and the completion of the yard at Mare Island, on the Pacific; also the rebuilding of the yards at Norfolk and Pensacola. League Island is recommended as a site for the building of a yard for iron-clads. As to the healthiness of iron-clads, statistics show they are equal to, if not superior to ordinary vessels.

The number of midshipmen at the Naval Academy is 418. Of those who present themselves for examination, one-fifth fail to pass physical or mental examination. After admission, nearly 33 per cent. fail to pass the first year, and finally only about 25 per cent. of those who enter the Academy, succeed.

The Secretary recommends the appointment of one-half the midshipmen from enlisted apprentices, and the remainder from Congressional Districts. He also recommends that any legible sight for a Naval Academy, embracing an area of not less than 1000 acres, be selected; that the laws of December 21, 1861, and July 16, 1862, to regulate the pay of workmen in the public service, be repealed. He recommends that two separate asylums for soldiers and sailors be built.

The number of vessels captured and sent to courts for adjudication from May 1, 1861, to the close of the rebellion, is 1151; whole number captured and destroyed, 1504.

The gross proceeds of the property captured since the blockade, prior to 1st Nov. last, is $21,829,542 96; expenses, $1,616,223 96. The estimate for the Department for the year ending June 30th, 1867, is $23,982,457 50. He states that the expenses of the Navy Department since the commencement of the war has been but 3 100 per cent of the expenditures of the government. During the same time the Marine Corps is reported in a condition creditable to officers and men.

TREASURY REPORT.—The Secretary of the Treasury believes that a decided movetoward the contraction of the currency, is not only a public necessity, but will speedily dissipate the apprehension that the effect of such a policy will be to make money scarce and diminish the prosperity of the country. The Secretary earnestly urges the reduction of the currency. The paper circulation of the United States on the 31st of October last, was $734,218,038,20, and is being daily increased by notes issued to National Banks. On the 30th of last September, the deposits of the National Banks were $544,150,194. These loans, including investments in United States securities, amount to $913,045,629. The Secretary recommends that Congress declare that compound interest notes shall cease to be a legal tender from the day of their maturity, and that the Secretary be authorized at his discretion to sell United States bonds, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 6 per cent., and redeemable and payable at such period as may be conducive to the interest of the Government for purpose of retiring compound interest notes and United States notes. The statement of the public debt on the 31st of October, 1865, was $2,740,845,750. The receipts for the year ending June 30th, 1867, estimated, will be $396,000,000; the estimated expenditures is $284,371,918.50. He recommends the revision of the revenue system to accommodate the changed condition of the country. He regards the Reciprocity Treaty with Canada, which expires on the 17th of March next, as embarrasing to the arrangement of revenue. The working of the Marine Hospital sytem is not regarded as satisfactory. He recommends that authority be given to the Department to sell such hospitals as are not needed.

OLD MOULTON HOMESTEAD IN HAMPTON.—John Moulton from England came to Hampton and settled in May 1639. This was the next year after the settlements were commenced in the place. He lived a few rods below where the present Town Hall stands, and just opposite the mouth of the road that comes down from the Academy. His decendant generations have continued to occupy the old homestead; Daniel Moulton of the 6th generation now living on the farm. Thus it has been in the Moulton family 226 years.—News Letter.

ARMY REPORT.—After giving his impression as received early in the war, and referring to the relative situation of the contending forces at the date of his appointment, Gen. Grant gives a succinct and clear exposition of all the military movements which resulted in finally crushing the rebellion, and closes with the statement that he knew no difference in the fighting qualities of the Eastern or Western armies. All have a proud record, and all sections can congratulate each other for having done their full share in restoring the supremacy of the laws.

RECONSTRUCTION.—In the United States Senate, Monday, Dec. 4, Mr. Sumner introduced the following important resolutions,

Resolved:—That in order to provide proper guarantees for security in the future, that peace and prosperity shall surely prevail and the plighted faith of the nation be preserved, it is the full duty of Congress to take care that no State declared in the rebellion shall be allowed to resume its relation to the Union until after the satisfactory performance of five several conditions, which conditions precedent must be submitted to the popular vote and be sanctioned by a majority of the people of each State respectively, as follows:

The complete re establishment of loyalty as shown by an honest recognition of the unity of the Republic and the duty of allegiance to it at all times without mental reservation or equivocation of any kind.

The complete suppression of all oligarchical pretension and the complete enfranchisement of all citizens, so there shall be no denial of rights on account of color or race, but justice shall be impartial and all be equal before the law.

The rejection of the rebel debt and at the same time an adoption of a just porportion of the National debt and National obligations to Union soldiers, with solemn pledges never to join in any measure direct or indirect for their repudiation, or in any way tending to impair the National credit.

The organization of an educational system for the equal benefit of either color or race.

The choice of citizens for office, whether State or National, of constant and undoubted loyalty, whose conduct and conversation shall give assurance of peace and reconciliation.

Resolved: That in order to provide these essential safeguards, without which the National security and National faith will be imperilled, States cannot be precipitated back to political power and independence, but they must wait until these conditions are in all respects fulfilled.

CORRECTION.—Gen. Howard telegraphs —to correct a report that he had said that he was not apprehensive of any great amount of suffering among the blacks at the South this winter—"I do expect much suffering among the freedmen and the whites this winter, especially in South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, unless their wants be met. However, nothing alarming has been reported yet."

REPORT OF THE BUREAU OF YARDS AND DOCKS.—Admiral Joseph Smith, the head of this important Bureau of the Navy Department, makes several important suggestions to Congress, among the rest the repeal of the law regulating the wages of the workmen in Navy Yards by outside rates, as it is often impossible to ascertain the rates paid by private establishments. He also recommends that commandants and store keepers, first clerks and clerks of the yard have their pay increased from $1200 to $400 per annum. The following remarks on this yard will be read with interest by many interested in the establishment:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

The improvements which have been completed at this yardduring the fiscal year ending June 30, are: fitting and furnishing machine shop and smithery, capstan for shears, ordnance machinery and shop, boat-house and carpenter's shop, iron store and barracks, &c. on Seavey's Island. The amount expended upon these objects during the fiscal year is, for materials $10,431 77, and for labor $16,522 50, making an aggregate of $26,954 27. These works have been in successful use during a portion of the year, and have added much to the efficiency of the yard. The improvements which have been in progress, but are not yet completed, are: plumbers', coppersmiths' and tin shops, quay well, moving pier, extension of shiphouse 8, machinery and tools, repairs of floating dry dock, shop for iron-clading, condenser, extension of ship house R, launching ships, widening road, timber shed No. 28, and for repairs of all kinds. On these several objects there has been expended during the year, for materials, $97,018 87, and for labor, $15,834 07, making an aggregate of $202,852 94. The work upon these objects has been prosecuted with vigor; some of them are nearly completed, and others well advanced toward completion.

There has been expended during the year, for objects coming under the head of contingent, the sum $13,845 02.

Plans and estimates are submitted for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1867, for the following objects, viz: iron foundry, shop for iron cladding, condensers, road and timber slips, raising timber sheds Nos. 28 & 29 one story, enlarging office building, officers' quarters, quay wall, fitting and furnishing plumbers', coppersmiths' and tin shops, repairs of all kinds, and for the purchase of Seavey's Island, amounting in the aggregate to $505,988.

Iron foundry, shop for iron cladding, condensers, and road and timber slips. During the past year the exigencies of the service have been such as to render the construction of the above objects absolutely indispensible, and to meet the pressing demands upon the yard it became necessary to use funds which had been allotted to other purposes. The works have been completed and have proved of immense service, and an appropriation is asked to replace the funds to the credit of the objects from which they were taken.

Raising timber sheds Nos. 28 and 29. At this yard there is a great want of additional store room, and as there is no available site on the yard for the erection of a new store-house, it is proposed to supply the deficiency by raising two of the light timber sheds another story; this improvement will be an important and valuable addition to the yard, furnishing room for the storage and safe-keeping of a large quantity of stores, and the appropriation is strongly recommended.

Enlarging the office building. The present office building is not of sufficient capacity to accommodate all the officers of the yard, and it is desirable that the offices should be concentrated. The most economical mode of procuring the necessary office room is to raise the wings of the building one story, and for that purpose an estimate is submitted.

Officers' quarters. There are several officers attached to this yard, for whom no houses have yet been provided, and the department deems it necessary that all the officers attached to the station should reside within the limits of the yard, so that their services can be had at all times. An estimate is submitted for supplying dwellings for such officers as are without quarters.

Quay Wall. The extension of the quay wall on the northerly side of the yard, is of utmost importance, to furnish wharf and landing space for materials, and is much needed at this yard.

Fitting and furnishing plumbers', coppersmiths' and tin shop. This important building is now in progress, and before it can be occupied it will be necessary to provide the requisite forges, benches and fixtures for the accomodation of the workmen. An appropriation for this object is highly necessary.

Machinery and tools.—The quantity of machinery and tools at this yard is quite inadequate for the execution of the large amount of work required to be done upon the iron-clads, and an estimate is submitted for the purchase of such as are deemed of the first importance. This item is an important one and cannot be urged too strongly.

Completing plumber', coppersmiths' and tin shop.—This building is far advanced toward completion, but owing to the great increase in the cost of labor and materials since the original estimate was made, it is found that the funds allotted are not sufficient for its entire completion, and a small additional appropriation is therefore asked.

Repairs of all kinds.—The amount estimated under this head will be required for necessary repairs of the various buildings, docks, wharves, boats, roads, walks, fences, &c., and is such as a proper regard to economy would dictate.

Purchase of Seavey's Island.—The area of this yard is entirely too limited to afford sites for the necessary buildings, and working ground for the workmen engaged in the construction of vessels; an estimate is therefore submitted for the purchase of Seavey's Island, for the reasons herein before stated.

STEAMER WEYBOSSET.—The loss by fire on board this vessel on Tuesday morning, is estimated to be heavy. The value of the cotton on board was $40,000, and of the whole cargo $250,000.

POLITICAL.—The following is the official vote in South Carolina for Governor: Orr, 9776; Hampton, 9109. For Lieutenant Governor, W. D. Porter received 15,072 votes. Counting or excluding the illegal vote, William Byers is elected in the 1st Congressional district, and J. M. Johnson in the 3d district. In the 2d district, however, the strict legal vote elects G. H. Kyle; the vote that might have been legal but for lack of certification, elects Lorenzo Gibson; and the total vote (all counted) elects John H. Askew. After such a showing, Congress may not be in a hurry to admit either of the three gentlemen. Only Kyle and Johnson have any sort of record for loyalty, and at least 4000 of the 5300 votes polled were cast for open enemies of the Government.

THE SITUATION IN KENTUCKY.—The Chicago Tribune says the classes who were lately in rebellion in Kentucky, having been beaten in the field, are carrying the war into the courts. As they themselves furnish both the judges and juries in those sections of Kentucky in which the war is progressing, they are tolerably sure of the victory, so long as they are allowed to "fight it out on that line." Not only has Gen. Palmer been indicted for sustaining the acts of Congress freeing the slaves in that State, but whenever an officer or private of the Union army can be shown to have fought against rebels, or impressed their property, he is indicted for murder or robbery.

[This item comes along in season to have effect on Congress, which should promptly put its foot on such proceedings.]

Lyon's Periodical Drops!

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES.

These Drops are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Nostrums. Being liquid, their action is direct and positive, rendering them a reliable, speedy and certain specific for the cure of all obstructions and suppressions of nature. Their popularity is indicated by the fact that over 100,000 bottles are annually sold and consumed by the ladies of the United States, every one of whom speak in the strongest terms of praise of their great merits. They are rapidly taking the place of every other female Remedy, and are considered by all who know aught of them, as the surest, safest and most infallible preparation in the world. For the cure of all female complaints, the removal of all obstructions of nature, and the promotion of health, regularity and strength. Explicit directions stating when they may be used, and explaining when and why they should not, nor could not be used without producing effects contrary to nature's chosen laws, will be found carefully folded around each bottle, with the written signature of JOHN L. LYON, without which none are genuine. Price $1.50.

Prepared by Dr. JOHN L. LYON, 195 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn, who can be consulted either personally, or by mail, (enclosing stamp,) concerning all private diseases and female weaknesses. Price $1.50 per bottle.

Sold by Druggists everywhere.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face than the blotches of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION. Sold by all Druggists in Portsmouth and elsewhere. lysndsa—oct19

KNOWLEDGE OF TENS AVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

IMPURITIES.

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. What we have to do to recover our health is to take out from the BOWELS AND THE CIRCULATION the excess of impurities. This done, health follows of necessity.

Local.

☞ The Portsmouth Steam Factory,—one of the most substantial and best appointed Mills in the country,—started up last Monday, under the auspices of the new owners. Col. Wm. Stearns, the former Agent, is restored to his place as Superintendent; in place of Col. Samuel Webber, the late incumbent. The Mill is only partially in operation—the machinery of but two rooms we believe having been put at work, in finishing the large stock of cotton yarns on hand. The result of the experiment of manufacturing spool cotton has not been successful enough, we imagine, to induce its repetition or continuance; and it is reported that the nice and costly machinery introduced for that purpose a year or two ago, will probably be removed next season. It sounds a little more lively to hear the factory bell in the morning, (in the morning, mind you, at 4 o'clock,) and we wish the new proprietors the fullest success, for their interests are closely allied with those of our city.

Communication.

CITY HALL—Messrs. Editors:—at a late meeting of the City Government, a vote passed the Common Council, and was concurred in by the Aldermen, to appoint a joint committee to inquire into the expediency of the city buying the land on which stood Congress block, and on it erecting a city Hall, with stores under it, &c. If the City Government has power to do such an act, it is unknown to the writer; and if they have not, it would seem best that they should wait till they have the power.

Although I would be glad to see a good Hall, properly constructed, for the accommodation of the citizens, I should not approve of the City Government going beyond its expressed limits, to do an act of such importance. I would suggest that the committee first inquire if the City Government has the power to do it, and then if they have not to recommend it to be done until a vote of the citizens is taken, and a two-thirds vote obtained in its favor; and they, before the vote, consider that the city is now enormously in debt, and if the City should do it, that it would be likely to cost one third more than if it should be done by private individuals. GENEROUS, VERY!—A few days since we were handed a letter, or circular, from "Fletcher Brothers," lottery dealers of New York, informing us that they were anxious to remove a prejudice against lotteries which they knew existed in this part of the country, and to that end they would send us a package of tickets certain to draw at least five thousand dollars, upon receipt of only ten dollars from us! And in case the tickets don't draw, they agree to give us another package for nothing. Je-ru-sa-lem! think of it. Five thousand dollars for only ten. We always knew we were one of that peculiarly fortunate class of persons vulgarly called "lucky cusses."

"Now is the winter of our discontent
Made glorious summer by the son of (New) York;
And all the clouds which lowered upon our house
In the deep bosom of the ocean buried."

Of course we couldn't think of taking advantage of this too generous offer in all its length and breadth and fulness. We know that such unheard of generosity would be ruinous to the concern if carried out in good faith, (as of course it would be,) with all the recipients of these letters, hundreds having come through the Post Office the same day. For our part, we couldn't think of taking the five thousand dollars for only ten—we hadn't the cheek to do it.

We shall write to our generous friends, Fletcher Bros., that we will allow them fifty dollars instead of ten, and that they shall first deduct it from our prize and send us the balance. This arrangement, we think, will be mutually advantageous. Fletcher Bros. will make forty dollars by the operation, and we shall be saved the trouble of remitting the ten they so moderately asked for.

The only reward Fletcher Bros. ask, is that we shall let people know about it when we draw the money. Oh, we'll do that, you bet! We shall publish it in the largest style of our New Capital letters, which will be very appropriate,—as although five thousand is not the "capital prize," it will be a "capital" thing for us. Talk about luck! We intend to buy a steam press, and invest the rest in oil shares. We had thought of ordering things immediately, but on reflection we have concluded to wait a few days until the money comes to hand, as we can always buy cheaper for cash.

☞ The Board of Engineers, deeming the westerly wall of Congress Block unsafe as it now stands, have warned the parties intrusted to take down the same to within eight feet of Bell Tavern, on or before the 8th inst., otherwise the Board will cause the same to be done at the expense of the estate.

☞ In accordance with usual custom, we shall keep Thanksgiving to-day, and no paper will be issued from this office on Friday.

SHEEP RAISING IN TEXAS.—Mr. H. J. Chamberlain, who has had five years' experience in sheep raising in Texas under the most unfavorable circumstances, writes to the Boston Journal from Ascutneyville, Vt., that the statement copied into the Journal that everybody "in Texas who has sheep wishes to get rid of them, and that every wool grower in the country, without an exception, was ruined by the immense mortality of their sheep in the last few years," is wholly incorrect. He is a citizen of Texas, and has visited various sections of the State, and he does not know "an individual instance where an intelligent, energetic business man, who has been permitted to attend to his flocks of sheep, has failed of success."

[Geo. Wilkins Kendall informed the writer a few years since, that the profit upon his stock of sheep for three years previous had been fully 66 per cent. per year.]

☞ A gentleman from Western Texas states that slavery still exists in that part of the State in nearly all the severity of former times. The people refuse to pay the negroes any wages and continue to work them under the old system. No Federal armies have invaded that part of the country; no mails have conveyed the news of the day there, and the people are living in blissful ignorance of what is going on in the outer world. During the month of September the rumor prevailed there that the armies of Grant and Lee had been once more called into the field, and these doughty warriors were fighting their old battles over again.

— Doctor Gwin, who was arrested some time since on his return from Mexico to the United States, is confined in Fort Jackson, below New Orleans.

— Diptheria is raging in Kennebunkport, and other places in Saco county, Me., and many deaths have occurred from the same.

HASHEESH! HASHEESH!

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.

THE HASHEESH CANDY

Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENTO, under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supersede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation of

and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.

The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a 'multitude of afflictions.'" In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS.

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundry, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawóm

The Chronicle.

— At South New Market, some thieves entered the house of Mr. Jacob Hersey one night last week, and took therefrom a lady's dress, some butter, and several other articles.

— The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (South) is to Convene at Macon, Georgia, on the 14th inst. It will have to consider, among other more important matters, the question of changing its corporate name, which is now, "The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the Confederate States of America."

— General Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, has issued a circular addressed to those of the Southern people whose property has been restored to them, in which he states that numerous cases have been reported of the summary expulsion of freedmen and refugees from their tenements on the plantations thus restored, and announces that hereafter all officers and agents of the Bureau will prevent the recurrence of such ejectments.

— A writer in Paris complains that Americans are buying many of the finest paintings in that city, and sending them out of the country. If the pictures suit them they pay but little regard to the price, and the high sums offered tempt many Frenchmen to part with cherished treasures.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either, and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price 82 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION. Sold by all Druggists in Portsmouth and elsewhere. lyandao—oct19

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been engaged to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabtalis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HERAUDEUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

DEATH OF VAN AMBURG.—The N. Y. Post contains an account of the death of Van Amburg, the great lion-tamer and successful manager of menageries. He died suddenly Wednesday morning at a Philadelphia hotel. His death was attributed to congestion of the spleen. Mr. Van Amburg was, for many years, a great traveller, and one of the most energetic men engaged in the hazardous profession of taming wild beasts. During his eventful life he made many narrow escapes in coming in contact for the first time with wild animals. On one occasion a tiger made a most savage attack upon him, tearing him so badly that a portion of his bowels protruded. He tamed the animal finally and made him a great pet. The probability is that Mr. Van Amburg received more scars than any other individual, while pursuing the duties of the profession, to show to the world the triumph of man over the most ferocious beasts of the forest or the jungle.

Some years ago, while performing in Paris, a large number of the nobility were in attendance. Eminent literary gentleman were present, and among them Eugene Sue, the author of "The Wandering Jew." This distinguished writer had a long and interesting interview with the great lion-tamer on the method of subduing animals. The information thus received was made the subject of an interesting sketch in "The Wandering Jew," although at the time the reader could not have possibly surmised the hero of the story. Mr. Van Amburg appeared on the street a few days since, apparently as well as ever he was. He did not complain of sickness until within a short time of his death.

— Hercules H. Chadbourn, Jr., only child of Mr. H. H. Chadbourn of Kennebunkport, on the 28th of November, fell from the for-top-mast cross-trees of ship Messenger in New York, and lived but a few minutes afterwards. He was ten years old.

— The use of a comma, Orpheus C. Kerr illustrates thus ingeniously. By misplacing a comma, he completely changes the sense of the Scriptural passage, "The wicked flee when no man pursueth, but the righteous is bold as a lion;" making it read, "The wicked flea, when no man pursueth but the righteous, is bold as a lion." Can anything be more ridiculous!

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are tried from the reports of

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS

Invariably Cure the Following Diseases:

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.

This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the Great Conflict. It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of generals, battle scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have a quota clearing $250 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant; for proof of the above send for circulars and see what we say. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1865.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—A Coppery exchange says the readers have probably "found it readable, understandable, and in no very essential point objectionable."—And then it adds:

It would have been more to the liking of many, we doubt not, if it had in explicit terms recognized the restoration of the rebel States to the Union, at least with all the distinctness that it recognizes the restoration of peace. It leaves, however, the rebel States substantially at the pleasure of Congress, so far as their participation in the Legislative privileges of government are concerned, uninfluenced in their fate, by a full executive recognition. We confess to the wish, that he had been bolder in this respect.

On the other hand, all true republicans and democrats, (not mere partisans,) rejoice that he does not play the despot and say "I am the State." Our exchange continues:

Of course, he could not—he had no right to dictate to Congress, or either branch, legislative membership for any State. But, an emphatic Executive recognition of the States as restored, would have gone far to discourage sectional and party strife, and turned legislative action into its more useful channel of organizing measures, rather than discussing men and personal antipathies.

Truly an emphatic Executive recognition and endorsement of the old rebel aristocracy at the South, and of their tools and servants at the North, would have created a copperhead triumph over liberty. But it has not come. It never will come. We copy further extracts:

As a whole, the expose of national affairs which the Message furnishes, must add to the confidence of our nation in our physical and financial abilities to maintain self-government. England may feel somewhat nervous over the President's presentation of her doings and denials towards us. But, he virtually says—we won't quarrel about these matters now—but will bide our time—which is al ways prudent and a safe maxim to the injured party.

The President nowhere seeks to magnify his office. The public agitation will come from the two Houses of Congress. Whether the President will stay their wild proclivities with power, regardless of constitutional limitations, remains to be seen. It will take sometime to decide this apprehension, if any be entertained.

If any disloyal man, or any coward, expects wildness from our President or our Congress, or improper agitation from either, we trust he is to disappointed. Firmness, moderation, and justice, are expected at their hands, by a loyal confiding people.

CAUTION TO DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.—We print the following, from the fact that the country is at present flooded with circulars of bogus claim agents located at Washington, who promise an additional bounty to all men enlisted in 1861 and 1862. The way they swindle is to write to men for their discharges for the purpose of getting them their bounties. Such parties as are inveigled into transmitting them, in due time receive a circular stating that their claim is allowed, and the soldier may have his bounty by remitting the stipulated fee—$25; this will be the last of the game.

Complimentary.—The following complimentary order, emanating from such eminent authority, must be a source of gratification to the parties to whom it is addressed; and it is undoubtedly an expression of the feeling of the people who have been saved the expense of the payment of fraudulent claims:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23, 1865.

SIR: This Department desires to express its acknowledgments to you for your agency in the prevention of a great fraud upon the Treasury. Not for your prompt exposure to the Second Comptroller, of the proposals made you by Babe and his associates, a vast sum might have been lost to the Government, or to individuals having claims on the Government, and the obligations due in the case to your intelligence and integrity are recognized and appreciated. I am, very respectfully, Your obed't serv't,

H. McCULLOCH, Secretary.

JACOB LOWENTHAL, Esq., Washington, D. C.

The above is the agent of Messrs. Bufford & Rider of this city, Govt. Claim Agents, and may be considered as an endorsement of their business standing, altho' none is needed in our midst, where these gentlemen are known.

A PUTNAM ADVENTURE.—On Friday, 1st inst, Mr. Noarah P. Hill, a member of Co. K, 122d New York infantry, while hunting in Granville, N. Y., had his attention directed to a certain cave by his dog. Supposing a fox might be within, he placed a lantern upon the end of his gun, and by stooping he entered the cave and proceeded about 70 feet, when he saw the eyes of a "warmint," and perceived at once it was no fox. The animal was crouched upon a kind of shelf, and Mr. Hill not daring, or wishing to back out, pointed his gun at the creature, when the latter immediately caught the muzzle in his mouth. Mr. Hill succeeded in wresting the piece away, pointed it again, and again the creature caught it, when he discharged the gun, heavily loaded with buck shot, into the creature's mouth and through the back of his neck. The animal bounded forward, but, with a hatchet, and the aid of his dog, Mr. Hill dispatched him at once without receiving any injury. It was a panther, measuring five feet and eight inches in length, and weighing one hundred and seventeen pounds. It was exhibited at Granville Corners on Saturday, and created a good deal of excitement. The gun-barrel showed very distinctly the marks of sharp teeth.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Clamor for Paper Money, in 1785.

Under this head we copy from Belknap another page of the History of the troubles under our old Confederation, which made it needful to establish a Constitution of Government.

Similar difficulties, at the same time, existed in the neighboring state of Massachusetts; to remedy which, among other palliatives, a law was passed called a tender-act, "by which it was provided that executions issued for private demands, might be satisfied by cattle and other enumerated articles, at an appraisement of impartial men under oath." For such a law, the discontented party in New Hampshire petitioned; and to gratify them, the legislature enacted, that "when any debtor shall tender to his creditor, in satisfaction of an execution for debt, either real or personal estate sufficient, the body of the debtor shall be exempt from imprisonment, and the debt shall carry an interest of six per cent.; the creditor being at liberty either to receive the estate, so tendered, at a value estimated by three appraisers, or to keep alive the demand by taking out an alias within one year after the return of any former execution, and levying it on any estate of the debtor which he can find." At the same time, an act was made, enlarging the power of justices of the peace, to try and determine actions of debt and trespass to the value of ten pounds. These laws were complained of as unconstitutional; the former as being retrospective, and changing the nature of contracts; the latter as depriving the creditor, in certain cases, of a right to trial by jury. But so strong was the clamor for redress of grievances; and so influential was the example of the neighboring State, that some of the best men in the legislature found it necessary to comply; whilst another part were secretly in favor of worse measures.

The tender-act, at first, was made for two years only; before the expiration of which it was revived, with some alterations, and continued for three years longer. The effect of this law, in cases where an attempt was made to execute it, was, that the most valuable kinds of property were either concealed or made over to a third person; and when the sheriff came with an execution, it was levied on such articles as were of little use to the creditor. But the most general effect of the law was to prevent any demand on the part of the creditor, and to encourage the debtor in neglecting payment.

In 1786, the scarcity of money was still a grievance which the laws had not remedied, but rather had a tendency to increase. To encourage its importation into the country, the legislature exempted from all port duties, except light-money, every vessel which should bring gold and silver only; and from one half of the duties, if a sum of money equal to one half the cargo should be imported. But it was to no purpose to import money, unless encouragement was given for its circulation, which could not be expected whilst the tender-act was in force; for every man who owned money thought it more secure in his own hands, than in the hands of others.

The clamor for paper currency increased, and, like a raging fever, approached toward a crisis. In every town, their was a party in favor of it, and the public papers were continually filled with declamations on the subject. It was said that an emission of bills of credit would give a spring to commerce and encourage agriculture; and the poor would be able to pay their debts and taxes; that all the arguments against issuing paper were framed by speculators, and were intended to serve the wealthy part of the community, who had monopolized the public securities, that they might raise their value and get all the good bargains into their own hands; the other States in the Union had issued paper bills, and were rejoicing in the happy effects of their currency, without any depreciation; that the people had a right to call upon their representatives to stamp a value on paper, or leather, or any other substance capable of receiving an impression; and that to prevent its depreciation, a law should be enacted to punish with banishment and outlawry, every person who should attempt by any means to lessen its value.*

The same party who were so zealous in favor of paper currency, and against laws which obliged them to pay their debts, proceeded to inveigh against courts and lawyers. The inferior courts were represented as sinecures for judges and clerks; the defaulting, appealing, demurring, abatements, fees and bills of cost, without any decision, were complained of as burdens, and an abolition of these courts became a part of the popular cry. But the party did not content themselves with writing in the public papers. An attempt was made to call a convention, at Concord, whilst the assembly were sitting there, who should petition the legislature in favor of the plan; and it was thought, that the presence of such a body of men, convened at the same time and place, would have great weight. The attempt was defeated in a manner singular and humorous.

*A specimen of the language used on this occasion is as follows:—"Seven States are now blessed with harmony, plenty and happiness. Worthy, industrious men can go to market with a penny in their pockets; their benevolent wives and farmers, meet them half way with cheerfulness, and are as ready to receive as they to offer; now one greets the other with social benedictions, trade flourishes, agriculture increases, mutual confidence is restored, and harmony reigns triumphant. Elysian fields these! when contrasted with the bondage of the inhabitants of New-Hampshire; for in the midst of life, they are in death; deaths of the worst kind, penury and want of the common blessings of providence. How long, freemen of New Hampshire, can ye bear the yoke of oppression?"—New Hampshire Gazette, July 20, 1786.

GEN. HENRY W. BENHAM.—By the death of Col. Bowman, U. S. Engineers, Gen. Benham becomes President of the Board of Engineers ordered to perfect the seacoast defences of New England. He has also charge of two forts in Boston harbor, and is now residing there. By the army lists we observe that he is promoted to be Major General of Vols., and Colonel and Brigadier General U. S. A., by brevets of the same date.

— A paper mill is to be built at the dam across the Kennebec in Augusta.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.

Mr. Editor:—The telegraph will have informed you that Congress is in full blast, and no bones broken; that Colfax and his subs have been re-elected by a Republican majority of nearly a hundred, and that the rebels are still sucking their thumbs on the wrong side of the door. The indomitable Thaddeus failed not to fire "at the proper time" his big gun; and seems to have committed, at the start, the whole party to his principles.

In the Senate, after the usual preliminaries, Mr. Sumner took the earliest opportunity to deliver himself of a batch of bills and resolutions—some ten or a dozen—all bearing upon his speciality. These were received without objection, laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The contest thus fairly opened in both Houses, simultaneously by the two great leaders of the radical wing of the Republican party, will doubtless occupy the chief attention of all parties through the session.

The forthcoming Message is looked for with eagerness and anxiety. After the very decisive action had to-day in the House, should the tone of the message be moderate and favorable for the South, we may expect stormy times ahead, and a split, eventually, in the party.

This is what the Democrats hope, expect and pray for. 'Tis doubtless their plan to separate the President and the Republican party, by skillful manœuvering, aided by the dissensions likely to occur between the moderates and the radicals, and to strike a bargain with him which shall bring them in again to the warm corners of Uncle Sam's chimney.

We trust the President has had enough of their company, and will, whatever else he may do, fight aby of those breakers, at any rate. P.

Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap. Tell your friends to try it, and they will never use any other. Most all the grocers have it to sell. 20

By orders from Washington they were arrested, and are lodged in jail awaiting further orders from headquarters. Howell was just getting on the outward bound train on the Grand Trunk, for Canada, when he was arrested.

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.

THE HASHEESH CANDY

Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO., under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supercede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation or cure of

and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.

The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all these popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a 'multitude of afflictions.'" In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

Sold by all Druggists. Imported only by the

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. It may hide and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGGIELL'S BILLIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIELL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. Lyon's Periodical Drops!

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES.

These Drops are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Lotions. Being liquid, their action is direct and positive, rendering them a reliable, speedy and certain specific for the cure of all obstructions and suppressions of nature. Their popularity is indicated by the fact that over 100,000 bottles are annually sold and consumed by the ladies of the United States, every one of whom speak in the strongest terms of praise of their great merits. They are rapidly taking the place of every other Female Remedy, and are considered by all who know aught of them, as the surest, safest and most infallible preparation in the world for the cure of all female complaints, the removal of all obstructions of nature, and the promotion of health, regularity and strength. Explicit directions stating when they may be used, and explaining why and why they should not, nor could not be used without producing effects contrary to nature's chosen laws, will be found carefully folded around each bottle, with the written signature of JOHN L. LYON, without which none are genuine. Price $1.50.

Prepared only by JOHN L. LYON, 195 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn., who can be consulted either personally, or by mail, (enclosing stamp,) concerning all private diseases and female weakness. Price $1.50 per bottle.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot), and Lentigo, or freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the skin, is a great boon, it is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists, price $2 per bottle. Call for

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

IMPURITIES.

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., inflict us. What we have to do to recover our health is to take out from the BOWELS AND THE CIRCULATION the excess of impurities. This done, health follows of necessity.

Local.

☞ Thanksgiving Day passed off very quietly and pleasantly, though the weather was not very inviting to out-door gatherings or amusements. One thing troubled some folks—there never was such a scarcity of poultry here, on such an occasion. Not a fowl of any kind was to be had, at the last, at any price. One man was determined to have a turkey, and paid 50 cents a pound for it; and one of the provision dealers told us that he thinks he could have sold half a ton on Thursday morning, if he could have got it.

☞ Winter seems to have really begun, and begun in good earnest, too. The light fall of snow and rain on Thursday, made passable sleighing for next morning—when the thermometer was down as low as 10 and 12 above zero. Light sleighs run pretty well in the city; but out of town it was grub and go, with rather more grub than go. And fewer runners were tempted out by the first snow, than we ever saw before under similar circumstances.

☞ We have been thinking that it was almost time for the new fashion of "chokers" to get along down this way; and the Journal of this week says, after warning our people to "Look out for Garroters," that "a gentleman from Kittery, having business in Portsmouth one evening this week, was followed by two men across the bridge, with the evident intention, from their actions, of waylaying him. By taking to the field, he eluded them. We learn that a man riding in a buggy was stopped on the bridge on the same evening; but another carriage approaching, the highwayman decamped."

☞ The Portsmouth Philharmonic Society have decided to give their first public Concert at the Temple on Christmas Night, Monday evening, Dec. 25th. A special Rehearsal is appointed for Monday evening next, Dec. 11th, at Mercantile Hall—roll-call at half-past seven.

☞ The situation of Police Court Reporter in this city is fast becoming a sinecure. From Monday until Friday evening, not a case was before that august tribunal. Four days with not even a "common drunk!" We should have a day of local thanksgiving over our morality as a city.

SUNDAY EVENING LECTURES. — The public will be glad to learn that Rev. Mr. Patterson will deliver the first of his Course of Sunday Evening Lectures, at the Universalist Church to-morrow (Sunday) evening, at 7 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

CROQUET.—Finding its way into the world without any acknowledged parentage, this game has won an enormous popularity, from the fact that it requires skill, both of hand and head, and that it is about the only out-door pastime which is equally suitable for ladies and gentlemen, and children as well as adults. In our city the past season quite a number of croquet grounds have served to give to this game a more enduring popularity than any mere writing would ensure, and the presence of unfavorable weather will cause the players many a regret at the interruption of their favorite game. To obviate this, Messrs. Whipple & Smith, of Salem, have prepared in an elegant manner the "Parlor Croquet," which only differs from the out-door game in placing a finger upon the ball when a croquet is made, instead of the foot. The size of the Croquet board is four and a half feet long, by two and a quarter wide. It can be laid on any table or piano without injury to the furniture, and when not in use, may be easily laid aside—occupying but little room. The board is covered with handsome cloth, the bridges are of brass wire, the sides, rims and corners of solid black walnut, finished in oil, with white metal mountings, and the game is played with nice colored balls and small mallets.

One of the sets may be seen at our office. It will make a most acceptable holiday gift.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School will commence Monday evening, Dec. 11, at 7 1-2 o'clock, in the old State Street School House (near the Methodist church.) Stationery for this school prepared and sold by J. H. Foster. 2t

☞ The Allegbanians are performing in England; and from Mr. D. G. Waldron, the Agent, we have Edinburgh papers of Nov. 21st.

☞ Workmen are erecting a stage for the purpose of taking down the western wall of Congress Block.

IN MEXICO, Pres. Juarez has issued a Decree, continuing his own administration, as the French invasion rendered an election impossible. He claims to be President till a successor is chosen.

— "Thou rainest in this bosom," as the chap said when a basin of water was thrown over him by the lady he was serenading.

EASTERN RAILROAD. — This popular thoroughfare during the last year has met with unprecedented success. Its passenger trains during the summer season have been crowded to repletion. No serious accident has occurred in 1865. The business of the road, during the last year, has increased thirteen per cent. over 1864, amounting to twelve hundred thousand dollars, and realizing a net income of twelve per cent. upon the cost of the road. The new bridge over the Merrimac, at Newburyport, has been begun, and will be pushed to an early completion. With its new and commodious depot on Causeway street, its efficient corps of managers, and its marked success in every department, it is entitled to take a front rank among first-class railways.—Trans.

TELL YOUR FRIENDS. — Tell your friends what Coe's Cough Balsam has done for you; if it has cured your child of a racking cough, a violent attack of croup, a sore thaoat, or avoided a threatening fever, which it certainly will do, tell your friends of it, that they may also use it. Old, young, rich and poor, all say it is the cheapest and best cough remedy in the world.

For dyspepsia, indigestion, pain in the stomach, souring of food, languor, flatulency, and general debility, be sure to use Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. d5eodaw1w

VINELAND
FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—daw6m

A PATRIOT.—William Conway, a native of Camden, Me., died at the Naval Hospital in New York recently, in his his sixty-third year. In 1861 he was a sailor in our navy, having served over forty years as an enlisted man. In April, 1861, he was stationed at the Warrenton (Pensacola) naval station, Florida, and was the man whom the traitor E. B. Renshaw of the old navy ordered to lower the United States flag on the secession of the State. Mr. Conway, in reply to his order, answered that he "Couldn't do it." The order was repeated more positively. "Lieutenant," answered the old sailor, "I have served under that flag for forty years, and I won't do it." The rebel lieutenant did not insist. Shortly after Mr. Conway was sent North and remained during the war. He received from the citizens of San Francisco a gold medal commendatory of his gallant action on the occasion referred to, and this he had on his person at the time of his death, together with letters from Secretary Welles and Gen. Halleck praising him for his devotion to the flag.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

— It is estimated that from 100 to 150 tons of California broom corn will be shipped east this season.

— Alexander S. Hopkins, the runaway grocer from Providence, has returned and given his creditors assurance that he will fully discharge all of his obligations.

— Dr. V. C. Madison, who died recently in railroad car near St. Louis, was a nephew of President Madison, and had been 30 years in the medical service of the United States. When the rebellion broke out, he became the second Confederate medical officer.

— The English Courts of Appeals have decided that if the husband and wife have known nothing of each other's existence for seven years, either of them may marry again without being guilty of bigamy, and that the burden of proot lies upon the prosecutor, as it is contrary to the spirit of the English law that a prisoner should be called upon to prove a negative.

— Rev. Henry Ballantine, one of the oldest and best missionaries of the American Board, died at sea on the 9th of Nov. He sailed from Boston on the 13th of May, 1835, for Western India; and he has since labored among the Mahrattas with great fidelity and success. He was returning to the United States in the hope of recovering from the effect of his severe and protracted toil at Amednuggur.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE.
These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!
Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,
For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!
It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies
Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS
Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.
They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders
And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS
Invariably Cure the Following Diseases:
Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,
Dyspepsia,
Diarrhœa,
Dropsy,
Debility,

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1865.

☞ Rev. Dr. Randall, Rector of the (Episcopal) Church of the Messiah, preached a Thanksgiving Sermon from Ps. 126: 3. "The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad." One of his principal points was, God has done great things for this nation:

1. By preparing for it a rich soil, a varied climate, and unmeasured mineral wealth.

2. In providing for the people a free government, with all its benefits.

3. He has done great things for us during the last year, in stretching forth his hand to pull down a fearful rebellion.

4. In restoring the Union and maintaining the supremacy of the government.

5. In granting us peace on the basis of submission to lawful authority.

6. In an extraordinary manner blotting out the cause of the war, which has ever been a curse to the land, and which the people could not get rid of, in consequence of constitutional provisions that recognized it.

Surely no one will presume to say that Dr. Randall preaches POLITICS; yet the Northern tools of Southern rebels have kept up a dismal howl against just such things as the above, for four years, in the sermons and prayers of many ministers whom they accused of preaching politics, and whose hearers they advised to quit their seats.

LOUISIANA.—New Orleans dispatches of Dec. 8 say general preparations are being made for planting, so that a good crop may be raised next year.

The parishes of St. Johns and Louisiana will yield 1200 hogsheads of sugar this year.

The price of land in the interior of this State is looking up.

At Jefferson, Texas, there are 12,000 bales of cotton on hand, and about 20,000 more to come in.

The Louisiana Legislature has passed the stay law over the Governor's veto. A bill was introduced into the Senate providing that in any case in any court where freedmen, free negroes or mulattoes are a party, no objection shall be allowed as to competency of witness on account of color; providing that no freedman or freedwoman shall be examined in any case whatever, except upon a witness stand and in open court.

Geo. W. Gale, who offered one million dollars reward for the assassination of President Lincoln, has given bonds at Montgomery to appear when called for.

THE JAMAICA INSURRECTION. — By steamer Alpha, at Halifax, from Bermuda, we have later accounts from the Jamaica rebellion. The work of hunting out the insurgents was progressing vigorously, and private letters state that over two thousand of the conspirators had been executed. Confidence was, remarks the writer, fully restored, and no apprehension was entertained of a renewed outbreak. We should think not.

THE JAMAICA REBELLION. — As the facts in regard to the trouble in Jamaica become better understood, the conduct of the British Governor and troops appears exceedingly cruel. An examination of the evidence, all given by the English authorities, shows that the disturbance was quelled on the first day; that it was a mere local riot; but that the troops for a number of days afterward scoured the country, in detachments so small that they must have been cut off if the people had been prepared for rebellion as was asserted; and that these small detachments of soldiers burned negro villages, shot the men, flogged the women, and to use the phrase of an official report, "enjoyed the sport greatly." A correspondent of the Jamaica Standard remarks that, as nothing could be proved against certain persons captured by the soldiers, thirty of them were lashed to a gun and flogged with a cat, receiving fifty blows each. There are dozens of stories like this, and worse—for these brave English gentlemen did not hesitate to flog women and girls as well as men.

Let all this pass for what it is worth. We shall probably find out, by and by, that the remnant of the old Jamaica Plantation Aristocracy in some way made the working people mad by oppression,—and when this madness broke out into violence,—then this same aristocracy not only avenged the blood shed in the riot, but also wreaked their vengeance on the whole race, for the crime of living free without being white.

OHIO LIQUOR LAW.—An interesting trial took place in Ravenna (O.) lately, under the Ohio liquor law. A returned soldier named Greer, while in a state of intoxication, was robbed of one hundred and two dollars by some unknown persons. His wife brought a suit for damages against the saloon keeper who sold him the liquor, and obtained a verdict in her favor of one hundred and forty dollars.

IPSWICH.—It is one hundred years since the late Joseph Dana, D. D., was settled over the South Church and parish in Ipswich. Rev. Dr. Fitz was settled as colleague with Dr. Dana, June 28, 1826; so that the two pastors have ministered one hundred years to the same church and people.—Villager.

GOLD, Saturday, 144 3-8. Sent to Europe $187,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— B. B. Head of Shelburne, 57 years of age, hung himself in his barn on the 2d inst.

—— A stable in Dover, belonging to C. W. Woodman, was burned on Sunday evening, 3d inst. Loss $1500 and no insurance.

WASHINGTNON ITEMS, Dec. 8.—Reports are now arriving at the Bureau of Refugees and Freedmen, &c., giving encouraging accounts of the manner in which the Bureau is carried on in the Southwestern States. Hospitals and camps are being provided for the sick freedmen, and a large number are already established. Homes have been furnished and work supplied to great numbers of the idle and suffering. The numbers of those supported by the Government is daily diminishing as the freedmen gradually fall into employment.

As the Provost Marshal of this Department was passing by the Treasury building he was struck by a man who seemed to be under the influence of liquor. The Provost Guard arrested the individual, who proved to be an ex-captain in the regular army. He was turned over to the civil authorities.

It is said that the President to-day, pardoned 118 Texans—all of the $20,000 class, and Gen. DeWitt of Tennessee.

Comptroller Clark, of the Currency Bureau, has decided that ladies cannot act as Directors of National Banks, as the law does not recognize them as citizens.

THE REBELLION IN HAYTI. — News from Cape Haytien confirms the accounts of its bombardment by the British. The rebels there have scattered, and most of the rebels chiefs been shot.

Six or seven persons who took refuge at the British Consul's during the bombardment, were seized by the rebels and shot. The rebel General Hurdrew, with 500 men, surrendered to the government, and Geffrard is now master of the situation. Most of the foreigners fled to the American war vessels at Cape Haytien during the bombardment.

The triumph of the government was commemorated by festivities at Port au Prince and Jacmel.

☞ S. R. Mallory, before the war a Senator from Florida, and during the rebellion Davis' Secretary of Navy, has written a letter from the prison in which he is confined, in which he urges upon the people of Florida to accept the destruction of slavery as a fact, and to regard the negro not only as a freeman, but as a permanent —indeed, its most permanent—resident of the State; his interests identified with hers; his life, liberty and property entitled to her protection; thus viewing him, we shall be better able to see what the dictates of self-interest, no less than those of justice and expediency demand. Mr. Mallory further say that the "asserted right of secession" was overthrown by the war, and must be surrendered. "Having been heard and defeated in every tribunal," he says, "let us regard the point as forever settled."

☞ A loud explosion in the Commercial Bank building, in Philadelphia, Monday afternoon, created much consternation in the neighborhood until the cause was ascertained, when it appeared a director of the bank had placed a large package containing the sum of four hundred thousand dollars in bank notes into the stove, where a roaring fire was raging, and closed the door—the notes were of the old issue, and cancelled—and in a few moments the crash came, owing, it is supposed, to an over inflation of worthless currency. The top of the stove on which there was an earthen vessel filled with water, was hurled violently upwards, striking the ceiling obliquely, breaking it into a number of pieces.

EXPLOSION.—On Friday afternoon, at East Boston, a fatal accident occurred at the ship-dock of Dolliver & Sleeper, near the old People's Ferry Dock, by which a young lad was killed, and several other persons severely if not fatally injured. About six rods from the water were situated a boiler and engine used for the purpose of hauling ships into the dock. The boiler suddenly exploded, giving those in the vicinity not the least chance to escape. Part of the roof of the building where the boiler stood was blown off, every window was demolished, the two sides blown out, and the building completely wrecked.

DROWNED.—A Bangor, Me., dispatch of Friday states that Charles Shaw, his wife and only child, a lad of eight years, were drowned while skating on Pleasant Pond in Orneville. Their bodies were found on Thursday.

Three sons of Mr. Bunker, of Franklin, were drowned Thursday in a pond while skating. One fell in and the other two went to his rescue, and all three were drowned.

— The bill introduced in Congress by Mr. Washburne to revive the grade of General in the army is for the purpose of bestowing the rank upon Lieut. General Grant.

The five woolen mills consumed 887,000 pounds of scoured wool valued at a million and a quarter dollars, and turned out a half million yards of broadcloth; 475,000 yards cassimere, and 94,650 yards of spinnets, all valued at about a million and a half of dollars. They employed 270 males and 372 females. The carriage factories, including the wheel and blacksmiths' shops, produced 165 wagons, 1,242 buggies and carryalls, and 80 sleighs, valued at $270,000; and they employed some two hundred men. The shoe business produced the value of $52,607, and employed 69 males and 37 females. These are the manufactures. The farms are 142.

ACCUMULATION OF FLOUR.—The receipts of flour in Boston for the past few weeks have been quite large, the amount by the Worcester route alone being some days last week at the rate of seven thousand barrels per day. A large part of the flour is stored, and will probably not come upon the market for some time yet. The rate of freight from Chicago is still enormously high, $2 40 to $2.70 per barrel. We do not look for an immediate and decided decline in the price of the necessaries of life, but the tendency is now in that direction.—Trav.

BETTER NOT DRINK WHISKEY. — A man named Wm. March, residing in Lynn, went to Boston recently, carrying with him $750 in bank bills. He went into a drinking saloon and drank a glass of whiskey, which was the last he knew until the next morning, when he was found near the Eastern Railroad track at Oak Island, between Lynn and Chelsea. He was insensible at the time, and one of his feet and hands were badly frozen. Only nine cents were found upon his person. He has since been quite ill, and it is supposed that he was drugged and robbed.

AN EXCELLENT INSTITUTION.—A coffee room for workingmen has been opened in Cincinnati by the Young Men's Christian Association. It is furnished with small tables and chairs, at which, at all hours of the day and late in the evening, hot coffee and crackers; or a plate of hot soup can be procured for the small sum of five cents. The reading room is furnished with all the leading daily papers and Europdan periodicals, and is free to all.

THE HOMESTEAD LAW.—The President, in his Message pays a high compliment to this Law, and of course to the men and the party, [Republican,] that passed it. He says:

The Report of the Secretary of the Interior presents evidence of the successful operation of the Homestead Act, under the provisions of which, 1,160,533 acres of the public lands were entered during the last fiscal year—more than one fourth of the whole number of acres sold or otherwise disposed of during that period. It is estimated that the receipts derived from this source are sufficient to cover the expenses incident to the survey and disposal of the lands entered under the Act, and that payments in cash to the extent of from forty to fifty per cent. will be made by settlers, who may thus at any time acquire title before the expiration of the period at which it would otherwise vest.

In view of these facts, the President makes this handsome acknowledgement:

The homestead policy was established only after long and earnest resistance; experience proves its wisdom. The lands, in the hands of industrious settlers, whose labor creates wealth and contributes to the public resources, are worth more to the United States than if they had been reserved as a solitude for the future purchasers.

This is sound doctrine, and true policy.

— To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Berrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus. It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty St., New York. 18

KENTUCKY.—A Louisville correspondent says Gen. Palmer has given recognizance to appear for trial on an indictment found by the Grand Jury for assisting slaves to escape.

It is rumored that a similar indictment has been found against Gen. Fish, who has given passes to about 11,000 negroes to cross the Ohio river during the last eight months.

WHAT THEY SIGNIFY.—A late fashion among the ladies is wearing long ends of narrow ribbon around the neck. Few of the uninitiated know the significance of the same. When they wear the ends hanging in front, it means that "the lady is married;" down the back, "that she has a feller coming to see her, but isn't engaged;" over the left shoulder it means "Fellers, come follow me." If she does not wear any, it means that she "is engaged, and does not wish to have anything to do with any other feller." Patriot.

— Newsboys and others who love peanuts will be sorry to learn that instead of 140,000 bushels per annum—the regular product before the war in North Carolina—there will be only about 15,000 bushels to export from that State this year.

— Official reports, just published, show that in Northern and Northwestern Arkansas there are 100,000 individuals (widows, orphans, decrepid people, old and young,) who have been left entirely destitute by the war.

CAUTION TO DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.—We print the following, from the fact that the country is at present flooded with circulars of bogus claim agents located at Washington, who promise an additional bounty to all men enlisted in 1861 and 1862. The way they swindle is to write to men for their discharges for the purpose of getting them their bounties. Such parties as are inveigled into transmitting them, in due time receive a circular stating that their claim is allowed, and the soldier may have his bounty by remitting the stipulated fee—$25; this will be the last of the game.

Complimentary.—The following complimentary order, emanating from such eminent authority, must be a source of gratification to the parties to whom it is addressed; and it is undoubtedly an expression of the feeling of the people who have been saved the expense of the payment of fraudulent claims:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 28, 1865.

SIR: This Department desires to express its acknowledgments to you for your agency in the prevention of a great fraud upon the Treasury. But for your prompt exposure to the Second Comptroller, of the proposals made you by Babs and his associates, a vast sum might have been lost to the Government, or to individuals having claims on the Government, and the obligations due in the case to your intelligence and integrity are recognized and appreciated. I am, very respectfully, Your obed't serv't,

H. McCULLOCH, Secretary.

JACOB LOWENTHAL, Esq., Washington, D.C.

The above is the agent of Messrs. Buford & Rider of this city, Govt. Claim Agents, and may be considered as an endorsement of their business standing, altho' none is needed in our midst, where these gentlemen are known.

☞ The Pittsburg Press says, "we notice that Mr. J. Haydock, for a long time back connected with Mr. Holloway, of Pill notoriety, has now left him and joined his fortunes with those of Professor Maggiel, reputed to make the best Billious Pill in the country. In courtesy to the press in general, none has surpassed Mr. Haydock. He recognized long ago (and as he has informed us himself,) the power of advertising, and the reward that invariably results to those who make a judicious use of it in making known to the public the articles they have to dispose of. We wish Mr. Haydock all success, and recommend him generally to the Druggists as one whom it is a pleasure to know. Dr. Maggiel's medicines will be found in another column, and are all they profess to be."

HASHEESH! HASHEESH!
One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.
THE HASHEESH CANDY
Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO., under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supercede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation or cure of
NERVOUSNESS, NEURALGIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE,
and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.
The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a 'multitude of infirmities.'" In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.
Sold by all Druggists. Imported only by the

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

IMPURITIES.

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. Local.

☞ "A contented mind is a continual feast," but to be contented with well, when we know we might do better, is a species of indolence which goes far toward retarding the world's progress. The spirit of renovation has worked more changes in the business portion of our city during the last decade of years, than in the half century previous.

Among these changes, that made at the corner of Vaughan and Congress streets, in substituting the beautiful drug store of Mr. Thacher for the dark and dingy old establishments which had preceded it, seems to us particularly worthy of notice. It is one of the best lighted stores in the city, and human ingenuity would be severely taxed to make a more economical arrangement of space than is there exhibited.

Under the charge of our townsman Wm. Bodge, jr., (who was for some years in the leading house of Jos. T. Brown, in Boston,) while still in the first year of its existence, this store has grown into great public favor, for Mr. B.'s courtesy to his patrons is fully equal to his experience in compounding the mysterious prescriptions with which physicians puzzle our brains.

"Multum in parvo" might well be claimed as a motto for this store, for though its area is limited, its resources seem almost limitless. Anything, from the bashesch of India to the pure wines of California, from the plants which grow only under a torrid sun to the oleaginous product of the polar bear, from perfumes which enchant to drugs which nauseate, may be found there.

Articles which any one might be forgiven for fancying, and therefore called "fancy articles," are in abundance, while articles of vertu, (for "necessity is sometimes a virtue,") such as brushes and combs of all kinds, soaps, pomades, &c., are also there. To enumerate would be a task of greater length than either time or space will allow, but if the reader imagines this mention to be rose-tinted, a call will dispel such illusion.

☞ Col. E. R. Goodrich, formerly of this city and late of Gen. Burnside's staff, has been brevetted Brigadier General for efficient service and meritorious conduct in the field. Col. Goodrich is now Military State Agent for New York, at Washington.

☞ The practice of coasting upon our sidewalks, and thereby endangering the life and limbs of every pedestrian, will be checked in a great measure by the efforts of the police. A warning to offenders is published in another column.

☞ The morning train from Portsmouth on Friday got into Manchester two hours late, because part of the cars uncoupled on the road, and the train ran on a mile or two before the loss was discovered, when of course the train came back and took them along.

☞ We have received from J. F. Shores, jr., 38 Market street, the tenth annual edition of that indispensable adjunct of the counting-room, McAdams' Panoramic Calendar for 1866.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 9.—Joseph Chandler, who was so shallow a chandler as to get drunk, replenishes the municipal treasury with the amount of a $3 fine and $3.86 costs.

PAID.—The Western Massachusetts and Morris Insurance Companies, through their agent, F. W. DeRochemont, have paid $4550 to the losers at the late fire in Kittery.

☞ By a private letter from New Orleans, we learn that the theatres in that city, which were lately closed on Sunday evenings by order of Gen. Canby, now perform on that evening as of old. This appears as if the result of the closure did not fulfil Gen. C.'s anticipations.

— The Union Republican State ticket in Massachusetts, had 70,000 votes; the other had 21,000.

— Two men who were wounded at East Boston on Friday by the bursting of a steam boiler, died on Saturday. One leaves a widow and four children.

— The resignations of Generals Butler and Dix date on the 13th ult., and of Generals Ketchum and Croxton on the 22d ult.

— The actor James E. Murdock fell in an apopletic fit Friday night, while playing at Grover's Theatre, New York. It is believed that he will survive it.

— A large invoice of revolvers and metallic cartridges, intended for Fenian use in Canada, were seized near Niagara Falls the other day.

— Rev. F. E. Fellows has resigned the pastoral charge of the Second Congregational Parish in Kennebunk. He has received and accepted a call to become pastor of a church in Bridgton.

— Two Yale students were fined $17 each in the New Haven police court on Wednesday for "stealing gates" the night before. Ancient college custom has to bow before the civil law.

— At Bangor, Me., the river is closed with ice, and navigation has stopped.

— The lumbermen throughout the State of Maine, are making preparations for an unusually large business this winter.

— Four men, disguised, went to the house of Julius Schrieber, near New Albany, Indiana, the other night, turned the family out of doors, stole the most valuable furniture and $25 in money, and then burned his house and barn.

— A bill has been introduced in Congress designed to do the wounded soldiers' widows an act of the simplest justice, to wit, that employment by the government in a civil capacity shall not deprive them of the benefit of their pensions. We hope it will become a law.

— God knows what keys in the human soul to touch, in order to draw out its sweetest and most perfect harmonies. They may be the minor strains of sadness and sorrow; they may be the loftier notes of joy and gladness; God knows where the melodies of our nature are, and what discipline will call them forth. Some with plaintive songs must walk in lowly vales of life's weary way; others in loftier hymns shall sing of nothing but joy, as they thread the mountain-tops of life; but they all unite without a discord or a jar, as the ascending anthem of loving and believing hearts finds its way into the chorus of the redeemed in heaven.

ITS PHILOSOPHY.—Sozodont is an antacid. Sozodont is antiputrescent. Sozodont is a tonic. Sozodont is all vegetable and entirely harmless. Hence it cleanses the teeth from acetous concretions, stops the decomposition of their substance, sweetens the breath, stimulates the gums, and is the safest and best preparation of its class in existence. 18

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with rooms, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHARLES K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and such a healthy condition far pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawôm

DAISY STARS.

Two little daisy stars shining on me,
Out of a letter from over the sea,
Shed their soft lustre o'er the dim track,
Into my childhood's haunts all the way back;
Into green meadows fringed white with the spray
Of blossoming thorn-bush decked with the May.
Where the dear daisies grew, spangling the sward,
With silver and gold for peasant and lord.

Beautiful vision of long-buried years;
I see it again through eyes dimmed with tears!
There's never a hill slope, never a lawn,
Unspread with the daisy where I was born.
But searching in vain 'neath Western sky,
No gleam of the crimson-tipt flower I spy.

Here are meadows and values of emerald hue,
But never a daisy is wet with their dew.

The prairie's broad bosom with blossoms is gay;
But "Ah, there's a daisy!" no pilgrim can say.

From ocean to ocean, from far-tree to palm,
No daisy in spring-time chasts its low palms;
While there is fair England each morsel of sod
Looks lovingly up through the day's eye to God.

Thickly the blossoms gleam in the church-yard,
And the jasper's grave with their light is starred.
Thus am I looking beyond the great sea,
Lighted by daisy-stars shining on me.

Thus am I living my childhood again,
Linked to to the past by a frail daisy-chain.

Rhymes for her daisies my friends asked of me;
So we change trifles across the wide sea.

— It is not proper to address the President as "Your Excellency," as some do. SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

FARRANT & CO.

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to order the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Caballa, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

APOLOGY OF LORD PALMERSTON TO GEN. BUTLER.—When Gen. Butler issued his celebrated Order No. 28, in New Orleans, known as the "woman order," he was denounced by the rebel chieftain Beauregard as a "beast," which epithet was not only echoed all over the South, but was adopted in spirit by Lord Palmerston, late Prime Minister of Great Britain. Shortly afterward the Kane-Palmerston scandal was set afloat, much to the discredit of our noble Lord. Gen. Butler took advantage of the fact, and addressed a note to a distinguished gentleman on the other side of the Atlantic, in which he alluded to the fact that Palmerston had repeated the dirty scandal about his (Butler's) "woman order;" that perhaps the learned Premier was not aware that the order which, on account of the beastly conduct of the rebel women of New Orleans toward the Federal troops, became a military necessity, was copied verbatim from an order of the City Council of London, established during a time of peace! Gen. Butler, having just heard of the gossip about Mrs. Kane and Palmerston, remarked in the letter referred to that probably his lordship had begun to learn how good it was to be slandered. Upon reading Gen. Butler's letter, which contained all the facts about the misconduct of women, making Order 28 a necessity, Lord Palmerston wrote a letter of apology to Gen. Butler, which the latter still holds.—Washington Republican.

A SOUTHERN "CHARACTER."—A writer in the N. O. Picayune writes as follows of a preacher he saw in Upper Georgia:

After throwing his eye around the house in a threatening manner, with "Oh, you miserable sinners," expressed in every lineament of his round face, he went on in a serious voice: "My brethren, in order to check all idle curiosity, I will state that my name is Elijah Browser, from Jessymine county, Kintuck, [sniffle,] and I'm free to confess, without fear of successful contradiction, and I'm here to-day to say, and it will at once occurr to every intelligent and reflecting mind, when I make bold to tell you that I have been preachin now purty nigh gwine on three year, and on an average of five hundred sermons a year; that I have preached to the sojers, to the injuns, to the orfins, [sniffle,] to the niggers, and to the woodchoppers of Spaldin county; but never, [blubber,] has I seed in all that time so ill-mannered, so sinful and depraved and devil-hugging a congregation as this one here sitting before me to-day; and I want to tell the young men and women a setting back there agin the melojun, that comes here a courtin and a flirtin and a passin of notes round the melojun, and a laffin, and a giggling, and a flying in the face of Providence, that the laws of the State throws around me certain protection, and I am going to have it. And what's more, if the thing aint stopped I am going (for I've got their names) to call out their names from the pulpit next Sunday, and present 'em to the grand jury moreover."

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle-scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have Agents clearing $250 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant; for proof of the above send for circular and see our terms. Address, JONES BROS. & CO., 14 Phœnix Building, Boston.

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience, Dr. Dow finds he has the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, rendering the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—By Perley, Dec. 10. Many of the Custom House and Internal Revenue officers, some of them unable to take the test oath, may have their appointments rejected by the Senate, and they are getting alarmed on the subject. One of them, who telegraphed to a friend in the Senate on the subject, and asked what he must do to secure his confirmation, was informed that he must see that his State granted universal suffrage if he desired to hold a Federal office.

The West Virginia members are somewhat troubled about their status, should the territorial system be adopted, which is not improbable; but they console themselves with the idea that their new State will be safe in any event. If the seceded States are to be regarded as conquered territory, then West Virginia will be a State erected out of that territory; and if the States are still in the Union, then West Virginia can claim her legitimacy through her mother State.

Senator Sumner will to morrow present in the Senate a well written memorial signed by a large number of the black inhabitants of Tennessee, remonstrating against the recognition of the Senators and Representatives now claiming admission from that State, on the ground that only whites were permitted to vote at elections.

W. A. Graham, ex member of the rebel Senate, comes here to demand a seat for the long term in the Senate of the United States. He is especially abusive of Massachusetts radicals, approves the President's policy and denounces the test oath.

Gen. Butler's resignation was written nearly three months ago, although in the general order announcing it, the date is given as November 30. The General's promised reply to Gen. Grant is looked for here with much interest.

The venerable John Pierpont performed the marriage ceremony a night or two ago, between Cora L. V. Scott, once Mrs. Hatch, and Mr. Daniels. All of the parties present were spiritualists.

Whatever truth there may be in recently published rumors respecting the President's contemplated action with regard to the Southern States, it is well known here that he acts upon all cases of restoration as they arise, and thus, while engaged in that work, is the best exponent of his own policy, none being authorized to declare what course he will pursue in future.

Speaker Colfax keeps his own counsel, and consults with few members as to the constitution of the standing committees.

No official information has reached the Department of State of the adoption or rejection of the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery by Indiana, Iowa, California, Oregon, Florida and Mississippi Only twenty-six States are officially known to have ratified the amendment. But there is no doubt of its full accomplishment.

FENIAN TROUBLES.—In New York City, at a session of the Fenian Senate, held on the 7th, articles of impeachment were filed against John O'Mahony, President of the Brotherhood, for perfidy and malfeasance in office. On the 9th they deposed him, and the Vice President, Mr. Wm. R. Roberts, took the oath as President. B. D. Killian, Sec. of the Treasury, was also deposed.—Per contra, John O'Sullivan, signing himself late Centre from Mallow, County of Cork, Ireland, sends a card to the papers, denouncing Roberts as a traitor. The Irish, he says, recognize Col. O'Mahony as the chief head of the organization. On the same day, Saturday, at a convention of delegates from the various Fenian Circles of New York city, an address was adopted endorsing Col. O'Mahony as foremost among the boldest, truest and most talented defenders of the cause, and repudiating the authority and condemning the action of the so-called Fenian Senate.

The following card was published by Col. O'Mahony in the New York papers, last week:—

HEADQUARTERS FENIAN BROTHERHOOD, }
New York, Dec. 7, 1865. }

To the Members of the Fenian Brotherhood:—You will have seen in the journals of this date the self-written and self-published condemnation of ten long-timed malcontents, who have met in this city without legal authority. The existence of so small a number in so large a body as ours should create no anxiety, although it may justify regret. The Brotherhood, by a congress to be held in January next, will show its capacity to overcome domestic faction, instigated by corrupt motives or by British gold, as it has demonstrated its power to respect law and further human freedom. British prisons are not secure against us. Local factions must give way.

GEN. BUTLER RETAINED.—It is stated that Gen. Butler's name, which was placed on the list of unemployed Generals for muster out by General Grant's direction, was stricken off by President Johnson as soon as the list was submitted to him for revision. Wash. Cor. Cincinnati Gazette.

— Two hundred men were discharged at the Norfolk Navy Yard last week.

GOLD, Monday, 144 7-8.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. R. M. Sargent, of Farmington, had a visit of his people on Thanksgiving evening, bringing $130 in cash, a barrel of flour, and a set of furs for Mrs. S.

—— Mr. Kinnear, shoe manufacturer, of Farmington, has had to send to Portsmouth for wide boards to make covers for his shoe boxes.

—— The N. H. Teachers' Association will meet at Manchester on Thursday, Jan. 18, at 2 o'clock, and continue till Saturday noon.

—— A Mrs. Rice died in Charlestown two weeks ago, at the age of 95 years. Her husband had died at the age of 102, so that the sum of their united ages would be 197 years.

—— The Lancaster (N. H.) Republican says that never in New Hampshire were there so many sales of property at auction as in the last three months, and never did merchandise go off so rapidly and at such high figures.

—— Miss Smith, of the establishment of Robertson & Porter, was standing at the door of Robertson's Hotel, when something startled her. She ran rapidly down the sidewalk to Mr. Richard Hubbard's, where she turned down River street, rushed to the brink of the Connecticut, and incontinently plunged in and was drowned. Miss Smith was a bay mare, and at the time of her death was very much attached to a buggy. Unrequited affection is supposed to have been the cause.—Claremont Eagle.

A PROSPECTIVE SWINDLE UPON THE SOLDIERS.—A short time ago, a Washington paper says, a gentleman from Ohio, now in the Auditor's office, received a letter from one of his old comrades, stating that brokers in Ohio were buying soldiers' discharge papers at prices varying from one to six hundred dollars, and he requested the captain to inform him what could be the possible object. The captain referred the letter to General Baker, and the latter immediately replied, stating that he knew of no legitimate demand for soldier's discharges, adding:

"The sale or transfer of a soldier's discharge cannot carry with it any emoluments or profits; such, if any, can only be claimed by its legitimate possessor; hence it is entirely useless to the purchaser until Congress passes some law making valid such purchase and sale. If soldiers' discharges are being bought and sold, the purchasers doubtless anticipate that Congress will pass a law entitling the puchaser or possessor of a soldier's discharge to all the benefits to which the soldier himself would be entitled. Such a law would doubtless legalize the traffic. I would, however, advise all soldiers to retain their discharges, and not barter away those honorable records, which should be preserved as the monuments of their past heroic deeds. The scheme has probably been concocted and devised by some association or combination of speculators, who, if they possess a sufficient number to make it an object, will attempt to lobby through Congress, during the present session, some bill that may accrue to their pecuniary advantage."

GULF STATES.—The Macon (Georgia) Journal has a letter dated the 3d inst. from Milledgeville, saying that Provisional Gov. Johnson has received orders from Washington to retain his position until further instructions; also, that he has orders not to issue certificates of election to the Georgia Congressmen elect.

Provisional Gov. Parsons received a dispatch, dated on the 5th inst., from Secretary Seward, congratulating him and the country in the President's name, on the acceptance by Alabama of the Constitutional Amendment, which completes the number of States required to make the amendment the law of the land.

The Mississippi Legislature has declined to pass the Constitutional Amendment because of the second clause. [Poor foolish people! The first clause would not be (for this generation) worth one straw without the second. They know this:—but they foolishly suppose their hesitation may defeat the clause. But they are too late and too weak. They only record their own condemnation.]

A BIT OF ROMANCE.—The Philadelphia North American says a lady living in that city, separated from her husband by the vicissitudes of the war, and at last reached the conclusion that he was dead. She parted piece by piece, with her jewelry, then with her laces and finer clothing, and, finally, was driven almost to absolute distress. The other day she received a letter from a gentleman residing in Mississippi, informing her that her husband had lately died their, leaving a fortune of over $60,000 to which she was the sole heiress. Her husband having enlisted in the army was discharged on account of illness; and owing to the unsettled state of the country, he preferred to remain in the extreme south until the close of the war. While there he became e igaged in various speculations, and made large amounts of money. He expected to rejoin his family as soon as peace was declared. He invested his funds in cotton, and had just disposed of it when death closed his career. He had written many letters to his wife, but none of them reached her.

☞ We have received from Theodore Tilton, the author, a beautifully illustrated poem for the juveniles, entitled "The Fly." Sheldon & Co., publishers, New York.

☞ A Boston correspondent asks the Tribune if it is true that Helmbold is paying it ten thousand dollars per year for his advertising? This is the answer, and we commend it to every sensible business man:

"It is a matter that concerns a Boston druggist," and all business men, and we may as well state that Helmbold is paying the Tribune over ten thousand dollars this year. He paid us one thousand five hundred dollars for one insertion of one page in the Weekly Tribune, besides his column in the Daily Tribune. Bonner once paid us three thousand dollars for one insertion of an advertisement of Ledger. He knew that by judicious advertising he could insure a fortune. The old prejudice among druggist and physicians against advertising is dying out, and they as well as others, see that the cheapest mode whereby they can make themselves and their medicines known to the public, is by a wise and liberal system of advertising." Helmbold discovered this fact and took advantage of it.

We learn from good authority that Helmbold paid $2000 for the fourth page of the New York Herald one day, and that his advertising for 1865 will amount to nearly $100,000.

☞ The appointment of a Joint Committee of Congress to decide what demonstration of respect shall be paid in honor of Abraham Lincoln is in accordance with the precedent established when President Harrison died during the recess. John Quincy Adams was the Chairman of the Joint Committee then appointed, and he reported a bill paying twenty-five thousand dollars to Mrs. Harrison, which was passed after warm debates in both Houses. In the Senate especially it met with the decided opposition of Calhoun, Franklin Pierce, Silas Wright, Woodbury, W. R. King and other Democrats, but the Whigs defeated them. President Harrison had not drawn a dollar of his pay.

ENTERTAINING PRESENTS.—L. Prang & Co., Lithographers, 159 Washington street, Boston, are issuing a series of Album Cards, in packages of all sizes from 24 assorted cards up to 1,000; some in oil colors, and some plain; which are adapted for presents to young people of all ages. We have noticed many of these as they have been furnished us, but their Magic Cards recently issued are calculated to afford much amusement, because of the search required to discern figures not apparent at first sight, but at which a hint is given in the form of an interrogatory printed on each card.

These, however, are only a few of the extensive variety of Prang & Co. They have the "Christmas Stocking Library," the New Games, Rewards of Merit, the Pocket Card Album, &c &c. &c. Many of these Cromo-Lithographs consist of beautiful natural scenery: Such as the White Mountains, Views in Newport, R. I., in Boston harbor, on the Hudson, on the coast of Maine, and many other places. We commend these pleasing and diverting works of art to people about purchasing gifts for presentation to young folks the approaching holiday season. They can be purchased at most of our bookstores, or ordered of the publishers.

KENTUCKY.—General Palmer has issued a proclamation declaring that slavery has ceased in Kentucky. He also advises the colored people to promptly apply to the courts for redress if public conveyances shall disregard their right to travel at pleasure, provided they conform to reasonable regulations.

In the Jefferson Circuit Court, in the case of the Commonwealth of Kentucky v General Palmer, for aiding slaves to escape, Judge Johnston dismissed the indictment on the ground that the requisite number of States had adopted the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery before the indictment was brought, therefore all criminal and penal acts of the State of Kentucky relating to slavery were of no effect. The Commonwealth's Attorney filed an appeal from Judge Johnson's decision in the case of Gen. Palmer, and the Court adjourned sine die.

☞ On Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in Newburyport, Mr. Charles E. Mitchell of Groveland, 22 years of age, slipped from a train backing into the depot of the Newburyport Railroad, and was so badly crushed by the train passing over him that he died in two hours afterward. Another man was saved by the baggage master. Both of them tried to get upon the train, which they thought was leaving; but which was only moving to arrange the cars as they should be.

MEXICO.—The Herald's special Washington dispatch says the evacuation of Chihuahua by the French is fully confirmed in an official letter just received from the United States Consul in that city, dated Oct. 8, 1865, addressed to the commanding officer of the United States forces at Franklin.

— The proof of the pudding is not in chewing the string, but in eating and tasting. The same rule will apply to the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap. Our better half says it has no equal, and will do much better work, and go much further, besides leaving the clothes in a much better state after washing. We do not hesitate to pronounce it far superior to any S ap in the market. Go get a bar and try it—most all the merchants sell it. 21

CAUTION TO DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.—We print the following, from the fact that the country is at present flooded with circulars of bogus claim agents located at Washington, who promise an additional bounty to all men enlisted in 1861 and 1862. The way they swindle is to write to men for their discharges for the purpose of getting them their bounties. Such parties as are inveigled into transmitting them, in due time receive a circular stating that their claim is allowed, and the soldier may have his bounty by remitting the stipulated fee—$25; this will be the last of the game.

Complimentary.—The following complimentary order, emanating from such eminent authority, must be a source of gratification to the parties to whom it is addressed; and it is undoubtedly an expression of the feeling of the people who have been saved the expense of the payment of fraudulent claims:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22, 1865.

SIR: This Department desires to express its acknowledgments to you for your agency in the prevention of a great fraud upon the Treasury. But for your prompt exposure to the Second Comptroller, of the proposals made you by Rabe and his associates, a vast sum might have been lost to the Government, or to individuals having claims on the Government, and the obligations due in the case to your intelligence and integrity are recognized and appreciated. I am, very respectfully, Your obed't serv't,

H. McCULLOCH, Secretary.

JACOB LOWENTHAL, Esq., Washington, D. C.

The above is the agent of Messrs. Buffford & Rider of this city, Govt. Claim Agents, and may be considered as an endorsement of their business standing, altho' none is needed in our midst, where these gentlemen are known.

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.
THE HASHEESH CANDY
Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO., under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supercede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation or cure of
NERVOUSNESS, NEURALGIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE,
and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.
The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a multitude of afflictions." It is a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

IMPURITIES,

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. What we have to do to recover our health is to take out from the BOWELS AND THE CIRCULATION the excess of impurities. This done, health follows of necessity.

Local.

A SCHOOL TEACHER ASSAULTED.—In these days of progress and reform, when for the government of the rising generation kind words have been substituted for the instrument of flagellation, it would be supposed that the good old times of "set-to's" between school-teacher and scholar—resulting perhaps in the expulsion of the "marster" through the window, or in the complete demoralization of an overgrown country beef-eater—had passed, and that the village school was the model of good order and quietude. But the following account of an affair which recently occurred at Kittery Point, Me., will dispel this impression; at least in its application to this locality. One day last week Mr. Daggett, the teacher of a school at the Point, was visited by an elderly gentleman, a resident of the town, who complained that the boys of his school were in the habit of insulting him at certain times, and wished Mr. D. to remind the boys of it, and reprimand them, &c., which was done,—the teacher making no personal allusions, but addressing his remarks to the whole school. One young fisherman, however, feeling doubtless that the coat fitted him with a great degree of nicety, arose in his seat and informed the master that he would "lick the d—d old cuss" the next time his visual organs beheld the venerable complainant, or words to that effect. This conduct on the part of a pupil being considered as rather informal, D. proceeded to correct him, but the young man escaped, and after annoying his teacher by rude demonstrations and remarks outside the school-house, left, and was seen no more until the day following, when, reinforced by two or three brave fellows, he secreted himself behind the entry door of the school-building, and while passing in, Mr. D. was struck on the head by a large stone held in the hands of this ringleader, and then set upon by the three and beaten most unmercifully. It is the opinion of Dr. M. F. Wentworth, the attending physician, that had the blow been given an inch further back on the head, it must have resulted fatally.

A warrant was immediately issued for the arrest of the assailants, but owing to a lack of promptness on the part of some one, but one of them was secured. We have not learnd the names of the boys.

NAVAL.—Boatswain Andrew Miles has been ordered to duty in charge of the laborers at this Yard.

Paymaster John A. Bates has been detached from special duty at New York, and awaits orders.

Chief Engineer R. M. Bartleman has been detached from the Canandaigua and ordered to the Shenandoah.

First Asst. Engineer R. H. Fitch has been detached from duty at this yard and ordered to the Canandaigua.

Acting Master Charles W. Adams has been detached from the Vandalia and granted leave.

Mate Harry Lucas, of this State, has been discharged the service.

Rev. I. F. Waterhouse, of the Independent Christian Society, has received a call from Providence, R. I., with a large salary. It is understood that his stay in Portsmouth is dependent entirely upon the success of a new movement on the part of his present Society to erect a spacious church, for which object several thousand dollars have already been subscribed. The chapel in which services are now held is much too small, hence the efforts now being made for procuring a more spacious edifice. Our citizens would greatly regret the departure from their midst of so popular a preacher. Portsmouth Cor. Boston Herald.

☞ It is proposed to merge the Horse Guards in the regular State Militia of New Hampshire; and a meeting of members and other gentlemen interested, to consider the matter, will be held at the Common Council room on Tuesday evening next, Dec. 15th, at 7 o'clock.

☞ Mr. Phillips' subject for his lecture before the Lyceum this evening is one that is vital to every lover of his country's welfare.

☞ Don't forget the Christmas Sale at the Court House on Wednesday evening. There you will find presents for young and old, &c.

☞ Mr. Meinerth has issued a second mosaic carte de visite, containing heads of fifty-eight ladies of this city. Bodge has them for sale.

GEORGIA.—The Savannah Herald states that G. B. Lamar and son have been arrested for attempting to bribe the Treasury Agents who have charge of the captured cotton.

The Savannah Herald of the 4th inst. has an important editorial adjuring the Georgia Legislature to so act as to have the effect of reassuring the North and strengthening the President in his patriotic efforts to secure to the Southern States the restoration of their political rights. If this is not done, positive evil will follow. It advises each Southern State to come squarely up to the requirements of President Johnson.

— Reliable official information has been received by Gen. Howard, which exonerates Gen. Tillson in his management of freedmen in Wilkes county, Ga. The most outrageous conduct towards freedmen has followed the removal of the military in the county named and in other parts of the State. Hon. N. M. Reeve, Judge of the District Court in Wilkes county, Ga., asked, at the request of the freedmen and respectable citizens, that the military be sent back, and Gen. Steadman has ordered troops to that county.

RELIANCE.—We deem it to be our duty to say to our readers, that the most implicit reliance can be placed in Coe's Cough Balsam. It will cure your children of croup, and yourself of any cough, cold, sore throat, or pulmonary affection. It is the cheapest and best preparation in the market.

Dyspepsia can be surely and permanently cured by Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. Thousands of dyspeptics are sending in their testimonials to the proprietors, saying it has cured them. We say to those who are suffering from dyspepsia, constipation, sour stomach, or any disorder of the stomach or bowels, give it a trial. d11—sodaw1w

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre lots and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; also Water Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies.

The Chronicle.

A LESSON FROM JAMAICA.—The British Standard of the 17th ult., has an editorial article of over three columns on the probable causes of the Jamaica riot. According to this the Island is terribly misgoverned. The voters are but one in 176 of the inhabitants. The government is all in the interest of sugar-making, and the oppression falls upon those who can find no place on enormous plantations. While 130,000 adults in vain seek employment for the support of their families, they are severely taxed to pay for the importation of coolies. The tax on made-up clothing, though no heavier than on the materials, and therefore no encouragement to domestic industry, is given at 200 per cent. on the coarser articles. All the making and administration of law is in vile hands, and in the interest of the employers. Punishment by whipping is allowed. Suits to recover wages are often worse than useless.

The cause of the outbreak, as given by the Standard, is instructive to us: "The slaves were only half emancipated when they received personal freedom without political rights." Taxation was made to bear unequally upon them. The utter inhumanity of their oppressors is shown by the extent of their murderous vengeance. This was unsuspected in England at this date, but the principle of it is announced. "Every insurgent, as soon as caught, was tried by court-martial at the drum-head, and, on conviction, hanged from some tree where the dangling corpse might prove a warning to others." So far as appears, the origin of the outbreak was that at a meeting of a court the mere cries of the oppressed were answered by a volley of musketry because they would not disperse on reading the riot-act.

There is a lesson for us in all this which can not be too well learned. "Half-emancipation" may prove prove a questionable boon to the oppressed and a calamity to the oppressor. There is no safety but in equal rights, and free education. This, we again and again maintain, the blessed Constitution of the United States secures to us. For if that instrument will suffer a "sovereign State" to forbid a negro to sit beside a white in a public school, he may be lawfully compelled to pay a license for the privilege of owning a horse, or a cow; he may be required to pay taxes at a different rate, a different poll-tax, have different punishments assigned him; to shoot him may be a different crime from murder; his testimony may be received under different limitations, his vote at the polls may be rejected, he may be voted a fera naturæ—liable to be shot at sight; it may be made a crime for him to learn to read, or to have in his possession a Bible or a pistol. Must the United States Constitution tolerate a State in all this? If not, in all, in any? In how much?—Boston Recorder.

— Man, while he loves, it is said, is never quite depraved. This depends upon whether it is a love for rum or women—for good spirits or bad.

— If Brigham Young's one hundred wives favor their lord with Curtain Lectures, what, oh what, must be the nature of "Young's Night Thoughts."

— Dr. Franklin said that revivals of religion made him think of a scarcity of grain; those who had enough said nothing about it, while those who were destitute made all the clamor.

— A young lady in Nevada went to a picnic and on being asked what a picnic was, she replied; "Its going out into the hills and getting your dress all dirty, and breaking your parasol." A plain, practical definition.

DR. PORTER, of Northfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine for Colds, Coughs, &c., I have met with in the market."

HON. D. W. GOOCH, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr. Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."

W. R. BOWEN, 88 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

SKUNKS.—These unpleasant creatures are more plenty in this vicinity than ever before known by the oldest inhabitant. We learn that a man who lives near Webster's Mills has killed eighty this year. He gets about 75 cents for the skin, the fur of which, we are told, is dyed and used for tippets or some other articles of the sort. The grease is also valuable for oiling harnesses, boots, &c., and for other purposes. So it seems that even the despised skunk may be made useful to the lords of creation.

We learn that one of these creatures entered the South Grammar School building last week. As he had not received a written permission from the Superintendent to pursue his studies at that school, his application to enter was refused by the master, and he was politely requested to withdraw. Like any other well-bred fellow he obeyed the summons.—Manchester Union.

— The North Carolina Congressmen have left Washington for home.

— At New Bedford the names of several colored citizens have been put into the jury box.

— Meetings are numerously held in Great Britain, at which the Jamaica butcheries are condemned, and petitions adopted for inquiry into the facts, with a view to the punishment of the perpetrator.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S

PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS

Invariably Cure the Following Diseases:

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,
Dyspepsia,
Diarrhœa,

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO

UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!

DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.

His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.

Office, No. 23 Endicott street.

Persons at a distance can consult DR. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.

Address DR. BRISCOE, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.

Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secrecy observed in every case.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Boston, July 15, 1866. ThSly

DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 23 Endicott street.

N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.

P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:

THE

STANDARD HISTORY OF THE WAR,

COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.

This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle-scenes, maps and diagrams.

In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has himself enjoyed the rare effects of data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.

He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and authentic, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.

Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have Agents clearing $250 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant; for proof of the above and for circulars and see our terms. Address, JONES BROS. & CO., 14 Phœnix Building, Boston.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1865.

☞ On Monday, Mayors were chosen in most of the cities of Massachusetts. In Boston, Mayor Lincoln was elected for the seventh time. He had 5805 votes; and Dr. Shurtleff, candidate of the Democratic and workingmen's party, had 3684.

In Lowell the Independent Republican and workingmen's candidate, Peabody, had 11 votes more than the Republican Union candidate—for Mayor, Mr. Sargent; but the City Council is 4-5ths republican.

In Lynn, both candidates for Mayor were Republicans: but usher ran on the Citizen's ticket, and had 21 maj. over Lewis, on the People's! Outsiders may wonder what the difference is between these parties.

In Newburyport there were two tickets; the Regular, and the Citizens. William Graves, for Mayor, was on both tickets, and of course he is elected.

In Worcester, Blake, republican, was re-elected mayor, by 534 majority over Lincoln, a coppery "Citizen."

VIRGINIA.—The Richmond correspondent of the New York Herald says the Legislature of Virginia has determined to remove on Tuesday of this week all of the State officers at present holding place under Gov. Pierpont, save the State Auditor. These men were originally selected because of their well known Union proclivities, and they are now to be displaced for the same reason.

Another indication of Legislative feeling is embodied in a resolution introduced for the building of a court house in Washington county, which declares in specific terms that the previous structure "was destroyed by the public enemy." The following action has been taken:

"There are about seventy thousand negroes on the Peninsula, quite thirty thousand of whom followed General Sherman up from his march to the sea. A resolution was introduced to-day looking to the removal of these negroes to the States and counties whence they came.

A committee of five members of the Senate and ten members of the House was appointed to confer with Colonel Brown, Commissioner of Freedmen for Virginia, relative to negro affairs, and, as the resolution strangely reads, to urge the 'immediate withdrawal of the troops from the State.' One member of the House remarked that he hoped the resolution would be tabled, because 'we had truckled to the Government long enough in this matter of the Freedmen's Bureau.'

It is also contemplated to build a poor house in each county for the negroes, compelling them to bear the burden of the expense."

☞ The recent assault of General S. Meredith upon the Hon. G. W. Julian, at Richmond, Ind., appears to have been a very cowardly affair. Mr. Julian, who had for some time been in very feeble health, and was quite lame in the knee, had a shawl wrapped around him and a cumbersome bundle under one arm, when Meredith struck him heavily over the head with an iron bludgeon, threw him to the floor, his head bleeding profusely all the time, and then belabored him with a whip. A number of Meredith's confederates surrounded them, exclaiming, "flog the damned abolitionist!" and preventing all interference with Meredith's brutality. The ruffian has been arrested. Mr. Julian's condition is critical.

NEW COUNTERFEIT $100 TREASURY NOTES.—A Washington despatch says that not less than $750,000 of these counterfeit one hundred dollar notes are at present in circulation. As one portion of the plates from which the bills were worked was an exact fac simile of the genuine—the property of the Treasury Department—taken by the most expert counterfeiter through an entirely new process, which bids fair to almost revolutionize the science of steel plate engraving and bank note printing, and the other part so well engraved as to escape for a long time the scrutiny of the lynx-eyed agents of the Department, the issues spoken of will many of them remain undiscovered and their holders in blissful ignorance of their worthlessness until presented at headquarters for redemption.

CONFESSIONS OF MURDERERS.—Four young villains now under arrest for the murder of an old man named Stoddard, in Herkimer county, N. Y., have made confessions of their bloody deed. They also confess that they had selected a tavern keeper as another victim, and actually called at his tavern to rob and kill him, when their hearts failed them and they left him unharmed. The leader of this gang of villains is only eighteen years old.

☞ In France, Lamartine has written a pamphlet, in which he takes the ground that Europe owns the American continent, and from these premises he defends Louis Napoleon's Mexican empire. The man is "clean daft," as the Scotch say.

GOLD, Tuesday, 145.

— The State Department has received dispatches from London, stating that the British Government seems disposed to submit to an arbitration solely on the Alabama question.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Capt. Jos. B. Clark has been nominated by the Union Republicans of Manchester as their candidate for Mayor.

—— The prisoners in Hillsboro' County Jail were provided with a Thanksgiving dinner by the jailor, and they publish a card of thanks for the courtesy.

—— The Manchester Locomotive Works have purchased the Foundry and Machine Shop belonging to the estates of Messrs. Daniels and Hunt.

—— Rev. Daniel P. Cilley, Chaplain of the 8th N. H. Volunteers, has returned to his home in Farmington. He has at late been connected with the operations of the Freedmen's Bureau near Mobile.

—— It is stated that after paying expenses, there will be from ten to fifteen hundred dollars left of the thirteen thousand, gross receipts at the New England Fair at Concord, last summer.

—— Mr. N. F. Draper, of Plymouth, had his pocket picked of a valuable gold watch while in Montreal last August. Last week it was restored to him through the instrumentality of a Catholic priest in Montreal.

—— Mr. Charles Williams recently cut down a very remarkable hemlock tree upon his premises in Cornish, from which were manufactured sixteen thousand and seventy-five handsome shingles, which sold for $74.78.

—— George H. Morrill, alias James H. Williams, whose real name is John S. Emmons, was tried in Greenfield, last week, for swindling B. W. Flanders, of Keene, out of $25 dollars, and sentenced to five years in State Prison.

—— The catalogue of Dartmouth College, for 1865-6, shows that the number of of students in the Medical Department is 57; in the Academical Department there are 42 seniors, 34 juniors, 38 sophmores and 150 freshmen. In the Scientific Department 48 have to be added, making a total of 278.

—— Mr. Abiel Chandler of Concord gives an interesting account in the Country Gentleman, of a remarkable grapevine growing on land of Mr. David Smith, at Sanboronton Bay. It covers a trellis 72 feet by 40. Twelve stout canes branch out near the ground, the largest 13, the smallest 6 inches in circumference; the largest is 80 feet long; the smaller ones 40 to 60. At the time of Mr. Chandler's visit, 300 lbs. of grapes had already been gathered, and it was estimated that 400 lbs. more remained on the vine. Verily, what need of "going west" when such things grow in New Hampshire!

—— A short time since a young fellow, giving his name as Thomas Ames, went to Amherst, secured board, and won his way into the confidence of several villagers. He remained about a fortnight, evincing his confidence in his acquaintances by borrowing nearly a hundred dollars in small sums from people simple enough to lend it to him. Going to Milton one day, on pretence of business, he hired a horse and carriage, and leaving town by a southerly road has forgotten to return, much to the grief of his too confiding friends in Amherst and Milton. He was traced to Chelmsford, Mass., where he exchanged the wagon for a "one horse shay," but beyond that he has, thus far, eluded pursuit.

☞ On Monday afternoon, the Union Senators agreed, it is understood, to pass the House resolution on reconstruction in the following form:

"Resolved, That a committee of fifteen members shall be appointed, nine of whom shall be from the House and six from the Senate, who shall inquire into the condition of the States which formed the so-called Confederate States of America, and report whether they, or any of them, are entitled to be represented in either house of Congress, with leave to report by bill or otherwise."

The resolution thus amended will not have to be presented to the President, neither will it go upon the Statute book, but it will be a simple rule establishing concurrent action. The concluding portions of the House resolution have been stricken out by the Senate, and each body will now judge of the qualification of individuals claiming membership; nor will debate be stopped in either body unless by action of its members.

CONGRESS.—On Monday, Mr. Eliot introduced a resolution into the House declaring: 1st, That the United States, as conquerors in war, now have the political power of the States recently in rebellion; 2d, That until action by Congress, the the President, as Commander-in-Chief, has authority to organize and maintain government within the said States; 3d, That the said States are not entitled to take part in the government of the United States until Congress shall, on such terms as it may prescribe, confer upon them the power to act; 4th, That, disclaiming all desire to impose hostile or burdensome conditions, and mindful only of an irreversible guaranty against future dissension or secession, and of plight-faith to all who have sided in the overthrow of the rebellion, we declare it to be one indisputable condition for the recognition of said States that their Constitutions should secure to all the inhabitants thereof equal rights before the law, without distinction of color or race.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 8th.

To show the feeling of the people here towards Northerners, it is only necessary to note few facts. A "poor white," engaged by a hotel proprietor as a man of all work, on Thanksgiving Day suspended work, for which he was taken to task, and asked if he was afraid of being arrested by the Yankee police. He wasn't afraid of that, but at the same time he wished it distinctly understood that he did not stop work for the purpose of attending church and hearing some d—d Yankee preach!

A member of the City Council said, at a meeting of that body, not long since, that he had "had enough of this infernal Yankee military rule, and was for immediately establishing a Southern Government, with Southern men to rule." It is proper to say, though, that the majority of the Council did not think it advisable to do without Yankee protection at present, and have requested Gen. Turner to continue his military police for the present.

At the hotels it is common talk to glory in disloyalty, and on every hand you hear, "Wait until we get into civil and political power, and then we will let the detested Yankees know whether we will have them among us or not." At the time of the execution of Wirz, it was a common thing for parties to drink to his memory at every prominent bar in the city.

A couple of ladies getting signers to a petition for the pardon of Jeff. Davis, called on a Union lady, and on her hesitating to sign it, one of them remarked that she "did not suppose that that horrid old creature, Mr. Johnson, would pardon Mr. Davis, and if she had her way, she would hang Johnson." Many other incidents which occur hourly, show the state of feeling here; and although they pretend and assert that they are whipped, and "accept the situation," still at the same time it is very apparent that they do so with a very bad grace, and if they are permitted to at once assume their former position, they will be as arrogant as ever.

About the first thing the Virginia Legislature did after organizing, was to present resolutions looking to the release and pardon of Jeff. Davis and R. M. T. Hunter. There has been a rumor circulating that Gen. Butler is to be military commandant here. He would undoubtedly be the best man to tame the turbulent spirits, that could be found. Truly Yours, R. C.

CAPE COD CENTRAL RAILROAD.—This road is now completed to Orleans, its terminus, 19 miles below Yarmouthport, and both passenger and freight trains began to run regularly on the 6th inst. The terminus of this road is within 30 miles of Provincetown at the end of Cape Cod. All the citizens of the lower towns on the Cape, as well as the general government, have an interest in continuing the road to Provincetown, since it would bring the extreme end of the cape within six hours of Boston; and Provincetown being a military station, it is desirable to have it completed to that point.

— There is now a continuous line of railroad from the capital of the Union to the capital of Kansas, about 1300 miles.

— Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is as healthy as purest flour; will prove a great saving in that article; is peculiarly adapted to benefit weak stomachs and dyspeptic persons; is much more healthy and economical than baking powders, and greatly preferred to soda to use with cream tartar. Grocers may say they have as good. They are mistaken. It is the best in the world. Try it. Most of the Grocers have it. Have the Gold Medal or none. 22

CAUTION TO DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.—We print the following, from the fact that the country is at present flooded with circulars of bogus claim agents located at Washington, who promise an additional bounty to all men enlisted in 1861 and 1862. The way they swindle is to write to men for their discharges for the purpose of getting them their bounties. Such parties as are inveigled into transmitting them, in due time receive a circular stating that their claim is allowed, and the soldier may have his bounty by remitting the stipulated fee—$25; this will be the last of the game.

Complimentary.—The following complimentary order, emanating from such eminent authority, must be a source of gratification to the parties to whom it is addressed; and it is undoubtedly an expression of the feeling of the people who have been saved the expense of the payment of fraudulent claims:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23, 1865.

SIR: This Department desires to express its acknowledgments to you for your energy in the prevention of a great fraud upon the Treasury. But for your prompt exposure to the Second Comptroller, of the proposals made to you by Hale and his associates, a vast sum might have been lost to the Government, or to individuals having claims on the Government, and the obligations due in the case to your intelligence and integrity are recognized and appreciated. I am, very respectfully, Your obed't serv't,

H. MCCULLOCH, Secretary.

JACOB LOWENTHAL, Esq., Washington, D. C.

The above is the agent of Messrs. Bufford & Rider of this city, Govt. Claim Agents, and may be considered as an endorsement of their business standing, altho' none is needed in our midst, where these gentlemen are known.

MAFFIT AND HOWELL.—These rebel personages, who arrived at Portland in the Hibernian, and were arrested by orders from Washington, were taken to Fort Warren on Thursday afternoon, according to orders.

HASHEESH! HASHEESH!

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.

THE HASHEESH CANDY

Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO., under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supercede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation or cure of

NERVOUSNESS, NEURALGIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE,

and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.

The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a 'multitude of afflictions.'" In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

Sold by all Druggists. Imported only by the

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death is the result and final issue. MAGGIEL'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all inflammations of the skin, MAGGIEL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

IMPURITIES.

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. What we have to do is to recover our health is to take out from the BOWELS AND THE CIRCULATION the excess of impurities. This done, health follows of necessity.

Portsmouth, Nov. 29, 1865.—1m

Local.

☞ The alarm of fire on Monday evening, which was given with a persistency and will which would have done credit to a city crier, was occasioned by the burning of a car-load of hemp or cordage on the P. S. & P. Railroad at Kittery Foreside. It is supposed that it caught fire from the sparks of the engine. It was speedily disposed of, however, without much damage, by tumbling it off the car by the side of the track. We learn that this cordage was designed for the Navy Yard, and if so, the loss will fall upon the contractors. We have not learned the amount of property destroyed.

MOVEMENT IN REAL ESTATE.—Engine House No. 6, recently sold, passed our office Tuesday noon, en route for the western part of the city, drawn by twenty yoke of oxen. It was hard starting it, and for a long time it seemed as though "all the king's oxen couldn't pull it up" Chestnut Hill.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 12th.—Wm. Claggett, Esq., was brought before the court on charge of trespass upon the woodland of Mark Scott, with intent to cut trees growing thereon. The case was continued until the 26th inst.

☞ We are glad to learn that Acting Master Charles W. Adams is not detached from the U. S. S. Vandalia, to which he has recently been ordered. The name should have been George W. Adams, whose place the former takes.

Commander A. Murray, formerly Executive officer at this Yard, has been detached from the steamer Rhode Island, and is awaiting orders.

We learn that orders have been received at this Yard, to prepare the steamer Mackinaw for sea immediately.

The name of the Boatswain recently ordered here to take charge of the Laborers's Department is Milne, and not Miles, as reported yesterday.

THE HORSE GUARDS have heretofore footed their own bills—though they have never gone on foot to parade; but the Governors they have honored with an escort, would have been obliged to do so, or furnish their own carriages, had not the Guards always provided them with a fine turn out at inauguration. But the battalion has spent say $20,000 in this way, for the State; and now they call upon the commonwealth to aid in the matter, as Massachusetts does the Lancers, &c.

And as the readiest and most legitimate way of doing this, it is proposed that the Horse Guards enlist in the Militia of New Hampshire, when, by the law of 1865, they will be furnished uniform and accoutrements, and the following "compensation:"

SEC. 2. The officers and soldiers of the volunteer militia shall be paid one dollar and a half each for attendance and performance of duty at the May training, and the same sum for the training required by law prior to the annual encampment.

SEC. 3. They shall each be paid one dollar and fifty cents per day for subsistence, attendance and performance of duty at any encampment, and five cents per mile for travel each way, to and from the place of encampment. For every horse required to be furnished, the same allowance of pay shall be made as for a man.

It would seem that now as little or no expense will attach to the "service," a full mounted Company ought to be raised in Portsmouth and vicinity. All interested are invited to meet at the Common Council Room on Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

☞ The Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad has declared a dividend of 3 per cent., payable Dec. 11.

COTTON SPECULATIONS.—The Boston Journal gives this amusing account of one lot of cotton goods sold five times in that city. The time commences with the first year of the war, 1861. A party in the city purchased one hundred bales of sheeting at eight cents a yard—100,000 yards in all, costing $8000. Within a year ensuing this lot was sold for forty cents a yard, thereby yielding a profit of $32,000. Party number two held it for another rise and sold out in another year at sixty cents a yard, realizing a profit of $20,000. Party number three held on awhile, and then sold at sixty-two cents to one who has been forced to keep it until within a short time, when the career of the one hundred bales came to its end at nineteen cents.

NEW YORK MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The Democrats saved their Mayor by a majority of 1500 in a vote of nearly 90,000, but they have lost the City Council, in which the Republicans have the ascendancy. Of the seven School Commissioners, the Republicans have elected their nominees in four districts.

☞ In arranging the Committees in the U. S. House of Representatives, Mr. Marston of New Hampshire is on the Committee on Naval Affairs, Patterson on Foreign Affairs, and Rollins on Public Expenditures and Accounts.

— The Round Table calls tin, wooden and glass weddings, benefit nights for married beggars.

☞ In the Massachusetts Supreme Court, at Boston, Monday, Chief Justice Bigelow set aside the verdict rendered a few months ago in favor of Leonard Sturtevant against A. H. Allen, because damages were so excessive that they showed the jury were governed by passion, prejudice or favor, or were improperly influenced, and that the defendant did not have an impartial trial. The verdict was on the first count $50 for injuring the general reputation or representing the plaintiff to be a secessionist; and on the second count $32,000 damages for causing him to be arrested and confined in Fort Lafayette. The Court would not allow the plaintiff to remit any portion of the verdict, but set it aside on both counts.

THE POOR OF RICHMOND.—The Richmond Whig says:

"We understand from good authority that since the 12th of last June the United States Commissary in this city has distributed to the destitute in our midst five hundred and twenty thousand four hundred rations per week, but that after the 15th instant the issue will be discontinued, and the entire poor turned over to the city authorities. How they are to be provided for after that time, heaven only knows."

— There were 100 gallons of real turtle soup consumed at the Lord Mayor of London's recent dinner.

ITS PHILOSOPHY.—Sozodont is an antacid. Sozodont is antiputrescent. Sozodont is a tonic. Sozodont is all vegetable and entirely harmless. Hence it cleanses the teeth from acetous concretions, stops the decomposition of their substance, sweetens the breath, stimulates the gums, and is the safest and best preparation of its class in existence. 18

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for village adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agriculture Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies.

THE TEETH.—As the period generally occupied by sleep is calculated to be about six or eight hours out of the twenty-four, it would greatly promote the healthful maintenance of the priceless pearls, whose loss or decay so greatly influences our appearance and our comfort, if we were to establish a habit of carefully cleaning them with a soft brush before going to bed. The small particles of food clogging the gums impede circulation, generate tartar and caries, and affect the breath. Think of an amalgamation of cheese, flesh, sweetness, fruit, etc., in a state of decomposition, remaining wedged between our teeth for six or seven hours; yet how few ever take the trouble to attend to this most certain cause of toothache, discoloration and decay!

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Caballa, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
I trust the world will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 23th, 1865.

THE NEW ZEALANDER.—A New Zealander must certainly be the most remarkable creature in existence. He combines every characteristic of the wild beast with the faculties of a civilized man. We call him a savage, and, as far as nudity, fierceness, and scarcely abandoned cannibalism can make him so, he is one, but no being of the human race is more intelligent. He can live on the mountains or in the bush like a wolf, but he meets his pursuers in military art. He manufactures excellent rifles out of old ships' muskets, and makes percussion caps out of soldiers' buttons.—He has never studied at a professional academy, but he is a greater master of the science of fortification than the average British engineer. If there was one thing that might have been expected of modern artillery, it was that it would render a Maori pah untenable; but the Maori sappers and miners counterplotted us in a moment, and added a work or two to their redoubts which completely defeated our Armstrong guns. Our soldiers actually respect them for their extraordinary talents and eminent valor. With all this, too, they are singularly given to rhetoric and debate. They would as soon talk as fight—sometimes even rather; and they display incredible proficiency in negotiations and conferences. We must add to this sketch of the New Zealander that though his real conceptions of religion would probably be satisfied by the African Fetish, he has contrived to make a conquest of Christian bishops and missionaries, insomuch that these good people support him with devout fidelity, even against their own fellow-countrymen and friends. London Times.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers for Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle-scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have Agents clearing $250 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant; for proof of the above send for circulars and see our terms. Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1865.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, Tuesday, Dec. 12, Mr. Anthony called up the House resolution of Mr. Stevens, for the appointment of a joint committee on the subject of the lately rebellious States, and moved to amend so as to make it concurrent instead of joint resolution; also omitting the last clause, which provides that until the report of said committee, no member of the lately rebellious States shall be received in either House. After debate, this amendment was adopted.

Mr. Saulsbury opposed the resolution, and called for the yeas and nays.

The resolution as amended was adopted, 33 to 11.

Mr. Cowan called up his resolution, calling upon the President for information whether the rebellion has been suppressed, Post Offices re-established, revenue being collected, &c.

Mr. Sumner offered the following amendment, which was adopted:

"And at the same to furnish the Senate copies of such reports as may be or have been received from officers and agents appointed to visit that portion of the Union lately in rebellion, including especially the report of Hon. John Covode and Maj. Gen. Schurz."

The resolution was adopted.

In the House, it was resolved that the Committee on Military Affairs be instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law for securing to soldiers who enlisted in 1861 and 1862, and who served the Government during the late war, such additional bounties as to make them as nearly as can be equal to those paid the soldiers who enlisted in 1864, according to their time of service.

Mr. Raymond rose to present certificates of the Tennessee members.

Mr. Stevens interposed a point of order that the State of Tennessee was not known to the House, which the Speaker overruled.

After a brief debate, the credentials were referred to the select committee on the so-called Confederate States. Yeas 126, nays 41.

A resolution to admit the Tennessecan members elect to the privileges of the floor pending the decision of their case was tabled, 90 to 63.

At a subsequent stage of the proceedings a resolution was passed that, until otherwise ordered, Mr. Maynard and the other Representatives from Tennessee be invited to take seats in the hall of the House of Representatives—yeas 138, nays 35.

Mr. Eldridge offered his resolution sustainining the President in his policy of reconstruction. The House, by a vote of 25 to 108, refused to second the demand for the previous question on its passage.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Senate Committee on the District of Columbia have resolved to urge universal suffrage in Washington City. Senator Morrill, the able Chairman of the Committee, was requested to examine the different bills referred to the committee, and draft a bill which will be presented in the Senate.

The publication of official army reports, which would, it is estimated, make all of twenty or thirty volumes, will probably be arrested, thus saving a million of dollars for badly digested and discordant material for history.

A letter from New Orleans states that the returned secessionists are collecting funds wherewith to erect a monument to to Mumford, who was executed by order of General Butler for pulling down the American Flag.

— The French papers tell of the baptismal dress of an infant in Paris, on which the embroidery and lace cost $18,000.

— Rev. H. M. Small, pastor of a Cincinnati church, is on trial upon sixteen several specifications for falsehood, preferred by his clerical brethren.

— A Free Will Baptist church in Chicago, which cost $14,000, was dedicated on Thursday, but took fire and was entirely consumed within an hour from the close of the ceremony.

— Fitz Simmons, a festive youth, went to dance the other night in Detroit, and having a large sum of money, deposited it it for safe-keeping in his boot. Leaving the boot in the dressing-room while he tripped the "fantastic toe" in pumps, he only found the boot remaining when he be returned for it.

— In case of Executors of the late A. D. Enson against the Hartford and New Haven Railroad, the Supreme Court have awarded damages to amount of $8000 to each of the heirs. Mr. and Mrs. Enson were killed by a railroad accident in Berlin, Conn., in 1864.

— Col. Taggart, Collector of Internal Revenue for the 1st district of Pennsylvania, has seized 100,000 cigars and 56 barrels of whiskey, as liable to forfeiture for being offered for sale without the internal revenue tax having been paid thereon, and proceedings against the same have been commenced.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Gov. Smyth is at Washington attending a meeting of the corporators of the National Asylum for Soldiers and Sailors, and to the unsettled military claims of New Hampshire.

—— Two farmers in Bow disagreed about a balance of accounts, one claiming $7.11, the other $15.50. The former sued. Result—forty witnesses and an array of counsel; verdict for plaintiff, $3.27; whole expenses about $1000.

—— The Claremont Advocate states that on Monday afternoon of last week, Frank L., son of Mr. George Fitch, while at play with one of the neighboring children, was hit on the side of the head by a small stone and so severely injured that he died at 5 o'clock the next morning.

—— The store of C. C. Hayes, of Lisbon Village, was broken open on the night of Nov. 26th, and robbed of a pocket book, containing $100 in cash, besides notes. On Thursday night the pocket book, with its contents all safe, was returned upon the doorstep. Conscience troubled the thief, perhaps.

—— At Manchester, on Tuesday, Hon. John Hosely, the present incumbent, was re-elected Mayor over Capt. Joseph B. Clark. The former ran as the "Citizens'," the latter as the "soldiers'" candidate. The Republican ticket was successful in all the wards but No 4. The vote stood 1037 for Hosely to 972 for Clark: Hosley's plurality, 65.

GEORGIA.—The Savannah Herald states that the Georgia House of Representatives has passed a resolution ratifying the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, and the Senate next day adopted the same resolution.

Alex. H. Stephens peremptorily declined a candidacy for the United States Senate.

C. J. Jenkins, recently elected Governor of Georgia, sent a communication to the Legislature on the 8th, declining to be inaugurated at present, and appointing the 15th of January for that purpose. He suggested that the Legislature take a recess until then.

Provisional Governor Johnson had issued a proclamation on the 5th, declaring S. Cohen P. Cook, H. Buchanan, E. G. Cabanniss, and W. P. Wofford elected to Congress, and adds: "I do further declare that as at present advised no certificates will be given them."

Nothing is said in the proclamation about the election of Governor.

The Savannah Herald contains Provisional Governor Johnson's message to the Legislature, in which he entreats them to bring forward their prejudices and animosities and offer them as a sacrifice upon the altar of our common country, that we may once again present the happy spectacle of brethren dwelling together in unity.

The House of Representatives instructed the Judiciary Committee to report bills giving to persons of color the rights of property, the right to sue and be sued, and the right to testify in Court.

A resolution has been introduced in the Legislature appointing Commissioners to visit Washington and ascertain what steps are necessary for Georgia to secure the organization of the State and their rights and privileges as citizens once more of the United States.

ROBBERS PROPERLY SENTENCED.—In the Superior Court, Boston, criminal session, Judge Russell presiding, the following sentences were imposed: Charles Stanley alias Albert M. Nickerson (otherwise known as the wooden armed garroter of Chelsea), convicted of assaulting Charles White in that city with intent to rob, was sentenced to twenty-five years hard labor in the State Prison.

Jeremiah Hayes (minor) convicted of robbing by force and violence a man named Flaherty of $10 and a pair of boots, was sentenced to twelve years hard labor in the State Prison.

— Roger A. Pryor of Virginia is now practicing law in New York.

— On Friday night, near Middleboro', Mass., an unknown man was killed by falling between two railroad cars, as he stepped from one to the other. He was supposed to be intoxicated. On arrival of the train at Fall River, a similar accident occurred.

— Senator Morgan is preparing a bill, granting invalid naval pensioners the same pensions allowed for like disabilities incurred in the army. As the law now stands, seamen who have lost both arms, both eyes or both legs in the service, get only eight dollars per month, while soldiers receive twenty-five dollars.

— Mrs. Thomas Houghton, of Feltonville, Mass., left a store in that village, at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, for home; but not arriving, her family and neighbors sought her in vain. In the morning the search was renewed, and she was found dead, leaning over a stone wall, where she had bent down, affected probably by heart disease. Her friends had passed and repassed within six feet of her, but in the storm and darkness they did not see her.

A SHARP GAME.—A few days before Thanksgiving, a young man of good address went to New Haven and made all arrangements for a concert by the New York Minstrel corps, on Thanksgiving evening. When the evening came, a good audience came with it, and filled the hall. Said audience waited patiently until patience was exhausted, and as no performers appeared, some of the audience proceeded to investigate. The examination elicited the fact that there were no Minstrels, and what was more, the "agent" had gone off with $100 or $200 collected at the door, leaving audience, landlord, printers, bill poster, and so forth, to meditate upon the uncertainty of all sublunary things. The last song on the programme circulated in the hall was, "Who will find us now?"—a selection that did credit to the wit and cheek of the vagabond who perpetrated the joke.

☞ Mrs. Lydia Scott, of Newport, R. I., was terribly burned by the explosion of a kerosene lamp on Thursday morning last. The Providence Press says she was in the room alone, the other members of the family being on another floor, but her cries soon brought a female domestic to her assistance, who had in her arms an infant child of Mrs. Scott's, about six weeks old, which in her fright and confusion she threw into its mother's arms, all burning as she was, and rushing to a street window, cried fire. This brought assistance from the street, and a soldier from Fort Adams, taking off his coat, threw it around the suffering woman, thus extinguishing the flames. Mrs. Scott died at half-past ten same night. The infant will probably survive.

THE STAY LAW OF MISSISSIPPI.—The stay law of Mississippi, passed over the Governor's veto, declares that all laws for the collection of debts on bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, open accounts, or any other contract or liability for the payment of money, are suspended until the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, or until otherwise ordered by law, except in cases of official liabilities, and provided that no creditor shall be deprived of his remedy by attachment or distress, as now provided by law.

WHERE ARE THE METALLIC THREE CENT PIECES?—The cent and two cent coins are as plentiful as blanks in a lottery; but where the copper and nickel three cent pieces are stowed away is a mystery that probably no one but a coin broker or a miser solve. Since the 1st of June this year seven millions four hundred thousand of these much desired coin have been issued from the United States mint in Philadelphia, and yet they are as seldom seen as a double eagle. Those who are hoarding them will profit by bringing them out, for their metal value is less than half a cent, and Congress by and by may take a notion to repudiate them.—N. Y. Herald.

The present Congress will surely take no such notion. But the fools who have hoarded them will surely bring them out by and by. Why they have been hoarded, we suppose they cannot tell:—no reason can be given for it but the ignorance or stupidity of the hoarders.

— The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is one of those articles that should be in every household, and the lady who neglects to furnish herself or domestics with it, loses a boon which it will be impossible to find a substitute for. It takes less in quantity, and washes as no other soap can do. It makes rough hands smooth, and softens and whitens the skin, as well as making clothes look so white. Try it. 22

FALL IN GRAIN.—A Chicago dispatch says that the fall in grain last week aggregated twenty cents per bushel, and hence the failures which have recently taken place among the grain merchants of that city.

— The store of Balcom & Co., at Lawrence, Mass., was entered on Monday night, and robbed of silks, furs, and alpaccas, worth $3000.

— General Grant returns in excellent health from his Southern trip, which was not extended to Rio Grande, as the gold operators announced.

— Bernard M. Hall, of Providence, attempted to walk from River Point to that place on Thanksgiving day, having missed the train, but became exhausted, and was found the next morning by the roadside in Cranston, just dead. He was a returned soldier, partially disabled, and scarcely able to travel.

— On Thanksgiving day, in the afternoon, Mr. Reuben Townsend, residing in the west part of the town of Wilton, Me., committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn. He was a preacher of the Baptist denomination, and was one of the most respected citizens of the town. He was in good circumstances.

— A Charleston paper takes satisfaction in saying that General Grant on his recent visit in that city "was quietly received by the military authorities. The negroes and Northern citizens turned out in considerable numbers to see the General, but native Charlestonians all turned their faces persistently toward the business portion of the city as the hour for his arrival approached. A few merchants, mostly 'Yankees', invited the distinguished guest to dinner at the Charleston Hotel, but he declined for want of time."

— Bishop Hopkins of Vermont is now making a tour through the Southern States for the purpose of delivering lectures in behalf of such charitable objects as the citizens of the different points at which he speaks may designate.

CAUTION TO DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.—We print the following, from the fact that the country is at present flooded with circulars of bogus claim agents located at Washington, who promise an additional bounty to all men enlisted in 1861 and 1862. The way they swindle is to write to men for their discharges for the purpose of getting them their bounties. Such parties as are inveigled into transmitting them, in due time receive a circular stating that their claim is allowed, and the soldier may have his bounty by remitting the stipulated fee—$25; this will be the last of the game.

Complimentary.—The following complimentary order, emanating from such eminent authority, must be a source of gratification to the parties to whom it is addressed; and it is undoubtedly an expression of the feeling of the people who have been saved the expense of the payment of fraudulent claims:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23, 1865.

SIR: This Department desires to express its acknowledgments to you for your agency in the prevention of a great fraud upon the Treasury, but for your prompt exposure to the Second Comptroller, of the proposals made you by Babe and his associates, a vast sum might have been lost to the Government, or to individuals having claims on the Government, and the obligations due in the case to your intelligence and integrity are recognized and appreciated. I am, very respectfully, Your obed't serv't,

H. McCULLOCH, Secretary.

JACOB LOWENTHAL, Esq., Washington, D.C.

The above is the agent of Messrs. Bufford & Rider of this city, Govt. Claim Agents, and may be considered as an endorsement of their business standing, altho' none is needed in our midst, where these gentlemen are known.

HASHEESH! HASHEESH!

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science

THE HASHEESH CANDY

Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO., under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supercede, all other Medicines now used for the prevention or cure of

NERVOUSNESS, NEURALGIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE,

and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.

The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and in the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a 'multitude of afflictions.'" In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

Lyon's Periodical Drops!

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES.

These Drops are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Nostrums. Being liquid, their action is direct and positive, rendering them a reliable, speedy and certain specific for the cure of all obstructions and suppressions of nature. Their popularity is indicated by the fact that over 100,000 bottles are annually sold and consumed by the ladies of the United States, every one of whom speak in the strongest terms of praise of their great merits. They are rapidly taking the place of every other Female Remedy, and are considered by all who know aught of them, as the surest, safest and most infallible preparation in the world, for the cure of all female complaints, the removal of all obstructions of nature, and the promotion of health, regularity and strength. Explicit directions stating when they may be used, and explaining when and why they should not, nor could not be used without producing effects contrary to nature's chosen laws, will be found carefully folded around each bottle, with the written signature of Jonathan L. LYON, without which none are genuine. Price $1.00.

Prepared by Dr. JOHN L. LYON, 195 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn., who can be consulted either personally, or by mail, (enclosing stamp,) concerning all private diseases and female weaknesses. Price $1.50 per bottle.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored patches show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $3 per bottle. Call for

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

IMPURITIES.

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. THAT FIRE ONCE MORE.—Messrs. Editors: Will you permit me through your columns to correct a slight typographical error or a slip of my pen in my letter of last Saturday week to the Chronicle, by substituting the word "used" for the word "said"; although to me it is almost as possible that the recent fire in Congress Block caught from some incendiary talk, as from the causes suggested by Dr. Preston. I should have made this correction earlier had I not been absent from town during Thanksgiving week.

And with a word more, I too will close all controversy about the origin of this fire. The theory of Dr. Preston seems to be that I empted the ashes of my pipe into the spittoon, and hence the fire. This I most unequivocally deny. I smoked my pipe in the office that evening a few minutes after I came from tea, but not for three hours at least before leaving the office, and there was no other smoking in the office that evening. Neither did I empty the contents of my pipe into the spittoon, which was not used by any one during that evening, or removed from its place in the corner of the office remotest from the spot where the fire was discovered in the store below. It was my invariable custom to rake over the spittoon when leaving the office last at night, the propriety of so doing having been suggested to me when I first entered Mr. F.'s office.

The last witness whom Dr. Preston brings forward must either have been mistaken, or the fire must have changed its locality in an incredibly short space of time; for it is the unanimous testimony of all those who came immediately after the fire (not excepting even the Dr. himself) that when they got there, no light was to be seen in the second story.

And I close, as did the Dr., with no feelings of ill will towards any one, and with the high regard for him which I have found during my short residence in town, that he merits; because if he has evinced any want of generosity in thus attempting to shadow the responsibility of the fire upon myself, yet I find a justification of his course as well as a denial of his theory, in this passage of scripture, (slightly altered) "Man is born unto" error, "as the sparks fly upward."

J. B. BUTLER.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—Yesterday morning, after a sermon of rare power, urging upon the laity the importance of church work, Rev. Wm. E. Armitage, Rector of St. John's Parish, announced that he had declined the most flattering call to St. Mark's Parish, Philadelphia, and would remain with the parish he had founded and built up into such marked temporal and spiritual prosperity. No announcement could have been more welcome to his congregation, who entertain for him uncommon esteem and affection. A murmur of congratulation spread through the congregation upon the announcement, and more than one person was overcome by strong emotion. Every member of the parish would have felt in his departure a personal loss. The circumstances of the refusal of the Philadelphia call are remarkable. The parish is one of the richest and most influential in the country—two assistants were offered by the Rector of St. John's, unlimited means for church work and a wide field of usefulness. It was a most alluring invitation for a clergyman of the ability, rising reputation and natural prospects of prosperity and preferment possessed by Mr. Armitage; but from motives that can only be sought in a single devotion to his Master's work, a consecration and prayerful discharge of all possible obligations to his present field of labor, he refused them all. We may say here, that Mr. Armitage had been previously invited to occupy and declined three positions, including two in New York city and one in Brooklyn, almost equally attractive with that offered by St. Mark's, Philadelphia. The whole clerical profession is elevated in popular esteem by such action as this.—Detroit paper.

[Mr. Armitage is remembered in Portsmouth, as a modest, unassuming Assistant Minister of St. John's Church, when Dr. Burroughs was Rector. The offer which he has just declined was tempting as well as flattering, viz. a fine Church, $5000 a year salary, and two assistants. It gives us pleasure to copy, as above, the honorable record he is making for himself in his present location.]

DEATH OF A CLERGYMAN.—Rev. A. M. Bridge, of Hampton Falls, died quite suddenly at Marshfield, Mass., on Monday, at which place he had been supplying the pulpit of the Unitarian Church for several months past. His funeral services will be held at the Unitarian Church in Hampton Falls, of which he was for many years pastor, this (Thursday) afternoon, Rev. Messrs. DeNormandie of this city and Learned of Exeter officiating.

☞ Liverpool dates to Nov. 30 say there is no news of Stephens, the Fenian Head Centre of Ireland. The Governor of the prison from which he escaped has been suspended.—The Fenian trials are progressing.—Capt. Corbett, who commanded the pirate Shenandoah at the time of her transfer, is being tried at Queenstown for breach of the foreign enlistment act.

GOLD, Wednesday, 145 1-4. Sent to Liverpool $362,400.

GEN. GRANT'S VISIT SOUTH.—A Washington item says:

Gen. Grant had an interview with the President, and communicated his observations during his Southern trip. He was everywhere respectfully received. The majority of the negroes are idle and refuse to make contracts before Christmas, believing that a division of property will take place at that time. The Southerners are willing to comply with any demands the President may consider necessary for their restoration to the Union.

Per contra, we see another item, which says:—

The reception of Gen. Grant at Savannah seems to have been rather a tame affair. Says the Republican, in concluding a description of it: "Thus ended the tame event of the season—the visit of Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant to the commercial emporium of Georgia. We never remember witnessing so cold, inanimate and cheerless a reception as was tendered the great military hero of the age, and we were led to exclaim, 'Sic transit gloria mundi.'"

It does not surprise us at all, that defeated rebels and disappointed traitors should be sulky toward the instrument of their defeat and disappointment.

— The Secretary of War informed the Mississippi and Louisiana Representatives elect that he should send General Humphreys to examine the levees on the banks of the Mississippi river, and direct their repair, on the ground that those States are now under military government.

— The Sergeant-at-Arms of the Louisiana Senate is without legs, the Door-keeper of the House without arms, the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House are both on crutches. Despite these misfortunes, these gentlemen all prove very efficient, capable and acceptable officers.

— A street car conductor in Detroit jumped off the other day to recover a tobacco box, while waiting on the switch, and was caught by a passing car and crushed to death between the two.

— False repentance has grief of mind and humiliation only for great and glaring offences, until it supposes pardon for them is obtained. True repentance is a continued war against sin, a permanent inward shame for its defilements, till death sounds a retreat.

RELIANCE.—We deem it to be our duty to say to our readers, that the most implicit reliance can be placed in Coe's Cough Balsam. It will cure your children of croup, and yourself of any cough, cold, sore throat, or pulmonary affection. It is the cheapest and best preparation in the market.

Dyspepsia can be surely and permanently cured by Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. Thousands of dyspeptics are sending in their testimonials to the proprietors, saying it has cured them. We say to those who are suffering from dyspepsia, constipation, sour stomach, or any disorder of the stomach or bowels, give it a trial. d11—copaw1w

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in Fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. nl—dawém

WANT OF DECISION.—A great deal of labor is lost to the world for the want of a little courage. Every day sends to their graves a number of obscure men, who have only remained in obscurity because their timidity has prevented them from making a first effort, and who, if they had only been induced to begin, would in all probability have gone great lengths in the career of fame. The fact is, that in doing anything in the world worth doing, we must not stand shivering on the bank, thinking of the cold and danger, but jump in and scramble through as well as we can. It will not do to be perpetually calculating risks and adjusting nice chances; it did very well before the flood, when a man could consult his friends upon an intended publication for a hundred and fifty years, and live to see its success for six or seven centuries afterward; but at present a man waits and doubts, and consults his brothers, and his uncles, and his particular friends, till one day he finds that he is sixty-five years old, that he has lost so much time in consulting first cousins and particular friends that he has now no time to follow their advice. There is so little time at present for over-squeamishness, that the opportunity slips away. The very period of life at which a man chooses to venture, if ever, is so confined, that it is no bad rule to preach up the necessity, in such instances, of a little violence done to the feelings, and efforts made in defiance of strict and sober calculations.—Sidney Smith.

— In boring the side of a mountain near Sheffield, Pa., they penetrated a coal bed eleven feet thick. This is about thirty miles nearer Lake Erie than so workable a bed has yet been found.

— An enthusiastic French wine merchant has recently printed a book, which is dedicated "to the drinkers of all countries," and having for its motto, "I pity the water drinker; I blame the drunkard." The writer holds it one of the virtues of good claret that one may drink a good deal of it; he considers eight different glasses to be required for each guest at a respectable dinner!

S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.

This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supervede all other Well Pumps now in use.

ITS ADVANTAGES.

FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.

SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.

THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.

FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.

FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every trick.

SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

☞ Manufactured by S. VANCE & CO., No. 31 Liberty Street, Newburyport, and for sale in Portsmouth by the Sole Agents for N. H.,

ISRAEL MARDEN & CO.,
39 Congress Street.

☞ We are permitted to refer to Mr. MONROE HOLMES and to Mr. FRANK W. MILLER of the Daily Chronicle, who have these new Pumps in use on their premises,—for testimony of their excellence.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

FARRANT & CO.

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialla, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity, to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and respecting my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

VOL. XXVII. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. FRIDAY, DEC. 15, 1865 : 349. No. 143.

Morning Chronicle.

PHOTOGRAPHS AS DETECTIVES.—A stranger came to the Elm House in Andover, recently, for a night's lodging. He was respectable enough in his appearance, and when morning came, ate his breakfast and paid his bill in an orthodox manner. He casually remarked to the proprietor, while doing so, that he would go over to Lawrence. "Very well," said the proprietor, "I'll go with you." The guest asked in some astonishment what that meant. The astonishment was perhaps heightened by the fact that the proprietor is one of the constables of the town. In reply he was shown a warrant for his arrest and his own photograph. It appears that years ago he was a resident of Andover; had gone to New York, where he served in the capacity of clerk; and had stolen seventeen hundred dollars and decamped, finding his way back to his native town, where he supposed himself forgotten. The New York detectives, thinking such a turn of affairs not improbable, had forwarded the warrant and the photograph, that they might be on hand to welcome him.—Transcript.

— Clark & Brother, merchants at Lafayette, Indianna, have had a judgment entered against them for $4000 for injuries received by a lady whose foot slipped through a defective grating in front of their store.

— The New Orleans Bee is authorized to announce that an agency will soon be opened in that city to accept propositions from planters for a certain number of Asiatic immigrants, Hindoos or Chinese.

— Some Kansas men in Washington instituted a search for the infamous Quantrell, reported to have arrived in that city, intending to shoot him at sight, but could not find him. It is said that the wretch died at Louisville just before the close of the war, from wounds received in a fight with Union soldiers.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE.
These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!
Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. In the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,
For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicide. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!
It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies
Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that usually triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS
Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.
They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders
And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS
Invariably Cure the Following Diseases:
Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,
Dyspepsia,
Diarrhœa,

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1865.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, Dec. 12, a joint resolution, embracing two amendments to the Constitution, that no State can abolve its citizens from allegiance to the United States, and prohibiting the holding of any Convention by any State for the subversion of the U. S. Government, was referred to the Com. on the Judiciary.

The resolution relative to employment of disloyal persons by the Treasury Department, was amended so as to include all Departments, and passed.

A long debate occurred on the bill abnulling all laws in the recent insurrectionary States based upon any inequality of civil rights arising from race or color.

IN THE HOUSE, after debate on the resolution relative to the rights, &c., of colored soldiers, the motion to table was disagreed to—43 yeas to 18 nays. It was then referred to a select committee of fifteen.

A bill was referred to the Com. on Military Affairs, extending the benefit of the bounty land act of March 3, 1845, to all soldiers, sailors and seamen who served during the late war.

The Com. on the Judiciary were instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law for the adoption of the eight hour system of labor in all matters and places to which the jurisdiction of Congress extends, and report by bill or otherwise.

Also, to consider the expediency of reporting an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall provide substantially that no State shall make any distinction in the exercise of the elective franchise on account of race or color.

EMIGRATION OF WOMEN.—Mr. A. L. Mercer, being disappointed of having U. S. government vessels to convey female passengers to Washington Territory,—has found friends who have bought a good steamer for that purpose;—and he now gives notice that the steamship Continental will sail from New York, on Wednesday, the 20th of December, direct for Seattle, W. T. Rate of passage, $200. Orphan and poor girls can have passage by advancing $75, 150 lbs. baggage free, all over that amount 3 cents per lb. Only a few vacancies left. None but those of good moral character need apply.

☞ The New York Times says that the sum of $10,000 is to be put at the disposal of George T. Downing, for his use in representing the interests of the blacks at Washington this winter; that the colored men of Louisiana are to raise $10,000 for their delegate, and that it is proposed by the colored men in New York to send Fred. Douglass with the same amount to Washington. These delegates are to establish a bureau at the capital to obtain and disseminate information respecting the needs of their race.

GOLD, Thursday, 145 1-4.

— An influential public meeting held in Manchester, strongly denounced the severe proceedings in Jamaica, and sent a deputation with a memorial to Earl Russell, who admitted the urgent necessity for inquiry, and evinced an anxious desire for the vindication of justice.

— At the examination in Jersey City of parties connected with bounty frauds, testimony was given that one hundred and twenty thousand dollars were divided between a firm of bounty brokers and one Marcus Cicero Stanley, the latter an employee of Baker, the War Department detective.

— Miss Reeve, a young English lady, who had for three years voluntarily carried on a great educational work among the poor children of Naples, recently fell a victo the cholera in that city.

— A new paper will shortly be started in Memphis to represent and advocate the policy and principles of the extreme wing of the Republican party. Gen. Eaton, late of the Freedmen's Bureau, is said to be at the head of the concern.

— The returns from all the conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Northern States, and also from some conferences in California, Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, &c., but not from any of the late rebel States, show that the membership of the denomination in 1865 was 929,259.

—The Dutch Ambassador at Washington has made a piteous appeal for an increase of pay, on the ground of the increase of the cost of living in this country, stating that he is so hard up that he is obliged to give up his establishment and take lodgings over a barber's shop; but the government of the Netherlands have refused his reasonable request.

— As an instance of perseverance, which was finally crowned by success in business, Mr. Edward F. Tilden, the East Boston Shipbuilder, stated at the labor hearing last week, that he had worked as a laborer in a ship yard for twenty-one years, during which time he had been absent from the yard but twice.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—Last week, Moses Emerson, a blacksmith at Deerfield Parade, had his right ear bitten off close to his head by a fractious horse he was engaged in shoeing.

—— Captain Clark, the defeated candidate for Mayor in Manchester, N. H., has entered a protest against the election of his opponent, as "he believes that a majority of the votes cast for Mayor was cast for him," and that the return of votes from one of the wards (five) was fraudulent and illegal.

—— George Canning Williams, eldest son of the late Gov. Williams, died in Lancaster, on Sunday, Dec. 10, of paralysis of the lungs, at the age of 38 years. Mr. Williams was a lawyer, having had an extensive business—also Cashier of the White Mountains Bank, from its organization up to May last.

FAMILY THANKSGIVING PARTY.—J. T. G. Dinsmore, Esq., of Derry, had a family party on Thanksgiving Day, which consisted of twelve children—seven sons and five daughters. One of the sons preached a Thanksgiving discourse in the Methodist church, and the rest of the children furnished the singing and instrumental music. The ages of the children vary from 18 to 39. The aggregate weight of the sons was 1216 pounds, or 176 each; of the daughters, 750 pounds, or 150 pounds each.—Monitor.

☞ A New Orleans correspondent writes that never before was the Crescent city so well filled with people, and at no time in its history was the population so large. It is estimated that at least 75,000 strangers are now there, a large number of them being from the North. I do not include the army in this number, but only the pleasure seekers, health seekers or travellers who have come to spend the winter. They are generally well supplied with funds, and spend their money freely. This makes a good retail business, and puts a good deal of money in circulation. Greenbacks are plentiful, and seem to have so little value, that I wonder how they can be kept at the present figure. People here, as well as in Texas, begin to dislike paper money, and desire to return to a gold basis. I know several persons who do all their trading in gold, and a few days since was shown, as a sign of the the times, three letters from Texas merchants demanding gold for cotton they offered for sale. The presence of a large number of English commercial men has probably a good deal to do with this feeling about currency.

— The Adjutant General of Mississippi has issued an order to the captains of the recently organized militia companies, directing them, by order of the Governor, to disarm the negroes within their own company beats. He says:

"In the execution of this order you will abstain from all unnecessary violence, but should you meet with any resistance you will use sufficient force to accomplish your object."

Under this order, honorably discharged veterans, who purchased the weapons with which they conquered treason, are being forced to surrender them to unrepentant rebels, who are reorganizing their armed forces.

☞ The National Temperance Society and Publication House, intend to publish a monthly paper called the National Temperance Advocate, and another called the Youth's Temperance Banner, also tracts; employ lecturers, &c. Rev. J. Dunn, N. Y., is Secretary; J. N. Stearns, New York, is publishing agent.

COTTON STEALING.—The Memphis Bulletin reports numerous cases of theft of government cotton, and says not less than ten thousand bales of government cotton have been fraudulently stolen from along the line of the Mobile and Ohio railroad during the last three months. The government officers are now investigating many of these transactions. The cotton burned at Memphis about two months ago did not exceed 700 bales, although it was reported at 3000 bales.

☞ Among the reasons given by General Howard why the Freedmen's Bureau should not be discontinued, are the following: The general want of mutual confidence between the planters and the freedmen is continually producing difficulties which render the interposition of the Bureau necessary. The rights of the freedmen are not safe unless there is a power present to protect them. The whites having, in some of the States, made apparent concessions to the freedmen for the purpose of effecting their own restoration to power, they need watching, which can only be effected by the Bureau.

— It is becoming more and more evident every day, that a terrible retribution now awaits the manufacturers of the unhealthy compounds denominated Saleratus, Baking Powders, &c. Since Herrick, Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has been introduced, we are happy to state he has and is still working great revolutions for good. We would say to all our readers to try one paper, and they will say with us, the half has not been told. Our better half says, tell everybody to use it.

— They are trying to find a young man in Chicago who is heir to $100,000. Several young ladies in other cities are looking for one just like him.

MEXICO, FRANCE AND THE U. S.—It is said that the Emperor Napoleon a short time since addressed a letter direct to the Secretary of State, asking for the recognition by the United States of Maximilian's government as a government de facto. The ground upon which he based his request was, that it had maintained itself for nearly two years, and was therefore entitled to such recognition. It is said that the Secretary of State has replied to the note, and that he emphatically declines to accede to the request, and gives at length the reasons therefor. He denies that it is a government de facto; that the people of the United States are pledged against any such recognition, if there is any ground for it, which there is not; that from the best information obtainable from that distracted country, the Liberal party have not yielded obedience, and do not mean to, but on the contrary their cause is in the ascendant. This prompt reply, taken with the action of both Houses of Congress, in regard to the position of the Government, will probably open the eyes of the Emperor.

THE FENIANS.—It was once remarked by a Captain of one of the Maine Light Batteries, that his Battery was different from the other troops of Maine, for the other "troops had to be trained to fight"—his, on the contrary, were fighting men when enlisted. This appears to be the case with the Fenian Brotherhood. Their avowed purpose is the revolution of Ireland—by force of arms, if need be. Just now the New York papers are full of a quarrel between the President and Treasurer of the Fenian Congress, and the Senate. It appears that the Senate have seceded from the President and Treasurer; have drawn up charges and specifications against them, for misappropriation of funds and bribery, and on these charges and specifications they have been tried and found guilty. A new President has been chosen, and now each party claims to be the true Fenian Head. It is a sort of Mexican way of doing business—a revolution within a revolution. The Congress meets again in January.

— The Special Commission for the trial of the Fenians opened in Dublin on the 27th. The trial of Luby was progressing, the charge being treason and felony.

LONDON ITEMS, Dec. 2.—Mr. Bright has been making a strong reform speech at Blackburn. He denounced in unmeasured terms the massacre in Jamaica, and held the Governor and his accomplices responsible for the murder, and predicted that they would not appear at the bar of justice.

The Fenian trials were progressing. Luby, the proprietor of the Irish People, has been found guilty and sentenced to twenty years penal servitude.

The Morning Post states that Stephens the Fenian Head Centre, has arrived in Paris.

In the Court of Queen's Bench, the trial of Captain Corbett on the charge of selling the Shenandoah to the rebels and enlisting men for her, resulted in his acquittal. The Times says it cannot affect to be disappointed at the aquittal of Capt Corbett, the neutrality laws having been so executed as almost to defy legal retribution.

☞ In the Book of Proverbs, ch. 11, v. 26, we read "He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it." Now we read in a neighboring paper, this item:

A number of the wheat speculators in Chicago have, within the last few days, come to grief, and no one will regret their ruin. During the last six months they have succeeded in keeping wheat far above its legitimate price, thus robbing the poor, and by holding back for higher prices they have also prevented the export of grain to Europe, where there was a demand for it at a price at which it could be well afforded, and in this way they have helped to keep the balance of trade against this country, and thus raised the price of all other articles. We hope that more of these speculators in the staff of life will speedily be found among the list of bankrupt.

☞ Messrs. Ticknor & Fields of Boston announce, for publication, on the 6th of January, the first number of a new journal of popular reading entitled "Every Saturday." The work is designed to furnish American readers with the cream of the latest foreign periodical literature of the higher class. The English and continental magazines are the acknowled organs of the leading writers of the day—their short cut to the great reading public; but these publications, by reason of their number and price, are beyond the reach of the general reader on this side of the Atlantic. "Every Saturday" proposes to remedy this by placing before the public, at a trifling cost, a weekly summary of foreign literature, collated from the best sources. The journal will be edited by Thomas Bailey Aldrich, formerly of this city. The Boston Advertiser pronounces Mr. Aldrich a gentleman of much literary taste and ability, apart from his poetical talent, and deems Messrs. Ticknor & Fields very fortunate in securing his services. Each number will contain thirty-two large octavo pages, printed in double columns.

SOUTHERN RECONSTRUCTION.—A lawsuit in New Orleans has developed the peculiar ideas of the rebels on practical reconstruction in a manner not very indicative of returning loyalty. We find the following reference to it in a letter to the Cinnatti Gazette from New Orleans:

"When New Orleans fell, some of the coast and river pilots went off with the rebels, while others remained and did service, whenever engaged, on United States vessels. The last have, of course, been here ever since. The others have been gradually returning through the summer and resuming their occupation. At last they found themselves in the majority; whereupon, in a certain Pilot's Association, they proceeded to resolve that those pilots who had remained in New Orleans during the war, and had done service on United States vessels when required, should not be recognized by the Association, and that vessels that hereafter employ them should in like manner be tabooed. Not satisfied with this, through their relations to the insurance companies, they effected an arrangement by which any vessel employing these tabooed pilots should be refused insurance."

— Turkeys are sold alive in New Orleans. The Picayune says: "This custom of selling turkeys, in a drove, is peculiar to New Orleans, at least in this country. We never saw it in other cities. It is one of the peculiar institutions of our city which are left to us."

HASHEESH! HASHEESH!

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.

THE HASHEESH CANDY

Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO., under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supercede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation or cure of

NERVOUSNESS, NEURALGIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE,

and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.

The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations it is most extensively employed for a 'multitude of afflictions.'" In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

Local.

FIRE broke out in Mr. Woodbury Locke's Livery Stable, on State Street, about half-past 8 o'clock Thursday evening, from some unknown cause; and the large wooden building, with the entire contents, including twelve horses, carriages, harnesses, &c., were in a hour reduced to a heap of ashes. The stable was formerly a meeting-house in Rye, and was taken down and rebuilt here several years ago. It was the property of A. L. Jenness & Co. of Deerfield, N. H., and was probably insured.

Mr. Locke we were told went to Boston Thursday afternoon; and we could not learn whether any person was in the stable at the time or not. The fire evidently began in the front of the building, and it was here the office and stove were located; and the horses and carriages being in the rear, with no possible back exit, all were lost.—Ten of the animals were Mr. Locke's, and on his entire stock he has about $4000 insurance in the N. Y. Home Co. The other two teams belonged one each to Mr. J. C. Carr and Thos. Tredick.

The premises next were the residence of Mr. Leonard Akerman, and his frame barn was destroyed and the house much damaged. Insured in the Etna Co.

The Christian Church, close in the rear, on Court Street, was considerably damaged by fire and water. Insured $1500 by Mr. Harvey.

At one time it looked fair for a great conflagration; but our efficient fire department, and citizens generally, exerted themselves nobly, and stopped it. The house of Mr. T. S. Nowell was on fire several times, and his furniture and that of Mr. Aaron Young and other near residents was removed. We should set the total loss as high as $20,000.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 14.—People who do not patronize the public prints often find out, when too late, that they have paid very dearly for their whistle. We have been advertising coal as low as $12 per ton for some time, but Stickney Page and Chas. Smith seem not to have known this fact, for they were brought before the Court charged with stealing coal from the Concord Railroad. For this original method of replenishing their coal bins, they were sentenced each to pay a fine of $10 and one-half of costs, $2.92, and in addition thereto to pay the Railroad Company $1.50, being treble the value of the black diamonds which they appropriated.

The next was a case of incipient garrotting, nipped in the bud by the agile heels of the intended victim, who fortunately bore no resemblance to Achilles in regard to weakness at that point. On the night of the 11th inst., Geo. F. Partridge, a workman on the Navy Yard, came to this city, and while crossing the bridge about half-past 8 o'clock, on his return to Kittery, was intercepted by Edwin Goodwin and John S. Banks—the two last-named worthies having crossed the bridge from this side a short time previously. As stated above, Mr. P. saved himself by flight, and a charge of assault was preferred against Goodwin and Banks, which resulted in their being sentenced to jail for thirty days and to each pay one-half the costs of prosecution. Perhaps these gentlemen considered a partridge fair game, but New Hampshire's laws protect such.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday, while some workmen were engaged in raising the new Derrick at the Navy Yard, some part of the gear or rigging gave way, and struck Mr. Dixon, the Boatswain of the Yard, who was standing near by, knocking him into the air at a height of nearly twenty feet, and in his descent he fortunately fell on his feet, breaking only one or two of the small bones of his right foot. There were also severe contusions on the head, but it is believed that his injuries will not prove fatal.

☞ The Portsmouth Philharmonic Society announce their first Concert for Christmas Night—and of course they will have a full hearing. Besides a heavy chorus,—perhaps one of the best ever heard in the city; we predict that not a little surprise will be created by the quality of some of the solos, &c. We advise all who design to attend, to purchase tickets early, as they will surely be at a premium at the last.

☞ By reference to the proceedings of Congress, it will be seen that a bill has been introduced granting bounty and land warrants to soldiers and seamen who enlisted prior to 1863.

It is desirable that all soldiers and seamen who wish to make application for their bounties, should file their applications at an early day as possible.

d15 BUFFORD & RIDER,
2t Government Claim Agents.

☞ A meeting of all gentlemen interested in filling up a Company of Horse Guards in Portsmouth and adjacent towns is invited at the Common Council Room this (Friday) evening.

☞ See Notice of a Boy Lost in our advertising columns this morning.

— Christopher Gray, of Brookaville, Me., is 103 years old, and as smart as ever.—Exchange.

If he is not smarter than some men we know, not yet 33, he hasn't much to brag of.

— The wreckers have raised a large portion of the famous rebel iron-clad, the Merrimac, which was sunk off Norfolk. The composition wheel of nine tons, fifty feet of the stern, and a section of the shaft were brought up at one lifting, and have been carried to the Navy Yard.

— Surveys show that most of the gunboats built during the early part of the rebellion (the 11-inch class) are quite rotten. These are built of green timber, and have no air-streaks; not salted, and hastily constructed, hence their early decay. One or two of them have been condemned as unfit for further use.

— The editor of the Boston Commonwealth, meeting General Banks by chance just after the election, said "I am sorry, General, that I have been obliged to oppose you for the past few weeks." "Ah, have you?" replied the General, "I had not heard of it."

— An editor having, in a dense crowd, accidentally stepped on the toe of the person next him, asked pardon for his carelessness. "No matter, sir," was the good-natured reply, "it is only an error of the press."

ITS PHILOSOPHY.—Sozodont is an antacid. Sozodont is antiputrescent. Sozodont is a tonic. Sozodont is all vegetable and entirely harmless. Hence it cleanses the teeth from acetous concretions, stops the decomposition of their substance, sweetens the breath, stimulates the gums, and is the safest and best preparation of its class in existence. 18

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS.

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country based fully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawtm

A DOLLAR OR TWO.

JINGLING RHYME.—Not all Truth, nor Poetry.

With cautious steps, we as tread our way through
This intricate world, as other folks do.
May we still on our journey be able to view
The benevolent face of a "Dollar or Two."
Or an excellent thing is "Dollar or Two;"
No friend is so true as a "Dollar or Two;"
Thro' country or town, as we pass up and down,
We pointers get as good as a "Dollar or Two."

Would you read yperceive out of the bachelor crew,
And enrolled in the ranks of the married few,
To earn a good name and well-cushioned pew,
You must freely come down with a "Dollar or Two."
The Gospel is preached for a "Dollar or Two;"
And salvation is gained for a "Dollar or Two;"
You can sin some at times, but the worst of all crimes,
Is to end yourself short of a "Dollar or Two."

WORK A BLESSING.—Many young men have fathers that are well off, and they have no ambition, and no particular prospect. They scorn a trade. A man that is too well-born for a trade, is very well-born for a gallow! Thousands of parents who by industry have gained a position which enables them to destroy their children, take the surest means of accomplishing their destruction, by encouraging them in idleness, and allowing them to grow up with a feeling of contempt for labor. No child ought to be reared to feel that it is disgraceful to work at whatever manual labor best suits his talents, no matter if his father is a minister, or a lawyer, or a Senator, or the President of the United States.

Many young men are looking forward upon life with the general idea that they are going to enjoy themselves. They are provided with all needful physical comforts, and they mean to be very happy. They have no trade. They slight their profession. Their whole governing principle in life is to shirk anything like work; and they expect to have enjoyment without industry. But no man in this world will be happy who violates the fundamental law of industry. You must work if you are going to be a happy man. I know you think it is hard; but it God had meant that you should be a butterfly, you would have been born a butterfly.

And as you was not born a moth or a miller, but a man, you must accept the conditions of your manhood. And if there is one principle that is more important at the very threshold of life than another, it is that man is born to work. At the beginning of the history of the race, it may have been a curse that doomed man to work; but, thank God, it has been changed to a blessing now. And the baptism of work is a baptism of blessing.—H. W. Beecher.

— The Freedmen's Aid Commission have not less than six hundred teachers at the South, who instruct fifty thousand pupils. They also conduct twenty orphan asylums, and their monthly expenditures are nearly fifty thousand dollars.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write you concerning the great value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Gerhard, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and expecting the earliest publication and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1866.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Billious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THE GATHERING HOME.

They are gathering homeward from every land,
One by one;
As their weary feet touch the shining strand
One by one,
Their brows are encloned in a golden crown,
Their tried robed garments are all laid down,
And, clothed in white raiment, they rest on the mead
Where the Lamb loveth his chosen to lead,
One by one.

Safe re they rest they pass through the strife,
One by one;
Through the waters of death they enter life,
One by one.
To some are the floods of the river still,
As they ford on their way to the heavenly hill;
To others the waves run fierce and wild—
Yet all reach the home of the undefiled,
One by one.

We, too, shall come to the river side,
One by one;
We are nearer its waters each eventide,
One by one.
We can hear the noise and dash of the stream,
Now and again through our life's deep dream;
Sometimes the floods all their banks o'erflow;
Sometimes in ripples the small waves go,
One by one.

CHURCH ETIQUETTE.—It is fashionable with many to come late to church long after the services have begun, to the edification of the curious in the congregation and the comfort of the nerves in the pulpit. It has lately been decided, on high authority, that the following rules are to be observed on such occasions:

Let the lady advance one pace beyond the door of the pew she wishes to enter, halt, about face, and salute. The pew must then be vacated by such gentlemen as are in it, by flank movement. The squad must rise simultaneously when the lady presents herself, and face by the right flank, then deploy into the aisle, the head man facing the lady, and the rest walking to his right and rear, the direction of the line being changed by a right countermarch, and forming again into line, up and down the aisle, and still faced by the right flank. The lady, when she sees that the coast is clear, completes her salute, and advances to her position in the pew. Great care should be taken, of course, by other parties not to enter the aisle while this evolution is in progress.

HOW THE GAZELLE IS HUNTED.—You have to ride over the desert at a walk until a gazelle is seen, generally about half a mile distant. The gazelle generally allows your approach to within a quarter of a mile, or somewhat less. The hawks are unhooded, and two dogs, (Syrian greyhounds) are unslipped at the same moment. The birds fly close to the ground until near the gazelle, when they soar high, and come straight on the victim's head, where they hold on until he knocks them off with his fore feet. The dogs, of course, make up considerable ground when the game is thus partially stopped, but it requires three or four stoppages before the dogs can come up. The gazelle being finally caught by the dogs, they hold it until the hunters come up, when its throat is cut, and the birds fed from the incision. When there is no wind, barring the heat, this is comparatively easy work, but if there is any breeze the gazelle, when pursued by the hawks, instinctively runs against it, which impedes the birds' flight, and they generally get too far away from the dogs before the hawks can overtake them. The dogs are thus beaten, and although the hawks continue the chase it is a forlorn hope, unless they manage to turn him over and break his leg, when the birds ascend, rolling the gazelle over like a hare shot. On one occasion during this excursion the run was so severe that a dog was left dead from the effects of his run. The gazelle was, however taken by a fresh dog being fortunately at a point from which he could be slipped to advantage. The hawks had already given up, and the gazelle, when reached, was so far gone as not to have a kick left in him when his throat was cut.

ANECDOTE OF MR. FIELDS.—Mr. J. T. Fields, of the firm of Ticknor & Fields, publishers in Boston, is reputed to have a wonderful memory and knowledge of English literature. The London Review tells this anecdote of him:

"One day, at a dinner party, a would be wit, thinking to puzzle Mr. Fields, and make sport for company, announced prior to Mr. Fields' arrival that he had himself written some poetry, and intended to submit it to Mr. Fields as Southey's. At the proper moment, therefore, after the guests were seated, he began: 'Friend Fields, I have been a good deal exercised of late, trying to find out in Southey's poems his well-known lines running thus (repeating the lines he had composed). Can you tell us about what time he wrote them?' I do not remember to have met them before, replied Mr. Fields, 'and there were only two periods in Southey's life when such lines could possibly have been written by him.' 'When were those?' gleefully asked the witty questioner. 'Somewhere,' said Mr. Fields, 'about that early period of his existence when he was having the measles and cutting his first teeth; or near the close of his life, when his brain had softened and he had fallen into idiocy. The versification belongs to the measles period, but the expression clearly betrays the idiotic one.' The questioner smiled faintly, but the company roared."

— A California editor some time ago received a long document, which he was requested to 'put under his editorial head, gratis.' He complied by placing it under his pillow, and expressed his determination to serve similar communications in the same way.

GREAT CHANCE
—FOR—
AGENTS.
WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle-scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have Agents clearing $50 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant, for proof of the above send for circulars and see our terms. Address, JONES BROS. & CO., 14 Phœnix Building, Boston.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boston, April 1, 1865 ly

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1865.

☞ Some persons have hoped for a difference between the two houses of Congress; but a special dispatch of Wednesday states that "Thad. Stevens announced in the House that he would virtually accept the Senate amendment to his joint resolution on reconstruction. This settle all dispute on the resolution between the two branches of Congress."

WASHINGTON ITEMS. — The Senate Committee on the District of Columbia have passed a resolution declaring that universal suffrage shall be established in the District.

Applications for pardon at the rate of from 300 to 350 per week are received at the Adjutant General's Office. Few, however, are granted.

Gen. Grant has issued an order discharging all civilians, except clerks, from the army.

NEW ORLEANS.—A number of Louisiana country newspapers state that the white military organizations under the Governor' orders cannot be effective, as they have no arms. In some of the Parishes, Terre Bonne and Natchitoches, for example, the negroes are evil disposed towards the whites, and these papers state that evil disposed white persons are at the bottom of this state of things. In the Parish of Nachitoches it is evident to all that the militia of the State must be organized and armed soon to afford the necessary protection to whites.

The course of the military authorities in interfering by force of arms to protect the government cotton agent, charged before the State court with stealing cotton, from arrest by the Sheriff, has been approved by Gen. Canby. Only the Sheriff's account of the affair has been published.

☞ At Washington, on Thursday evening, there was a meeting of a committee of the corporation of the National Asylum, to to agree upon amendments to the act of incorporation to be presented to Congress. Gen. Grant and Gov. Tod of Ohio were unavoidably absent, but all the other members of the Committee were present, namely: Generals Meade, Butler and Barnes, Admirals Farragut and Davis, Governor Smyth and Senator Wilson. Among the proposed amendments agreed upon was one authorizing the corporators to establish several asylums or communities, if they see fit, in place of one grand asylum, as provided for in the act. Sailors can have a home in sight of some harbor frequented by vessels. Black veterans can be settled in their own sunny South, and it may be advisable to establish communities of disabled soldiers having families on the agricultural lands of the West.

U. S. SENATE, Dec. 14, A resolution was offered instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of providing a law for the adoption of the eight hour system in government employment. Laid over.

Mr. Foote of Vermont announced the death of Jacob Collamer.

HOUSE.—The following is the committee to inquire into the condition of the late rebel States:

Messrs. Stephens, Washburn of Illinois, Morrill, Grider, Bingham, Conklin, Boutwell, Blow and Rodgers.

A resolution was passed to adjourn from the 20th of December to the 9th day of January.

A bill appropriating $30,000 for repairing and furnishing the President's house, and a bill for the payment of invalid and other pensions was passed.

A resolution was unanimously passed declaring treason against the Government of the United States is a crime, and ought to be punished.

A resolution was passed that all papers relating to the rebel States be referred to the select committee of fifteen, and that no Representative from such States to be admitted to seats until Congress declares such States entitled to representatives.

☞ The Newburyport Daily Herald is to be enlarged Jan. 1st. It is one of the best papers in the country now, and don't much need improving—but the editor says the publishers don't get rich very fast. The Herald looks for a brighter day and better times than ever for Newburyport—as do we for Portsmouth and for the whole country. Onward and upward!

☞ In New York city great activity pervades both of the headquarters of the Fenians. Anathemas from each party continue to be issued. Thursday night the usual meeting of the Manhattan Lodge was so largely attended that the floor began to give way, and the meeting adjourned to the armory of the 99th regiment. They emphatically endorse O'Mahony's course.

☞ Major Dole, the Portland Postmaster, has resigned, and a newspaper of that ilk says the popular salutation is, "How are you, Major, I am glad to see you out."

GOLD, Friday, 146 1-2.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TONY.

New Hampshire paper money Insurrection, 1785.

We give to-day an amusing chapter from Belknap, showing how the foolish money scheme of earnest men was foiled by the wisdom of New Hampshire wags, who devised a more foolish scheme to exhibit the folly of the first. Also showing up the military part of the insurrection, which came near being a tradgedy, but ended like a farce.

At the first sitting of the assembly, when five only of the members of the proposed convention were in town, some wags, among whom were several young lawyers, pretended to have been chosen by the towns in which they lived, for the same purpose. In conference with the five, they penetrated their views, and persuaded them to post an advertisement, for all the members who were in town to assemble immediately; it being of the utmost importance to present their petition as early in the session as possible. By this means, sixteen pretended members, with the five real ones, formed themselves into a convention, choosing one of the five of their president, and one of the sixteen their clerk. They carried on their debates and passed votes with much apparent solemnity. Having framed a petition, complaining in the most extravagant terms of their grievances; praying for a loan of three million of dollars, funded on real estate; for the abolition of inferior courts, and a reduction of the number of lawyers, to two only in a county; and for a free trade with all the world; they went in procession to the assembly, (some of whom had been previously let into the secret) and with great formality presented their petition, which was suffered to lie on the table and was afterwards withdrawn. The convention then dissolved; and when others who had been really chosen by the towns arrived, they were exceedingly mortified on finding their views for that time so completely frustrated.

The next effort of the party was to call county conventions. Of what class of people these were composed, some idea may be formed from this circumstance. An innholder, at whose house one of these conventions first met, refused to take their promise for lumber to pay the expense of their meeting; upon which they adjourned to a ware-house, belonging to one of the party, and were treated with liquor, gratis.

From two of these conventions, and from several towns in different parts of the State, petitions were presented to the legislature, at their session in Exeter. On calm deliberation, these petitions appeared to be inconsistent with each other, with the constitution, with justice and public faith. But to still the clamor and collect the real sense of the people on the subject of paper currency; the assembly formed a plan for the emission of fifty thousand pounds, to be let at four per cent. on land security; to be a tender in payment of state taxes, and for the fees and salaries of public officers. This plan was immediately printed, and sent to the several towns; and the people were desired to give their opinions in town meetings for and against it, and to make return of their vote to the assembly at their next session.

This way of proceeding did not coincide with the views of the pary; the principal directors of which endeavored to conceal themselves, whilst they persuaded a considable number of persons of various characters to appear openly in support of the petitions. They took pains to spread false reports through the country; and among other things, it was said that the assembly had passed an act to refund the value of the confiscated estates, which was to be immediately assessed on the people.

It must be observed, that at this time, causes of a similar nature had excited numbers of people to some resistance of Massachusetts; assemble in arms and prevent the judicial courts from sitting. This example, aided by false reports, and a sense of grievances, partly real and partly imaginary, operated so powerfully on the minds of a number of people, in the western part of the county of Rockingham, that on the morning of the twentieth of Sept., 1785, about two hundred men assembled at Kingston, six miles from Exeter, where they chose leaders and procured a drum. By the help of some militia officers, they formed themselves into military order, and in the afternoon, marched to Exeter; about one third of them being armed with muskets, and the others, with swords and clubs. Having entered the confines of the town, they halted; and sent a paper to the assembly, signed by one of them who styled himself moderator, demanding an answer to their former petition immediately. They then marched about through the town, and paraded before the meeting-house, where both houses of assembly were holding a conference. The doors were open, and as many of them as were disposed entered. The president, in a cool and deliberate speech, explained the reason on which the assembly had proceeded in rejecting the petitions; exposed the weakness, inconsistency and injustice of their request; and said, that if it were ever so just and proper in itself, and if the whole body of the people were in favor of it, yet the legislature ought not to comply with it, while surrounded by an armed force. To do this, would be, to betray the rights of the people, which they had all solemly sworn to support. He concluded by declaring, that no consideration of personal danger would ever compel them to violate the rights of their constituents.

This speech being ended, the drum beat to arms; as many as had guns were ordered to load them with balls; sentries were placed at the doors, and the whole legislature were held prisoners; the mob threatening death to any person who should attempt to escape, till their demands were granted. The assembly went on with their business, taking no farther notice of the rioters, till the approach of evening; when the president attempted to go out, but was stopped by an impenetrable column. He then reasoned with them, and warned them of the fatal tendency of their conduct, assuring them, that the force of the country would support the government. Their answers to him were insolent and reproachful. They raised a cry for paper money, an equal distribution of property, and a release of debts. The inhabitants of Exeter had all this time beheld with silence the insult offered to the legislature. Having no orders to take arms, they restrained their indignation, till the dusk of the evening; when some of them beat a drum at a distance, and others cried, "Huzza for government! Bring up the artillery!" At the sound of these words, the mob were struck with a panic, and began to disperse. Their moderator ordered them to meet again, at nine o'clock the next morning, and they scattered in every direction.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.

Having recovered to a certain extent from the effects of last Thursday's dinner, which blocked the wheels of Government for nearly a week, as it were with an army of turkeys,—I bethink myself that you have, perhaps, by this time subdued the dyspepsia that is wont to follow Thanksgiving—that the state of your stomach is such as to permit you to give attention to the state of the country.

If it were my business, and I chose, I could doubtless manufacture a budget of startling facts and conjectures, (to be contradicted probably next day,) that would be read with interest and amusement.

As it is, you will learn that there is no topic of interest but the question of admitting the rebel States to a representation in Congress, and that matters on that question are yet in a chaotic state.

The Senate, to be sure, seems inclined to take some of the stiffening out of the House resolution, and the desire to meet the South with fairness and generosity has been quite generally manifested, in "influential circles." If "our brethren" from that section could but exercise a grain of patience, and dissemble for the present their hatred of the Yankees and their love of themselves, they might have a fair chance of getting their "rights;" but they are opening quite too fiercely. Some, indeed, are quiet and submissive—ostentatiously so—a few, perhaps, with a genuine intention of good behavior; but by far the greater portion of those whom we see and hear, and hear about, profess themselves to be "subjugated but not subdued." They come demanding the full privileges they once enjoyed, preferring their willingness to do and promise everything to accomplish their end, but threatening already what they will do when they attain it. They have done nothing they are sorry for, except suffer defeat, and nothing they will not repeat at the first opportunity.

This language is held by many now clamoring for recognition and admission, as well as almost uniformly by that respectable class of our community who left us to swell the ranks of our enemies, but sneaked back in time to escape the final catastrophe, or as consequence of it. They have not words to express their horror of Yankees, and have no dealings with them—except they can make something by it.

A gentleman who has lately made an extensive tour of the South reports a similar feeling prevailing there largely. Their hatred, he says, is undiminished and unbounded, but aggravated rather by the very satisfactory castigation they have had.

There may be no ground for apprehension, but I have observed these peculiarities in some from whom better things were expected, and cannot help indulging the hope that Congress will withhold every privilege that cannot be granted with undoubted safety. P.

— The greatest discovery of the age is the new soap just come out, and known as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap; it not only saves time in washing, but does the work in a much superior manner to all soaps now before the people. The makers claim that it is manufactured on an entirely different principle, and that it is a great labor-saving article, besides going much further than any other soap. Our experience confirms all the inventor claims for it. Try it and we think all will be convinced of the fact, and will ever have the Gold Medal or none. 23

GREAT FAMILY. — The Thanksgiving family gathering of J. P. G. Dinsmore, of Derry, N. H., numbered 12 children—seven sons and five daughters—whose ages range from 18 to 39. Their homes are scattered over the New England States—one in Illinois—and two were soldiers in the Union army. According to the previous arrangement they were left to conduct the religious services of Thanksgiving Day in the Methodist church of Derry, and though the day was quite stormy, the people attested their appreciation of the worth of this family by crowding in until the house was well filled. One of the sons delivered an exceedingly interesting and appropriate Thanksgiving sermon and the rest of the children—all of whom are good singers—furnished excellent music both vocal and instrumental.

The exercises at home consisted of feasting, talking, singing, receiving calls, etc. What is remarkable in the family is the remarkable degree of health which exhibits itself in the ruddy faces and robust forms of all. Their bodily proportions and muscular strength became more fully evident from the results of weighing. The aggregate weight of the sons was found to be 1216 lbs., giving an average of 196 lbs., and the aggregate of the daughters was 750 lbs., or an average of 150. I doubt whether this can be beaten outside of the Granite State, and even among the sturdy sons and daughters of the "bleak and inhospitable region," one will have to look far to find its equal.—Cor. Transcript.

HASHEESH! HASHEESH!

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.

THE HASHEESH CANDY

Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO., under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supercede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation or cure of

NERVOUSNESS, NEURALGIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE,

and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.

The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a 'multitude of afflictions.'" In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

IMPURITIES.

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. What we have to do to recover our health is to take out from the BOWELS AND THE CIRCULATION the excess of impurities. This done, health follows of necessity.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS

are the only medicine that can do this with entire safety to all the organs of the body.

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS

are now living who have adopted BRANDRETH'S PILLS as their only remedy for periods of from thirty to fifty years, and whose average health is excellent. They have always cured themselves, when sick, by these INNOCENT AND INFALLIBLE PILLS.

Local.

☞ Respecting the Stable fire, we learn that there was no one in the building after the hostler went to supper at 6 o'clock; and he says there had been no fire for an hour or two before. As was not uncommon with them, they locked up for the night at 6, and left no light or fire, and no one to watch.

And Mr. Chas. W. Leavitt, who appears to have discovered the fire first, and gave the alarm and broke in the door, tells us that he saw, from Middle street, the flames just coming out through the front at the peak of the gable; and when he had succeeded in staving in the door, there was quite a pile of charred hay which had apparently burnt down through the floor overhead, and lay near the entrance, and which instantly burst into flames. And even then the smoke and heat were intolerable in the building, for man or beast.

Now whether the hostler went into the loft to feed his horses, and set in the hay by a spark from his lantern, (if he went, and if he took a lantern,) the fire which broke out upwards of two hours after; or whether it caught from the chimney which ran up through the building, or whether it was set by an incendiary, must, as is generally the case, probably ever remain a mystery. But we do not see much tracks of any incendiary thereabout.

As to insurance, Mr. A. L. Jenness, who owned the building, was in town yesterday, and says he did have a couple of thousand dollars on the stable; but when he paid his last premium he reduced it one half, and he is not sure that even that small policy had not run out. So it seems pretty evident that he didn't procure it burnt.

THE CHRISTIAN SOCIETY, through the kindness of the Unitarian Society, will continue its Sabbath service, as usual, in the Unitarian Chapel on Court street, until necessary repairs shall be made upon their own Chapel, injured by the late fire. Services will commence in the morning at the usual hour; Sabbath School session, as usual, directly following the morning service. The afternoon service will commence at 3 o'clock, in order that there will be no interference of the Christian Society's service with the session of the Unitarian Sabbath School, which precedes the afternoon services.

In this connection, the Wardens, in behalf of the Christian Society, desire to express their thanks to the Baptist, Universalist and Free Baptist Societies, for their kindness in so cordially offering them the use of their different churches; and also to Benj. Cheever, Esq., for the offer of the Temple.

Thanks they offer to all who so earnestly labored to remove articles from the Church, and also for the noble efforts of the Fire Department, so successfully put forth, to save their Church from the flames.

For the Chronicle.

☞ If any one doubts that Christmas and the holidays are coming, let them look into Mr. J. H. Head's windows, and their doubts will be dispelled. A more varied and elegant stock of Christmas gifts has never been seen in this city. Within, the store is filled from floor to ceiling with Presents for young and old. Old Santa Claus is there, surrounded with his thousand varied mementoes of love and friendship.

GOV. SMYTH IN WASHINGTON.—Under date of Dec. 14, Perley telegraphs to the Boston Journal from Washington as follows:

Gov. Smyth, on his first visit to the Treasury Department, found that instead of an indebtedness on the part of the General Government to New Hampshire of nearly half a million of dollars, as bad been reported, the State stood on the books as in debt to the General Government nearly one hundred thousand dollars. The accounts were much confused, but Gov. S. applying himself with his usual practical business ability to their disentanglement, yesterday, as the first fruits of his exposition of blunders, received a check for forty-seven thousand one hundred and thirty-four dollars. This sum had been charged to New Hampshire in February, 1864, but was by some oversight never drawn from the Treasury. Governor Smyth has also hopes that the General Government will refund to the towns of New Hampshire, through the State authorities, the balances of bounties advanced by those towns to recruits, except in cases where those recruits deserted.

He was serenaded Thursday night, and when he appeared, was addressed by Col. Ordway, Sergeant-at-Arms of the House, who invited him to partake of a collation at which he could meet his friends. Governor Smyth made a brief reply, thanking the sons of New Hampshire for the compliment thus paid him, and was escorted to the residence of Col. Ordway. A sumptuous collation was there provided, and after due justice had been done to the good cheer, there was a pleasant interchange of pertinent speeches and sentiments.

☞ By reference to the proceedings of Congress, it will be seen that a bill has been introduced granting bounty and land warrants to soldiers and seamen who enlisted prior to 1863.

It is desirable that all soldiers and seamen who wish to make application for their bounties, should file their applications at an early day as possible.

RELIANCE.—We deem it to be our duty to say to our readers, that the most implicit reliance can be placed in Coe's Cough Balsam. It will cure your children of croup, and yourself of any cough, cold, sore throat, or pulmonary affection. It is the cheapest and best preparation in the market.

Dyspepsia can be surely and permanently cured by Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. Thousands of dyspeptics are sending in their testimonials to the proprietors, saying it has cured them. We say to those who are suffering from dyspepsia, constipation, sour stomach, or any disorder of the stomach or bowels, give it a trial.

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other attractive features, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural Paper giving full information, and containing Report of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawtu

The Chronicle.

[From the Nation.]

TO THE THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

O people chosen! are ye not
Like unto the chosen of the Lord,
To do His will and speak His word?

From the loud thunder-storm of war,
Not man alone hath called ye forth,
But He, the God of all the earth!

The torch of vengeance in your hands
He quenches; unto Him belongs
The solemn recompense of wrongs.

Enough of blood the land hath seen;
And not by coil, or gallows stair,
Shall ye the way of God prepare.

Say to the pardon-seekers—keep
Your manhood; bend no suppliant knees,
Nor palter with unworthy pleas.

Above your voices sounds the wail
Of starving men; we shut in vain
Our eyes to Pillow's ghastly slain.

What words can drown that bitter cry?
What tears wash out that stain of death?
What oaths confirm your broken faith?

From you slope the guaranty
Of union, freedom, peace, we claim;
We urge no conqueror's terms of shame.

Alas! no victor's pride is ours,
Who bend above our triumphs won,
Like David o'er his rebel son.

Be men, not beggars. Cancel all
By one brave, generous action; trust
Your better instincts, and be just.

Make all men peers before the law,
Take hands from off the negro's throat,
Give black and white an equal vote.

Keep all your forfeit lives and lands,
But give the common law's redress
To labor's utter nakedness.

Revive the old heroic will,
Be in the right as brave and strong
As ye have proved yourselves in wrong.

Defeat shall then be victory,
Your loss the wealth of full amends,
And hate be love and foes be friends.

Then buried be the dreadful past,
Its common slain be mourned, and let
Its memories soften to regret.

Then shall the Union's mother heart
Her lost and wandering ones recall,
Forgiving and restoring all.

JOHN G. WHITTIER.

MOONLIGHT SONATA.—Beethoven suffered himself to be led back to the instrument. The moon shone brightly in through the window and lit up his glorious rugged head and massive figure. "I will improvise a sonata to the moonlight," looking up thoughtfully to the sky and stars—then his hands dropped upon the keys, and he began playing an infinitely lovely movement, that crept gently over the instrument like the calm flow of moonlight over the dark earth. The was followed by a wild, elfin passage in triple time, a sort of grotesque interlude, like the dance of sprites upon the sward. Then came a swift agitato finale—a breathless, hurrying, trembling movement, descriptive of night, and uncertainty, and vague, impulsive terror, which carried us away upon its rustling wings, and left us all emotion and wonder.

"Farewell to you," said Beethoven pushing back his chair, and turning toward the door; "farewell to you." "You will come again?" asked they in one breath. He paused, and looked compassionately, almost tenderly, at the face of the blind girl. "Yes, yes," he said, hurriedly, "I will come again, and give the Fraulein some lessons. Farewell, I will soon come again!" They followed us in silence more eloquent than words, and stood at their door till we were out of sight and hearing. "Let us make haste back," said Beethoven, "that I may write out that sonata while I can yet remember it!" We did so, and he sat over it till long past day-dawn. And this was the origin of the Moonlight Sonata with which we are so fondly acquainted.

A LITTLE HERO.—A short time since two brothers, aged respectively thirteen and seven, sons of a poor man named Cain, obtained the use of a small boat in which they went on a voyage of discovery from Mission street wharf. While within the shelter of the shore, the little navigators glided over the smooth surface of the bay, as young life glides down the great tide of time, without impediment. After a while the usual evening breeze sprang up, and the little fellows were exhilarated at the pleasure of flying before the wind, till want of skill in the management of their craft caused it to upset, when, the instant before happy children, as the alloy of their pleasure, had to struggle for life. The larger boy, with the courage and nerve of a full-hearted man, seized his little brother with one hand, and with the other held on to the capsized boat, and thus they rapidly drifted out upon the ruffled billows of the bay. The little boy lost his courage—he was but a child, and complained of cold—the waters chilled him. His noble brother held him closer to his bosom to warm him with the fire of courage and fraternal love that blazed within—even in those perilous circumstances. For nearly three hours they drifted on and on in the cold, cold water—the elder boy holding the younger one in his arms till he died of the effects of cold and fear, and he held his icy corpse in his embrace for hours, till the steamer Merrimac, which happened to be passing, saw the boat and made toward it, when the boy's joy at the thought of being rescued from certain death caused him to relax his grasp of the body of his dearly loved brother, when it sank as a stone beneath the water.—San Francisco Flag.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabbiala, of Curacoa, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

Morning Chronicle.

— A man in Jackson, Michigan, got drunk and staggered upon a bed whereon laid his infant son. His whole weight rested upon the babe and it soon expired. The wretched man, who is a respectable, well-to-do citizen, made a vow never to touch liquor again.—Exch.

— A tall fellow persisted in standing during a performance, much to the annoyance of an audience, and was repeatedly requested to sit down, but would not, when a voice from the upper gallery called out: "Let him alone, honey; he's a tailor and he's resting himself." He immediately squatted.

— A Western farmer who wished to invest the accumulations of his industry in United States securities, went to Jay Cooke's office to procure the treasury notes. The clerk inquired what denomination he would have them in? Having never heard that word used except to distinguish the religious sects, he, after a little deliberation, he replied: "Well, you may give me part in Old School Presbyterian to please the old lady, but give me the heft on't in Free-will Baptist?"

— The planters of the Marlboro (S. C.) District held a meeting recently, at which they pledged themselves not to rent land to any freedmen, nor permit them to live on their plantations as employees. They also adopted a resolution requesting "the military authorities to cease the habit of making negroes act as sheriffs and constables, to serve writs and notices upon planters."

JOB A PRINTER.—At a printers' festival in Minnesota, some years ago, Judge Goodrich made a speech, in which he referred the invention of printing to a higher antiquity than is usually ascribed to it. He undertook to prove that the patriarch Job knew all about it, by quoting from him the following passage: "Oh, that my words were now written! Oh, that they were printed in a book, that they were graven with an iron pen, with lead in a rock forever!" The Judge considered this undoubted evidence that Job understood the arts of writing, printing, engraving, stereotyping and lithographing. He mentions them in their regular order, as they have since been discovered.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE.
These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!
Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,
For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove one I invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth over.

AN ETERNAL SPRING!
It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies
Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged. And the young, let them hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS
Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitant—of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.
They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders
And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal outwardly alone but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS
Invariably Cure the Following Diseases:
Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Cough,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—A Washington dispatch says a call has been issued for a general election in the District, to be held on the 21st inst., to obtain a manifesto, from the voting community, to be placed before Congress, to show how repugnant the passage of the negro suffrage act is to the people.

Per contra, a telegram has just been received at Nashville, Tenn., from President Johnson, in which he says, speaking of the negro testimony bill: "It is to be regretted that the Legislature has as yet taken no steps indicating that public sentiment is moving in the right direction."

[Congress have the whole legislative power in the District. It is well known that the old habitues of Washington were intensely pro-slavery, and most of them were in sympathy with the rebellion.]

Hon. B. M. Harris, M. C., of Maryland, proposes to take his seat on Monday. He says he can take the oath. Some believe the House will refuse to permit him to take his seat or expel him as an unworthy member for the offence of which he was convicted last summer by court martial. Harris claims that the President's pardon removes this political disability.

Gen. Grant has issued orders to Commanders of posts where powder is stored, to take precautions for its preservation.—The close of the war left immense quantities of powder in the hands of the government.

Col. Brown, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in Virginia, has submitted to Gen. Howard a proposition concerning the transfer of negroes from Virginia to unoccupied government lands in Florida—the result of aconference between him and a Legislative Committee. The matter will probably be submitted to Congress.

There is a movement on foot to induce Congress to indicate, by resolution or otherwise, that it is the duty of the Administration to have Jefferson Davis tried by a Military Commission.

MEXICO.—A San Francisco dispatch says Juarez writes to the Mexican Consul at that place that the reason for ordering Ortega's trial, was because he left Mexico without leave, virtually abandoning the Republican cause in the nation's struggle for life. He adds that both his family and personal interest incite him to retire to private life, and as soon as the election can be held he will joyfully give up the Presidency, which has proved to him a weighty burden.

LATE FROM JEFF. D.—Fortress Monroe correspondence says Jeff. Davis is turning his attention more than ever to the concern of his soul. He was recently visited by his old spiritual adviser, the pastor of St. Paul's Church, Richmond, who passed an entire day at his prison in religious reading and conversation, and administered to him the sacrament.

— Frank A. Dow, aged 18 years, son of Gen. Neal Dow, died suddenly on the 13th inst., in Minnesota, whither he had gone to seek the restoration of his health.

— In consequence of the poor state of Bishop Burgess' health, he will leave for the West Indies next week to pass the winter. He is the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Churches in Maine.

— A Mobile correspondent of the Memphis Bulletin says: At least nine-tenths of the State of Mississippi is overgrown with brown-sedge, and with but little prospect of anything better in future, unless some remedial scheme can be devised whereby the freedmen or other laborers can be induced to till the soil.

— A correspondent of the Providence Journal, attached to the Agassiz expedition, in a recent letter says—"We have already obtained specimens of more than seven hundred heretofore entirely unknown fishes."

— A niggardly fellow had to pay a $5 fine at Rochester, N. Y., recently, for stealing a newspaper.

— Among the inmates of the House of Correction, in New Bedford, is Solomon Austin, of Taunton, now 74 years of age. He has been committed to that institution thirty-eight times for drunkenness, and has served the county therein, for about eleven years of his life. Notwithstanding his advanced age and his irregular habits, he is quite vigorous and makes himself useful in prison.

— Several young men in Hartford, who wish to be smart, have invented a new dodge "to fool people." When there is a public entertainment they station themselves by the front of the main entrance and hold umbrellas over their heads as the audience passes out. Persons coming down stairs, seeing the umbrellas, suppose of course that it rains and make arrangements accordingly; the ladies looping up their dresses, fixing handkerchiefs around their bonnets, &c.; much to the delight of the brilliant youths.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

— In the U. S. Senate, Senator Clark of this State is Chairman of the Committee on Claims, and a member of the Committee on the Judiciary.

— The copper mine discovered in Wentworth last summer is to be opened immediately, under the superintendence of an English miner named Prescott.

— In Keene, on Thanksgiving Day, a colored boy named Philip Jones was accidentally shot in the bowels while with a target party. The wound is a serious one, but it is thought he will recover.

— Mr. Samuel Pettingill, of Grafton, on the 27th ult., after partaking of his dinner in his usual health, went into the woods, chopped a load of wood, and while returning to his home fell dead within a few rods of his house.

— A horse and wagon were lately stolen from D. J. Fife, of Troy. The horse subsequently returned. A pedler's wagon was robbed of several hundred dollars' worth of goods, and a team was also stolen in Winchendon.

— The 2d New Hampshire Vols., Col. Patterson, is to be mustered out of service immediately. The regiment numbers 475 enlisted men and officers, and is expected to reach Concord on Thursday next.

— The last of November, Joseph Chamberlain, aged 17 years, and Edson Chamberlain, aged 13, brothers, of this town, stole a horse and wagon, buffalo robe, rifle and money, the property of Wm. T. Dore, of this town. They were pursued to Brownfield, Me., where they left the horse and wagon in the highway and escaped to the woods.—Wolfeboro' News.

☞ The Concord Statesman makes the following remarks on the N. H. electioneering campaign for 1866:

It does not now appear that the approaching campaign will be one of much fervor. The Democrats have no great expectations; being very much in the condition of the old Whig Party—"waiting for something to turn up." They will prepare a full ticket, and choose a Senator now and then in the few hardshell districts, and Representatives from a class of towns which go democratic by the force of habit. Beyond that they have no hope. We have bowels of compassion for our Democratic friends—having spent thirty years in a minority with no other success than choosing enough Representatives in the whole State to watch the Democrats.

A REMARKABLE FAMILY GATHERING. A remarkable Thanksgiving gathering took place in York, Maine, at the residence of Daniel McIntyre, Esq. Four generations to the number of twenty-four were present at this Thanksgiving feast, one, not having quite reached his growth, measuring six feet three inches while standing in stockings, with lots of grand-children to make grandmother's goodies disappear somewhat rapidly.—Providence Press.

☞ Com. Craven was found guilty of negligence in not trying to capture the rebel steamer Stonewall, and sentenced to be suspended from duty on leave pay for two years. The Secretary of the Navy, in reviewing the decision, regards it as in contravention of the law. The Court censures the accused, but inflicts only a nominal punishment. The incongruous whole has the aspect of an unsuccessful attempt to compromise between those members of the Court who believed the accused guilty and others who believed him not guilty. The whole action of the Court unfortunately suggests to officers of the Navy an inference which the Department must in behalf of the Court most strenuously disclaim for them, as not intended, or, at least as not materially extendered. That inference is, that, the general rule with a commanding officer of the Navy should be, "Do not fight if there is a chance of defeat," rather than the converse rule, "Fight, if there be a chance of victory." The principle uniformly inculculated as a rule of naval action has been that it is the first duty of a commander in war to take great risks for the accomplishment of great ends. The proceedings of the Court are set aside and Commodore Craven relieved from arrest.

— Gen. Longstreet visited one of his staff officers in Aberdeen, Mississippi, recently, and at night, while he was asleep, the negroes set the house on fire and ran away with the well-chain and buckets.—The citizens therefore gave him a dinner to soothe his honor.

— The City Council of Washington intend to have a special election on the 21st instant, to ascertain the wishes of the white voters on universal suffrage. The three thousand black men who have been fighting for the Union are not to be allowed the privilege of expressing their opinions at the ballot-box, but they have full faith that Congress will give them this right before very long.

COL. WARD MARSTON.—In the case of Col. Ward Marston, who plead guilty to the charge of applying to his own use $8000 intrusted to him by the enlisted men of the Marine corps at the time Marston was commander of the Marine barracks at Boston, the Court sentenced the accused to be dismissed from the Marine corps and utterly disqualified to hold any employment from the United States, and forfeit all pay and allowances due him. The President has modified the sentence so far that Marston is to be reprimanded by the Secretary of the Navy in General Orders, be suspended for three years, and that one half of his retired pay be deducted until the whole delinquency is cancelled. The Secretary of the Navy makes the following endorsement:

"The extract from the record already given is the best reprimand which the nature of the case admits, for if there is an officer in the naval or marine service who is so unmindful of his duty and honor as to commit the offense to which Lieut. Col. Marston has pleaded guilty, he would not be benefited by any reprimand which the department might administer.

☞ In the Boston Courts, at the present time, the Judges give robbers severe sentences, to break up robbery if possible. Here are the specimens:

John Haynes, connected with John Long, of the highway and garrote robbery of Jeremiah Hays of $12, and a concertina, valued at $12, was sentenced to twenty years in State Prison.

Thos. Shaw and John Francis, for assaulting and robbing William O'Brien of $1 75 by force, were sentenced each to twenty years.

Matthew alias Michael Hughes, and John Cunningham, (minors) convicted of stealing three robes, were sentenced each to five years.

James O'Brion, convicted of assaulting William Garcelon with intent to rob, ten years.

In one case of manslaughter,—a man goes to the State Prison 15 years;—and in another case, a father goes for ten years, and two sons for five years each;—neither of them worse than one in the city five or six years ago, when a sentence of one year was imposed.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.—Mr. Young offered resolutions, which were ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations, that the Assembly heartily approve the action of the last General Assembly in rejecting the proposed Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and that this Assembly has not the right or authority to consider or vote upon this measure until it shall be again passed or proposed by Congress.—Mr. Young is a goose, or gosling.

TEXAS.—Governor Hamilton of Texas has issued a proclamation authorising the Chief Justices of the counties to raise, at the county expense, a special police force of fifty men, to be enrolled, officered and sworn to support the Constitution and laws of the United States and of Texas, and to aid in suppressing all lawless acts, to assist the law officers in maintaining order, to do no violence to any one. They are to act with the military to keep the peace, and the Governor requests the military to work harmoniously with this special force, which is to continue in operation so long as the Chief Justices deem it necessary.

☞ The nineteen forts around Washington which are retained for purposes of defence, are now garrisoned by two regiments of colored troops. One of these regiments was raised in Kentucky sixteen months ago, where ninety per cent. were slaves, and unable to read or write. Now nearly all of them can read and write well, and when paid off last week, four companies of them deposited upward of $6000 in the Freedmen's Savings Bank.

— "Why, Mrs. B. how do you manage to have such nice light Bread and Biscuit? "Because I use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. I never used any half as good. I like it much better to use with cream tartar than I do soda. I shall never use any other. If you will try one paper, Mrs. W., you will say the same. It has almost cured my dyspepsia." Most all the Grocers keep it. 24

— The Mexicans have become accustomed to a "distracted" country, and the capital was never so gay as now.

— Pres. Johnson is said to believe that Napoleon will take the initiative in withdrawing his troops.

— Stanton Frink of Waterbury, Vt., was crushed by a tree while cutting fuel in the woods last Sunday, and so severely injured that he died in a few hours.

— Benjamin Phinney, a wealthy farmer at Rockport, Ill., was recently poisoned to death with strychnine, by his fifth wife, a pretty girl whom he married only six weeks ago.

— The great white marble Hotel in Portland, which the late John M. Wood couldn't finish, is offered for sale. It was designed to cost $177,000, and $144,000 has been spent on building, and $75,000 is estimated to be the cost of finishing.

— A man named McDonald, a clerk, 37 years of age, has been sentenced in London to seven years penal servitude for having three wives, and for treating them all with the grossest neglect, leaving them at times without food.

BISHOP RANDALL.—On Thursday, Dec 28, Rev. Dr. Randall will be consecrated at Trinity Church, Boston, he having accepted the bishopric of Colorado. The service will begin at 11 A. M. The sermon will be preached by Bishop Eastburn, and the consecrating bishops will probably be those from the New England States. The Presiding Bishop of the United States, Rev. Dr. Hopkins of Vermont, will probably be present. It is expected that an entire choir and organist will perform the service. Rev. Dr. Randall will not leave his parish, the Church of the Messiah, Boston, until May next, the twenty-second anniversary of his rectorship.

— GOLD, Saturday, 146 1-4. About $1,000,000 went to Europe that day.

HASHEESH! HASHEESH!

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.

THE HASHEESH CANDY

Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO., under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supercede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation or cure of

and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental Countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.

The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known in the south of Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a 'multitude of afflictions.'" In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

Every living being has in his system IMPURITIES.

FIRE.—An alarm of fire was given very nearly at midnight on Friday, and was caused by the partial burning of the roof of the three story wooden house, corner of Franklin and Pleasant streets, owned and occupied by Mr. Thomas McGrath. The fire, which is supposed to have originated from a defective chimney, was discovered by Mr. C. H. Tucker, one of the night watch, and the alarm at once given.

Notwithstanding their arduous duties of the night previous, the firemen were prompt ly on the ground with their engines, but some delay was experienced in procuring hose, from the fact that most of it had been so frozen up at the fire on Thursday night as to necessitate its removal from the carriages in order to render it fit for use.

Meantime, with tubs, buckets, and other vessels, passed up to the top of the building, such an amount of water was dashed upon the fire as to leave no need for the working of the engines, by the time they were in working order.

The roof was considerably damaged, but otherwise the loss will not be heavy. The Morris Co., of New York, through their Agent, F. W. DeRochemont, have an insurance of $1800 upon the premises.

☞ The alarm of fire, Saturday evening, was said to be caused by the light or report of a conflagration in Greenland, Stratham, or somewhere where nobody this way found it.

☞ We have heard much complaint that at recent fires the ladies present have taken up such positions as to obstruct the way of those engaged in saving goods from premises in danger, thereby seriously impeding their progress in this good work, and oftimes causing them to be guilty of seeming rudeness in endeavoring to clear a passage through the mere lookers-on. "A word to the wise," &c.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 16.—John A. Payne, for drunkenness, was sentenced to pay a fine of $3, and $3.86 costs.

The weather has been so cold that one could hardly be expected to discriminate as to whose woodpile they were using from. Mrs. Blackford enters a complaint against another female for larceny from her woodpile. The accused, calling at our office, assured us the charge was not proved, but the Judge seemed to think differently, for he sentenced the delinquent to pay a fine of $1, and costs $8 86, and also to pay Mrs. Blackford three times the value of the wood.

☞ Considerable interest is manifested in the proposed new Company of Mounted State Militia—N. H. Horse Guards; and if the promised arrangement for the State to furnish uniforms, &c., is carried out, there will be no difficulty in filling 60 saddles in Portsmouth. The meeting of those interested stands adjourned to Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Common Council Room.

☞ The new Masting Shears or Derrick recently erected at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, affords facilities for unloading or loading the heaviest machinery or weight of any kind from vessels arriving at the Yard. It will also prove advantageous in masting large ships.

☞ We understand steps are being taken to form a Company in this city for the manufacture of Peat into fuel within Rockingham and Strafford Counties. Those who desire to invest in a useful and profitable Company, will soon have an opportunity to do so.

☞ The Philharmonic Society will have a Rehearsal at Mercantile Hall, this (Monday) evening, for their Christmas Concert. The attendance of every member is requested—roll call at half-past 7. The doorkeeper will not admit visitors.

☞ The members of St. John's and St. Andrew's Lodges, F. and A. M., are requested to meet in the United States Court Room this (Monday) evening, at 7 o'clock.

☞ Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, in his morning sermon on Sunday, paid an eloquent tribute to the memory of that exemplary man, the late Rev. A. M. Bridge, of Hampton Falls.

— The N. Y. Farmers' Club has decided that corn, at any price it has sold for in that market, is the cheapest food for cattle that can be bought.

— The Burlington (Vt.) Times says the apple speculators thereabouts have made a bad job of it, as winter apples have a downward tendency, the city markets being glutted with them.

— A recent number of the New Orleans True Delta states that the receipts at the Custom House for duties, in gold, for November, 1865, were $510,973.70 against $248,066.93 in the corresponding month of 1860, before the war.

— The keeper of a toll-gate near Nashville was murdered on Tuesday night by a band of robbers. The band then proceeded up the road and robbed fifteen persons living along the road. They then decamped, and have not since been heard of.

PEARLS AND RUBIES.—White teeth cropping from out of ridges of ruby, a breath spicy as the airs from Araby the Blest. Who can resist such fascinations? To realize them, to perpetuate them, to make the mouth a casket of pearls and rubies, and every sigh a gush of fragrance, all you have to do, fair ladies, is to use that matchless vegetable preparation, Fragrant Sozodont. dec19eod1w

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is light and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit region. Fifty hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fruit tracts, in an almost level position and with able condition for pleasant farming that we know a this side of the Western Prairies. n1—dawôm

From the Portsmouth Journal

A PERILOUS POSITION.—At the fire on Thursday evening, while Mr. Joseph H. Gardiner was seated upon the roof of the house of Wm. P. Jones, Esq., taking care of the sparks, several ladies stepped out from the scuttle to look upon the fire. As one of them, a daughter of Alexander H. Ladd, Esq. did so, she stepped upon a place where the water was frozen, and at once slipped and slid towards the eaves of the front of the building, from which, but for the presence of mind of Mr. Gardiner, she would have fallen to the pavement, about thirty feet. Mr. Gardiner, who was holding himself up by the edge of the scuttle, at once let go his hold and grasped the lady's wrist, himself at once beginning to slide downwards. It was but the work of an instant; but a half second longer and the fate of both would have been inevitable. By a quick movement, he was just in time to renew his hold, by clasping two fingers upon the scuttle again, which left him with both arms extended, his precious burden of life in one grasp, and a precarious hold in the other, and only by the greatest exertion was he enabled to acquire a firm hold, and thus to place the lady once more in a position of safety.

It was one of the most narrow escapes whatever had occasion to record. Had they fallen, both must have been killed or mangled on the pavement, and the rescue to the young lady was most providential, and was only accomplished by Mr. Gardiner at the imminent risk of his own life.

IN MEMORY OF CHARLES C. CHASE.

Listen O mother! do not weep—
Your boy was only rocked to sleep.
And from the ocean of quivering hearts,
Was lifted into rest.

Believe O mother! for the prayer
That rose above the tempest there,
Hushed his soul from its alarms
Into his Father's arms.

And as life's last fluttering note
Grew into silence more remote,
The angels listening at Heaven's door
Opened, and found one more.

Patience O mother! for after
Where all God's choicest jewels are,
Your pearls, in light most sure,
Are only waiting you.

INCENDIARY.—The town authorities of Barnstead, N. H. have been endeavoring to eradicate from their midst the sale of ardent spirits, and some of her citizens have used their utmost influence in aiding in the good cause—the consequence has been (in the judgment of sensible people,) the destroying of buildings by fire. A short time since the house, barn, &c. of Horace Colbath, Esq. a very respectable citizen, was burned. Loss $2500. On Thanksgiving night, the saw and planing mills, known as the "Collins Buildings," were burned—the loss of which to the owners is very large. Charles Hodgdon (a nephew of Andrew Sherburne of this city,) having lately returned from California, and invested $1700 in the concern. Charles Tuttle has been arrested for selling liquor, and placed under bonds. A man who will set fire to buildings deserves to be hanged.

FAIRS.—This week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the ladies of the Middle Street Baptist society are to hold a Fair at the Court House, to which the public are invited. We understand they have been for some time making preparations for a very nice entertainment, and will present a fine display of articles of needle work, fancy articles, and other appropriate and unique gifts for the coming holidays. A sociable evening, seasonable refreshments, and music, will make the attendance a very pleasant affair. See advertisement.

INSURED.—The life of Aaron R. Mason of this city, lately deceased, was insured to the amount of $3,000. We learn that the fact of his being insured was not known by his family or friends until the policy was found among his effects. The policy had only a few days to run before another annual payment was due, and had it not been discovered it might have been vitiated by the non-payment when due.

VERY KIND.—Charles H. Joy, Deputy Sheriff and Jailer, gave his boarders an extra dinner on Thanksgiving day. Two dollars a week is the price paid per week for County prisoners, and from that amount it is not possible to get many luxuries, but Mr. Joy opened his heart and bought a nice turkey dinner on the occasion spoken of.

ROBBERY.—Tibbetts' store, at Gilmanton Corner, N. H., was robbed last week of one thousand dollars in greenbacks. A boy by the name of Edgerly is suspected of having committed the crime. The robbery was discovered in thirty minutes, and no clue to Edgerly can be found.

"MUSIC HATH CHARMS," &c.—A Brass Band consisting of eighteen performers, under the leadership of Mr. George Goodrich, is being formed at Eliot. Mr. Knight of Knight's Cornet Band of this city, is instructing them.

GARROTED.—John Dudley, of Alton, was knocked down near Alton Corner last week, and one thousand dollars taken from him. Garroters don't confine themselves to city life.

Samuel Foye was set upon by two men, on Friday night of last week, to one of whom he gave a severe drubbing.

FAIR.

COURT HOUSE,

It will be continued on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and on Thursday Evening. On account of Rev. Dr. Chapin's Lecture, it will not be open on Wednesday evening.

A large assortment of fancy and useful needlework, a large variety of articles adapted to GIFTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS, and refreshments, &c. &c. will be offered for sale. Every effort is being made to form a most agreeable entertainment.

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen, I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabiliu, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to publish this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

FEARFUL TRAGEDY IN MISSISSIPPI.—Eight or ten years since, James Thompson left Brookeville Miss., and is supposed to have entered the army of Peru. He recently returned home, and has been organizing a company for Brazil, obtaining deeds of his father's property, and converting it into money. The father has been trying to stay these proceedings, but quite secretly. The family consisted of his step-mother, three half sisters, a half-brother and a full brother, Joseph, suspected of being an accomplice in a terrible tragedy. On Sunday, recently, James entered the house with a shot gun and killed Margaret, tearing the arm nearly off at the right shoulder. The mother was then shot dead. His brother, Clay, was shot, too, and Emma, the youngest, was fearfully mangled. Subsequently James met his father and fired twice, but without effect. He was seized and with difficulty was carried through the incensed crowd to jail.

A QUEER BIGAMY CASE.—In the New Bedford Police Court, Mary E. Haskell, a girl only fifteen years old, was complained of by her sister for bigamy, having been married to one Ira Haskins, in October last, while her former husband, Charles J. Haskell, was living. For the defence it was claimed that respondent having been first married at the age of 13 years, without the consent of her mother, who is her only surviving parent, and having been separated from Haskell by his being incarcerated in the State Prison, and having no intention to live again with him, that marriage was void. The testimony for the prosecution showed, however, that she had expressed an intention to live with Haskell after his term of imprisonment should expire. The court said that the reports hold that a female of twelve years is of legal age to consent to her own marriage, and respondent was ordered to furnish $300 bail for her appearance at the Superior Court at Taunton in March. The complainant in the above case is married to the brother of her sister's first husband, both of whom were sent to the State Prison last June for shop-breaking in Westport.

— Among the funds in the hands of the Corporation of London, is a sum of two hundred pounds a year, left in trust "to burn heretics."

— The Princeton Standard says that twenty-two of the students of the College of New Jersey have been dismissed by the faculty for participation in the "horn spree."

ISRAEL MARDEN & CO.,
No. 39 Congress St., Portsmouth, N. H.,
—DEALERS IN—
S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.
This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.
ITS ADVANTAGES.
FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.
SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction, and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.
THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.
FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.
FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well, pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.
SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.
☞ Manufactured by S. VANCE & CO., No. 81 Liberty Street, Newburyport, and for sale in Portsmouth by the Sole Agents for N. H.,
ISRAEL MARDEN & CO.,
39 Congress Street.
☞ We are permitted to refer to Mr. MONROE HOLMES and to Mr. FRANK W. MILLER of the Daily Chronicle, who have these new Pumps in use on their premises,—for testimony of their excellence.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
THE STANDARD
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1,000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 100 fine portraits of Generals, battle-scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Generals, the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. Dow has now the pleasure of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never before been first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, inflicting the unfortunate individuals with premature decay. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capuites, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

TEESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1865.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The New Era, a loyal paper published in Darlington, S. C., in a good editorial, says:

Many of the old disciples of the school of State Sovereignty and other ignes fatui, which led us into the wilderness of Secession, confess that they still speak and act under duress—that they are conquered by superior numbers, but that their opinions still remain the same. * * * We do complain that these same men, whose opinions and doctrines have ruined us, whose predictions have all failed, still insist on holding the highest seats in the synagogue, and becoming our lawgivers and political leaders. * * * The men whose words of advice and warning have now become prophetic, are still spurned by the majority, and are doomed to private life. * * * How the State is to be restored to her position of equality in the Union, is a problem yet to be solved. Should she be held as a military province for two years longer, let the responsibility rest where it properly belongs, upon the shoulders of those who have elected men to Congress who will not be admitted there.

The same paper, speaking of the new proposed law of South Carolina, which authorizes the chastisement of apprentices, has this statement:

The laws of every old free State, if we are not greatly mistaken, authorize the chastisement of apprentices.

The laws of New Hampshire (one of the oldest and freest States,) do not authorize any such thing as the whipping of apprentices by masters. We believe no New England State has any such law at present: any old statutes of that sort were repealed or overridden long ago.

☞ Gen Carey of Ohio, a noted temperance man, an eloquent speaker, and a loyal soldier, has been giving lectures in Portland on Temperance, but they are suspended because the attendance and receipts were too small to justify the outlay. The Press calls this state of things a burning shame; but we do not see any present help for it. Distinguished lecturers are not now successful in drawing audiences. We know of no better agency at present in this matter than Lectures or Sermons by resident Pastors of our Churches, or ministering brethren with whom they exchange—together with Cold Water Armies, Church Temperance Societies, Sons of Temperance, &c. U. T.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—A Washington dispatch says further disclosures show that the frauds upon discharged soldiers by unprincipled claim agents in the matter of procuring bounties and land warrants along the Pacific Railroad, will reach $50,000 instead of $20,000, as at first believed. Complaints of swindled discharged soldiers who have received the advance fee of $25, are coming in at a painful rate.

Gen. Swayne, of Alabama, telegraphs Gen. Howard that, in his opinion, at least 40,000 freedmen and refugees will be compelled to rely on Government rations this winter.

Advices from Florida and North Carolina are encouraging. The freedmen are settling down and are becoming industrious.

A Washington dispatch says the Director of the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia has made for the Secretary of the Treasury specimens of eagles, half eagles, dollars, half dollars, and quarter dollars, bearing the motto, "In God We Trust." There is no addition to the other legends and devices upon the coins. Secretary McCulloch has approved the designs, and the coins hereafter made will bear the motto. The smaller coins do not afford room for the words.

☞ The Darlington, S. C., New Era, of Dec. 12, states that a meeting of planters was held in the Court House on the 8th inst., for consultation with regard to contracts with freedmen and other matters.—Gen. Richardson, at the request of the Chairman, explained the object of the meeting in some well-timed and pertinent observations, remarking particularly upon the importance of negro labor to the South, and the improbability, if not impossibility, of obtaining a supply of any other kind of labor for many years to come. He stated that if the whole tide of foreign emigration were turned upon South Carolina, it would not for some time supply the demand for labor there.

Several forms of contract were submitted to the meeting, and referred to a committee to report at an adjourned meeting, at which Gen. Saxton is invited to be present.

☞ The ex-pirate Shenandoah, having met heavy gales, returned to Liverpool, Dec. 8.—O'Leary, the Fenian, has been found guilty of treason; but made a speech saying he was no traitor, and that he owed no allegiance to Britain nor obedience to her laws. Sentenced to 20 years' penal servitude.

—Rev. N. G. Clark, A. M., Professor of Rhetoric and English Literature in Union College, has resigned his place to assume the duties of Secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——James Allen of Manchester, accused of setting fire to the buildings of John McGuiness, is held to bail in the sum of $800.

——The 2d N. H. Regiment is not coming home, after all—the order to muster them out having been recalled, after they had reached City Point, and were making up their rolls. It seems the rebels South, like their sympathizers North, are not thoroughly subjugated yet, and we must keep a few more soldiers in arms.

——A coppery paper hopes a Lecture Committee in Manchester "will seek to return to the old system, when people of all parties could attend a lecture without being grossly insulted." But should they seek ever so earnestly, they can never find a course of respectable lectures or sermons, or even prayers, by which some partisan would not feel himself insulted. The dupes and allies of the dead Confederacy are remarkably sensitive, and always trembling lest somebody should upset their party. No wonder they shut themselves out of religious and social assemblies. They are greatly to be pitied—not persecuted—for their tender but erroneous conscience.

A BANKER DONE OUT OF $1000 IN GOLD.—In Baltimore on Tuesday, Wm. T. Smithson & Co., bankers, were swindled out of one thousand dollars in gold. About noon a boy about twelve or fourteen years of age, presented a letter purporting to be from Col. Robert Coleman, proprietor of the Eutaw House, asking what he could purchase $1000 in gold for. A member of the firm responded by saying that they would sell it for $1350. The boy received the note and left, and after an absence of half an hour, again returned with a note written upon a sheet of letter paper, headed Eutaw House, requesting Messrs. Smithson and Co. to send the gold by bearer in a bag. Enclosed in the note was a check purporting to be from Robert Coleman, for $1400 upon the Chesapeake Bank of Baltimore. The check was received without any hesitation, the gold placed in a bag and handed to the boy, with the $50 in paper money, making up the amount of the check. The boy disappeared with the bag, and nothing further was thought of the matter until afternoon, when the check was discovered to be a miserable forgery, the signature being entirely unlike Mr. Coleman's. Information was given to the detectives, but the gentleman who paid over the money being unable to describe the boy, there is no clue by which to operate, and it is feared that the principal party in this most daring swindle will be enabled to escape.

FROM JAMAICA, DIRECT.—Steamship Montezuma, ar. at New York, has news to Dec. 6, 15 days the latest. At the latest advices the number of negroes executed was estimated at from 2000 to 4000, and the land is said to be offensive with corpses. There was no evidence to support the statements previously made that the revolt was the result of a long projected plot, having ramifications in New York, Hayti and Cuba.

Various Legislative measures had been introduced, of which the following are all prominent: A loan of £50,000 to meet the expenses of extinguishing the rebellion; a bill to preserve the public worship of God from scandalous abuses; a bill for the confiscation of rebel property; a bill providing against authorized duelling; and a bill suspending the present Constitution, abolishing the House of Assembly and Legislative Council, and providing a Legislative Chamber to be composed solely of nominees of the Crown. The second named bill meets with much opposition from respectable society.

☞ A destructive fire occurred in Chicago on Saturday morning. Loss $250,000.

—The Montgomery correspondent of the Mobile Times says that the negroes are beginning to appreciate their condition, and are rapidly making contracts for the coming year.

—The Gloucester Advertiser says a skipper in that town has made the handsome sum of $10,000 in the business the present season. Since his return from the Bay he has sold his vessel at an advance of $2000 above her cost in the spring.

—A negro jury was empanneled at Callao, Macon county, Missouri, on the 4th instant. A suit for assault and battery was brought before Squire Ballinger, in which the parties were colored citizens. A jury was summoned, composed entirely of colored men, who, after hearing the evidence and the charge of the court, assessed the fine of twenty-one dollars each.

—President Johnson has positively declined to accept a carriage made for him by the workmen of the army repair workshop, after their working hours, and it has been purchased by Secretary Stanton. It used to be said during the war that if a general officer sent a broken wheelspoke to this repair shop he would receive an entire new wagon, with the exception of the wheel, in which there would be the broken spoke neatly spliced.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.—The New York Post has a letter from the city of Mexico, Nov. 24, which says that a number of Americans at Charco de los Gerdermies, in the new State of Nazas, (the northern half of Durango) have been arrested on the pretext of being concerned in the assassination of the Perfect, which happened recently, and taken to the city of Durango. All the Americans in the vicinity were arrested. The police frequently go to the rooms of foreigners at 3 o'clock in the morning, and take them to the diligence office, furnish them with seats, and convey them out of the country. Maj. Geo. F. Adams, of the United States Army, has been missing for nine days. The correspondent represents the condition of affairs in Mexico as decidedly favorable to the Liberals.

"The Imperialists and Liberals in Mexico occupy about the following relative position: Three-fourths of the territory is to day under the direction of the Liberal or Mexican authorities; the late strategical move of the Liberals having compelled Bazine to recall nearly all of the troops under his command in the States of Jalasco, Michoacan Guanajuato, Puebla, Guerrero and Oaxaca, in order to protect the city of Mexico. With the exception of Sisal Merida, in Yucatan, Maximilian is unknown in the State, Not an imperial order nor an imperial soldier is known in the State of Chiapas. In the southern portion of Vera Cruz and Oaxaca, and south of Acapulco, in Guerrera, no attention is paid to Maximilian or the embryo empire. No mails arrive from these districts. In Sonora, Sinaloa, Durango, Chihuahua, Colhuila, New Leon, Tamaulipas, Zacatecas, San Luis Potosi, Northern Vera Cruz, Northern Mexico, Guanajuate, (with the exception of the large cities,) the authority of Maximilian is unknown, and in the cities it is not enforced on account of the weakness of the garrisons."

The Manhattan, one of the steamers of the American and Mexican Steamship Company, brought from Havana to Vera Cruz, on a late trip, seventeen thousand Springfield muskets, purchased by an American named O'Sullivan, for the use of Maximilian.

FROM MEXICO, via Washington.—Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister, received official news from Matamoras to the 10th inst. Gen. Escabado took the city of Montery and held it for some time. Two columns of the French in strong force were sent after him and he finally abandoned Montery. One of the French divisions attacked him, and it is reported that he defeated them with heavy loss. Senor Romero has also received official information from El Paso to the 12th of November. President Juarez, his cabinet and several other officers of the National Government, were to leave El Paso on the 13th of that month for the city of Chihuahua. The French had retreated as far as Durango, and it was understood that they would also abandon that State in their movement of concentration.

—A soft or green Quaker would be as great a curiosity as a dissipated Hebrew; but not so great a one after all as to find the woman who did not prefer the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap to any other the world can produce. Wifes says it makes old clothes look as well as new, and a cross man the pleasantest and most lovely creature on the globe. Try it, and our word for it, you will always patronize the Gold Medal Soap. 24

A MAN CUT TO PIECES.—One of the most diabolical outrages that ever occurred in Indiana was perpetrated near Edwardsville, on Monday. Mr. Denton Shirley, a well-known and respectable farmer, was found in his barn with in an insensible condition, with forty-three cuts and stabs about the head and face. In addition to this, his shoes and stockings had been taken off, his leg laid across a block, and his foot cut off. Mr. Shirley is improving, and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

ABOLITION.—Official information has reached the Department of State of the ratification by the Legislatures of Indiana, Georgia and Alabama of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States on the subject of slavery.

☞ The Portland Advertiser states that in that city on Saturday evening, at about 8 o'clock, as Mr. Shaw, an old man of 60 years, was passing up Cotton street, a villian struck him on the side of the head with a slung shot, which felled him to the ground, but his cries caused the scamp to flee. The object was undoubtedly to rob him, as he had a little over one hundred dollars in his pocket, and had just left his store on Fore street, a few rods distant.

☞ A St. Louis dispatch of Saturday says, the ice gorge in the river below this city gave way this afternoon. The ice swept past the city with tremendous power, sinking or seriously damaging a dozen steamers and a number of barges. Several barges and wharf boats, laden with grain, were crushed like egg shells. It is not improbable that more boats may be sunk when the ice above the city moves down.

—The Louisiana Senate lately fixed an hour for receiving a flag from a committee of ladies of New Orleans, but the fact leaking out that said ladies were colored, revoked their acceptance and ordered all the proceedings to be expunged from its records.

HASHEESH! HASHEESH!

One of the oldest Remedies known to Medical Science.

THE HASHEESH CANDY

Now imported and prepared by the SYLVAN ORIENT CO, under the supervision of one of the most thorough Medical Chemists in the country, is the only pleasant and reliable preparation of this Remedy ever offered to the public, and is fast taking the place of, and will soon supersede, all other Medicines now used for the alleviation or cure of

NERVOUSNESS, NEURALGIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE,

and all diseases of the Nervous System. In Oriental countries, HASHEESH has, for centuries, been the theme of Poets, Philosophers and Novel Writers, both for its marvelous influence on the mind, when used experimentally, and for its almost miraculous qualities, when prepared as a Medicine.

The Bengal Dispensatory says "the effects of Hasheesh are popularly known throughout south Africa, Turkey, Egypt, Asia Minor, India and all the adjacent territories; and in all the popular medicines of those nations, we find it extensively employed for a multitude of afflictions." In a standard treatise of Materia Medica, more than six hundred years old, it is described as the most valuable of all remedies.

Special Notice.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. It may lie dormant and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGOURK'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGOURK'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. Lyon's Periodical Drops!

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES.

These Drops are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Nostrums. Being liquid, their action is direct and positive, rendering them a reliable, speedy and certain specific for the cure of all obstructions and suppressions of nature. Their popularity is indicated by the fact that over 100,000 bottles are annually sold and consumed by the ladies of the United States, every one of whom speak in the strongest terms of praise of their great merits. They are rapidly taking the place of every other female Remedy, and are considered by all who know their value, as the surest, safest and most infallible preparation in the world, for the cure of all female complaints, the removal of all obstructions of nature, and the promotion of health, regularity and strength. Explicit directions stating when they may be used, and explaining when and why they should not, nor could not be used without producing effects contrary to nature's chosen laws, will be found carefully folded around each bottle, with the written signature of JOHN L. LYON, without which none are genuine. Price $1.50.

Prepared by Dr. JOHN L. LYON, 195 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn, who can be consulted either personally, or by mail, (inclosing stamp,) concerning all private diseases and female weaknesses. Price $1.50 per Bottle.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is not only promptly reliable and harmless.

KNOWLEDGE OFTEN SAVES LIFE.

Every living being has in his system

IMPURITIES.

When these are within their natural limits, our health is good; but when they are in excess, pains, colds, rheumatism, gout, debility, costiveness, diarrhea, dysentery, erysipelas, &c., &c., afflict us. Local.

☞ A similarity of names is apt to cause confusion, at the least, and often the mistakes caused thereby are unpleasant. The name of John A. Payne appeared in our Police Court report of Monday: that is also the name of a son of A. A. Payne, Esq., who wishes us to state that he is not the John A. Payne who was fined for drunkenness.

☞ In consequence of the ill health of Rev. Dr. Adams, of the Congregational Church of Brunswick, Me., the parish have voted to have only one sermon on the Sabbath. Rev. George E. Adams was formerly a resident of Portsmouth, where he taught a school for young ladies.

☞ Among the solid men of the West who have gone from New Hampshire, we notice by the return of the Assessor of the 2d District of Minnesota, that Morris Lamprey Esq., of Saint Paul, who a few years ago went from Hampton, confesses to an income last year, of over ten thousand dollars. 27 persons in St. Paul pay an income tax of the first class, (over $5000) their combined income amounting to $340,448.

☞ Several discharged officers (in Concord, Manchester, Portsmouth and elsewhere,) of the various returned New Hampshire Regiments are perfecting arrangements for a "Grand Military Levee and Reunion," to come off on the first day of January, 1866—place not as yet stated. All New Hampshire officers who have served in the field will be expected to appear in full uniform. Further particulars will be given as soon as ascertained.

☞ A city correspondent recommends the purchase by the city, of large old sails, to be used at fires, to cover the side of a building exposed to the heat, instead of carpets. A sail, wet in a moment by an engine, is a better defence than a carpet, and with proper arrangements, would be always ready. Such a device has been in use in Salem, Mass, for many years. The same correspondent also suggests the propriety and necessity of keeping the reservoirs full of water, by having larger pipes to supply them, if need be.

☞ Mr. Geo. G. Spurr, who is to lecture at the Temple, (see advertisement) has been a resident of California, where he lost an arm; and he is represented as able and worthy.

ARMY.—Major Thomas J. Haines, Commissary of Subsistence, Brevet Brigadier General U. S. A., is to remain on duty at St. Louis, Mo. Gen. Haines is a native of this city, and entered the service July 1, 1849.

NAVAL.—Acting Master Chas. E. Hawkins, of this city, has been honorably discharged from the service.

☞ That adjourned Horse Guards' Meeting is to be held at the Common Council Room, this (Tuesday) evening at 7 o'clock.

☞ Lyceum, this week, on Wednesday evening—not Tuesday, as usual. Mr. Chapin is worth changing the night for.

☞ Messrs. Betton & Co., Auctioneers, have removed to their new quarters on Congress street, nearly opposite Vaughan street.

☞ South Carolina is not reconstructing very rapidly, nor very safely. A Charleston paper publishes a dispatch from Columbia, asserting that Pres. Johnson has sent a dispatch to Gov. Perry, amounting to approval of their doings;—but the story looks like bogus coin.

☞ Leopold, King of the Belgians, died Dec. 8th, aged 74 years.

— Nearly 14,000 fires occurred in Russia in the year 1864.

— An anti-Fenian movement has been set on foot by a number of leading Irishmen in Brooklyn.

— The latest Paris fashion is for the ladies to be accompanied in the drive or promenade by immense dogs.

— Edmund Perkins, Jr., of New Haven, was run into by two other lads while skating, and had his collar bone broken.

— Correspondence of a Parisian journal relates that a large part of the Neapolitan population believe the cholera to be the result of poisoning.

— The dressing, flirting and dash of the members of the female jockey club in Paris, are described as more extravagant this season than ever.

— An untimely joke was lately passed at Breslau, on the occasion of the funeral of a student who had been killed in a duel. The coffin had been let down into the grave, when a voice was heard, apparently proceeding from the inside of it, exclaiming, "Let me out; I am suffocating!" The coffin was immediately brought up and opened, but the body was found to be quite dead. The author of the hoax was found to be a ventriloquist present, who was arrested for disturbing a religious ceremony.

— The Gentleman's Magazine, the oldest literary property in England, having been published one hundred and thirty-four years, is offered for sale.

— Those who favor the retention of the officers of the Veteran Reserve corps, say after an examination of the subject, that those officers represent 400 disbanded volunteer organizations, and that a large portion of them were wounded in the late campaigns in Virginia.

— The Lowmoor (England) Iron Company now regularly employ three large omnibuses going around an out-district, every morning, to collect their workmen, who are thus prevented from "dropping in" at liquor shops on the way, whereby they formerly lost much time, health and money.

THE HOLIDAYS.—The gayest season of the entire year is now approaching, but whilst we are enjoying this festive season, let us not forget that in time of health we must always be prepared for disease. Coughs, colds, sore throat, croup, asthma, and whooping cough are speedily cured by Coe's Cough Balsam. Whilst dyspepsia, constipation, sick headache, sour stomach, indigestion—the most prolific source of ill-health, are certainly cured by the timely use of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. d19-eodawlw

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass, Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers, with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most scientifically fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. n1-dawem

The Chronicle.

— The first named on the list of Vice Presidents at a Democratic meeting in New Orleans, the night before the election, was that of General Beauregard; and when his name was called, the walls of the building, the papers say, never rang with such cheering before.—Manchester Union.

Of course "Gen. Beauregard," or any other rebel, would be cheered in a "democratic" meeting. Of course every man who has been found firing upon the national flag and shooting down its defenders, will find a home in the "democratic" party. We think of no one, the mention of whose name in a democratic meeting would make the "walls of the building ring with such cheering" as that of Beauregard.—Statesman.

— The editor of the Boston Commonwealth, meeting Gen. Banks by chance immediately after the election, said, "I am sorry, general, that I have been obliged to oppose you for the past few weeks." "Ah, have you?" replied the general, "I had not heard of it."—Springfield Republican.

Not quite correctly reported. "It is to be expected friends will differ," blandly remarked the general; "even the Springfield Republican changed on Butler within a week; and after five years of slurs upon Gov. Andrew, it can't say anything too complimentary of him." He then retired with his usual dignity.—Commonwealth.

AUCTION EXCITEMENT.—It was stated in this paper, two weeks ago, that amongst other merchandise sold at high figures at a sale by auction in a neighboring town, a shoe was sold on the boot at 25 cents a pound. O. F. Fowler, Esq., of Bristol, informs us that at a recent auction in Plymouth a shoe brought 40 cents a pound on the hoof.—Statesman.

SOUTHERN OPINION.—Roger A. Pryor was a listener at the Cooper Institute Hall, New York, to the oration of Wendell Phillips on "Reconstruction, or the South victorious." After it closed, Mr. Pryor said to a gentleman that Mr. Phillips was entirely right; that in May last Mr. Johnson could have imposed any terms upon the South; that they then expected impartial suffrage, and that now it could be obtained only by a long agitation. Gov. Pryor is also reported as favoring the same view.—Commonwealth.

American and Foreign Patents.
H. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign countries. Also, Reissues, Extensions, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Examinations into the American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters appertaining to the validity of the claims of any Patent furnished by resulting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, and the promptness and reliability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. Inventors, who desire to see models, prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS DEPENDS MOST UPON ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the chances for professional success so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full assortments of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All accompany of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. H. H. Eddy has secured for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such uninterrupted success of great value and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in connexion with other parties, has prosecuted to completion SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. H. H. EDDY.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen,—I am a resident of Caracoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinlis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Caracoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1866.

WE ASK

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

A PRIVATE BOX IN CHURCH.—Near Bedford, England, is a little village church, where the lord of the manor has a private box or apartment overlooking the chancel. A little flight of steps outside the church leads to the double door of this secluded oratory, which is furnished with a fire-place and sundry very comfortable chairs and foot-stools. The proprietor is a very devout man, and never misses morning service. When the service commences, he opens the sash window, which is exactly opposite the reading desk, and behaves with the strictest decorum until the prayers are over, and the psalm immediately before the sermon is sung to the end. Then just as the minister enters the pulpit, he shuts down the sash and devotes himself to reading the letters by the morning post, which have in the meanwhile been brought to him by his servant.

— The Mobile Register of Saturday last announces the departure of Major Hastings and his colony for Brazil via New Orleans. The emigrants were once the most wealthy citizens. The Register deplores their departure, and says bitterly:

"Yet we are consoled by the reflection that it is in consequence of no act of ours, but the natural and inevitable result of causes over which we have no control—the illegitimate offspring of the criminal alliance, long since existing between vandalic cupidity and blind, nefarious fanaticism."

AN ESQUIMAUX DOG.—Although Congress has passed a law forbidding the importation of cattle, no law has been enacted against the importation of the canine race. We learn that a large Esquimaux dog about three feet high, has arrived in Boston from Greenland—a present to Horace Bassett, Esq., a resident of Brighton. Those who have seen him say he is a beauty. The weather is so warm here in comparison to that of his native land, it makes him run his tongue out as though it was the season of dog days.

— Waterfalls are making a great disturbance in Germany. The innocent maidens wear their hair hanging down in long plaits, and pestilent fellows are around to clip them at every opportunity for the waterfall makers. Even the churches are desecrated by these singular thieves.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS

Invariably Cure the Following Diseases:

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT:
FOR
HISTORY OF THE WAR,
COMPLETE IN ONE VERY LARGE VOLUME OF OVER 1000 PAGES.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the "Great Conflict." It contains reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 150 fine portraits of Generals, battle-scenes, maps and diagrams.
In the selection of matter, for this great work, the author has confined himself strictly to official data, derived from the reports of Northern and Southern Congresses, the Reports of the Committees on the Conduct of the War, National and Rebel Archives, &c. &c.
He has carefully avoided the introduction of any matter not strictly reliable and official, and has succeeded in producing what is universally demanded, a fair and impartial History of the War.
Returned and disabled officers and soldiers, and energetic young men in want of profitable employment will find this a rare chance to make money. We have Agents clearing $250 per month, which we will prove to any responsible applicant; for proof of the above send for circulars and see our terms. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1865.

IMPORTANT OFFICIAL DOCUMENT.—We here publish the most important document of the present era, viz: the official announcement that Slavery in this Country is dead, and that Congress is empowered to bury it beyond the reach of resurrection.

William H. Seward, Secretary of State of the United States, to all whom these presents may come, greeting:

Know ye, that whereas the Congress of the United States on the 1st of February last passed a resolution which is in the words following, viz:

"A resolution submitting to the Legislatures of the several States a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States:

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as a part of said Constitution, viz:

Article XIII., Section 1. Neither slavery or voluntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Section 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate Legislation."

And, whereas, it appears from official documents on file in this Department, that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed as aforesaid, has been ratified by the States of Illinois, Rhode Island, Michigan, Maryland, New York, West Virginia, Ohio, Missouri, Nevada, Indiana, Louisiana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Vermont, Tennessee, Arkansa, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Maine, Kansas, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia, South Carolina, Alabama, North Carolina and Georgia—in all twenty-seven States:

And whereas, the whole number of States in the United States is 36:

And whereas, the before specially named States, whose Legislatures have ratified the said proposed amendment, constitute three-fourths of the whole number of States in the United States:

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of the United States, by virtue and in pursuance of the second section of the act of Congress, approved on the 20th of April, 1818, entitled "An act to provide for the publication of the laws of the United States and for other purposes, do hereby certify that the amendment aforesaid has become valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution of the United States.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the the seal of the Department of State to be affixed.

Done at Washington, this 18th day of December, in the year of Our Lord, 1865, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninetieth.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, Monday Dec. 18, a resolution was adopted granting $500,000 for the support of destitute Indians in the Southern dependencies and to purchase agricultural implements for them.

A bill granting one million of acres of public lands for the support of the schools of the District of Columbia was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Committee on Commerce to inquire into the manner by which American vessels were transferred during the war to British owners and are now being furnished with American registers.

IN THE HOUSE, a bill was introduced repealing the Fishing bounties. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

A resolution declaring the elective franchise belongs exclusively to regulations by the States was tabled.

A resolution was offered calling upon the President for information as to the application of the so-called Mexican Emperor to obtain recognition from the United States.

The House concurred in the Senate's resolution for the suitable observance of the 12th of February (death of Lincoln) and passed a bill appropriating $25,000 to Mrs. Lincoln.

The bill extending suffrage to the District of Columbia was reported and made special for the 10th of January.

A resolution was offered making the test-oath of binding force in all departments of the public service, which should in no instance be dispensed with. A motion to table it was lost—32 to 126. The resolution was then passed.

A resolution was adopted—yeas 144, nays 6—that the House cordially concurs in the views of the Secretary of the Treasury in relation to the necessity of a contraction of the currency with a view to early resumption of specie payments as the business interests of the country will permit, and we hereby pledge co-operative action to that end as speedily as possible.

A variety of bills and project were referred to the Committee on Reconstruction.

The House went into committee of the whole on the President's message.

Mr. Stevens made a speech on reconstruction, arguing that the lately rebellious States must come back as new States or remain as conquered provinces.

Extracts from Private Foreign Correspondence.

* * * The principal object of our visit to Hampton Court was to see again the Cartoons of Raphael, but greatly to our disappointment, found that they had been removed to Kensington Museum in the city. The gardens were as beautiful as ever, and the old grape vine (the largest in the world) still continues to produce its yearly supply of several tons, most of which are sent to Her Majesty, the Queen. By the way, I bought in London, capital Fontainbleau grapes at 8d the pound, which is, as you know, only one shilling in our coin, and 25c in greenbacks. At this price, we could afford to send you a basket, and should do so, could it be forwarded by telegraph wires.

On our return from H. C., we rode thro' Bushy Park, a most delightful ride through grounds covered by the most magnificent trees, under which were grazing numbers of deer. I noticed that the foliage of the trees was of the same uniform height, and supposed that it was the result of careful pruning, but was told by the driver that it was caused by the deer, which eat all the leaves within their reach.

Leaving the Park, one soon arrives at Twickenham, where you are shown Pope's Villa and Strawberry Hill, formerly the famous residence of Horace Walpole. Thence to Richmond, landing at the famous Star and Garter on the Terrace, where one is expected to take a white bait dinner. I have at various times seen some of the most famous views: Bay of Naples and Sorrento; The Panorama from the heights of Fourviere at Lyons; the view across the Vega at Grenada, where the luxuriant vegetation of the Valley is backed by the snow-capped summit of the Sierra-Nevada; the view from the summit of Wyndcliff, near Tintern Abbey, which overlooks the windings of the river Wye, and extends into nine different counties; and yet among them all there is nothing more beautiful than this from Richmond Terrace.

One day in London we rode in the Underground Railroad cars. They are brilliantly lighted, each car having two gas burners, so that you can read quite easily. They are well patronized, but as yet have produced no sensible effect in lessening the crowd in the streets above. Saturday morning we took tickets for the Isle of Wight via Portsmouth—not N. H., U. S. A.,—but the great naval depot of England. Here one sees the Victory, and other famous vessels, which have, like our "Constitution," a history; and also the large modern Ironclads. It is a fine-looking city, but we did not stop to examine it. Took boat for Ryde, the landing-place at the Island, and a most beautiful spot is it. Built upon the side of a hill, facing the sea, and terrace rising after terrace, so that the view from the water makes a splendid picture. There are here, as in all the principal towns, numbers of villas, with fancy names, where one can have furnished apartments for two pounds a week, which includes the service, so that you have nothing to do but open your trunk and find yourself very much at home at once. In the morning you tell the landlady what you wish bought for dinner or supper, as the case may be, and she procures it, presenting, at the end of the week, her "little bill" for items,—or you may make the purchases yourself, if preferred.

Having friends at Shanklin, we left Ryde immediately, but found all the Hotels full, and so were obliged to take apartments, and there passed a quiet Sunday, with the exception of a walk through the Chine, which is a gorge through the chalk, somewhat like the Flume at the White Mountains, only here you descend to the Beach, and then gradually and by a devious path, rise to a height of about 250 feet. At the bottom there is a small stream pursuing its way to the sea, and the sides clothed with every variety of verdure, so you may readily suppose that it presents quite a remarkable appearance. Shanklin is one of the prettiest towns; the houses on the cliff are most tastefully built, and have attractive gardens.

Monday morning we took an open carriage to make the circuit of the Island, passing through Bonchurch, Ventnor, and many smaller towns, until we reached Allen Bay, where we slept. Here are remarkable geological formations, and finding a nice Hotel, we enjoyed it much.

The next morning we rode to Freshwater, passing Tennyson's house and grounds, and almost determined to make him a call. Aware of his retiring habits, we concluded it was not best to try the experiment, tho' Lady Collins, at Afton House, just beyond, who knew Tennyson well, said he was always at home to Americans.

Carisbrooke Castle (which one sees on his way to Newport, a large town in the centre of the Island,) is quite an extensive ruin, but not as picturesque as Kenilworth. From Newport we drove through Anelon, stopping at the Church to see the grave of the Dairyman's Daughter, whom Leigh Richmond has immortalized. A mile or two further on, one sees the cottage where she lived. Returned to Shanklin about 5, and this night (Wednesday) returned to London, arriving at 1 o'clock. W.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

BOSTON, Dec. 17.

Editors Chronicle:—Perhaps a letter from this "Head Centre" of the country, may not be uninteresting to your many readers. The holiday season is not quite at its full fever, yet the gaudy appearance of our street-windows indicates a largely-expected investment, by papas and mamas, in personification of St. Nicholas. Boston is more given to the tasty and artistic than any city in the country; and this ruling passion is shown everywhere and at all times, whether in admiration of Zenobia, in listening to Parepa or indulging any slight notion.

By the way, we named just now Parepa, and that word expresses more of true artistic singing, of delicate touches and trills, melodious and precise notes, full and voluptuous intonations, than a pen can convey. The "hub" entire is in furore over her re-entree, which took place last Thursday evening at the Music Hall. Since the halcyon day's of Jenny (nee Lind) Goldschmidt, we have had no such warbling, such delicious music, in Boston, until now. While Parepa is not accorded the very polished touch and tenderness of expression of Lind, her range is higher and better sustained in volume, and her reception as brilliantly flattering.

Garrotting, which was so prevalent awhile to the discomfort of timid men and inoffensive females, has subsided in a measure, thanks to the sentences imposed on some of the highway villians, by our local judges. This is the only true method of ridding a community of crime. When garrotting first was introduced into New York City, fifteen years ago, and its author apprehended and given fifteen years in State Prison the evil died out, and has been resumed only within a few months. The severe sentences now imposed will be visible in the total eradication of the crime here.

But the result can only prove permanently beneficial, by a non intervention of the executive power. The desperadoes within our prison walls, looked before committing crime to a short sentence or speedy pardon, one of which hopes is too frequently realized. Such hesitancy at or neglect of duty is paying a premium on crimes. To day, as wicked a murderer as ever breathed the pure air, lies contentedly in jail by executive clemency. Clemency for what? A young man, assistant in a bank, without an enemy in the world, is deliberately murdered at noon day, in the village of Malden, and the murderer confesses his guilt. He was driven on to the deed, by a greed for gain;—and yet, the executive interposes between him and outraged law.

Juries find deliberate murder to be but manslaughter, and ask the Court even then to have mercy on the culprit. Why? A. is in debt, and to get released from his embarrassment, kills B, for his money. Under such circumstances most flimsy defences are made, with successful result. He was insane for gold! He had no malice aforethought, he only wanted money! How often do we hear such silly attempts to palliate a wrong. So long as such pretexts are taken as criterions, and judgments passed thereon, we may expect crime and its concomitant horrors in every shape, to increase and thrive.

We notice among your advertisements, the cards of W. M. Shute & Son, 173 & 175 Washington Street. Their establishment is one of the largest and oldest in Boston, and in all details of finish and stock is not exceeded by any metropolitan house. We advise all your gallants and girls, when in Boston in guest of desirable patterns of sable, mink, otter, martin and other furs, to visit the rooms of Shute & Son, where clerks and prices will be agreeable. — It is a bad thing to make up a fight, but a good thing to make up a quarrel; but it is better to fight than to have your grocer palm off any other Saleratus on to you than Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, manufactured at 113 Liberty Street, New York. We are glad to see that a good many Merchants are selling it, notwithstanding they can't make so good a profit on it as on other kinds. If any one wants to get up a fight with us, let them try to put some other kind of Saleratus or Soda on to us besides Herrick Allen's Gold Medal.
